

Many Governors Worried More Than They Will Say

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — A mind of the man on the street Southern governor's side sat in his hotel room reading the news about the schools in Arkansas and Virginia, where the fight over integration has closed classrooms.

Publicly, some governors said the fact that schools actually have had no impact in the South. This correspondent pulled the delegates of the conference, parties of the South on the question. The answers have varied.

They have hardened the determination of many segregationists to hold the line, come what may. They have shifted the controversy to a different ground, in the

Truck Driver Saves Women

CANON CITY, Colo. (AP) — Mrs. Cleo Roberts of Denver left the house at 8 a.m. for work, started down a steep, eight-mile hill. She slammed the vehicle into low gear.

The car rounded a curve and then the clutch went out. It picked up speed, swinging around sharp bends in the highway.

Mrs. Gladys Neals of Wichita, Kan., owner of the car, sat tensely as Mrs. Roberts steered around the pickup truck at 75 miles an hour.

The car rounded a curve and then the clutch went out. It picked up speed, swinging around sharp bends in the highway.

Communists Ban Church Opening

BERLIN (AP) — In Kaysa, a small village in the Soviet zone of Germany, Catholic residents decided to build a tiny church.

After months of work in out-dated hours, building with their own hands and using their own materials, the church was opened.

The store was told today in the official publication of the Roman Catholic bishop of Berlin.

TRANSIT STRIKE ENDS
CALCUTTA, India (UPI) — The city's 10,000 streetcar workers returned to work today to end a 42-day strike which crippled public transportation.

SPICY APPLE TWIST
Pare, core and slice into 8 wedges 2 large apples. Sift together 1 1/2 cups sifted Pillsbury's Best all purpose flour, and 1 teaspoon salt, into mixing bowl. Cut in 1/2 cup shortening until particles are the size of small peas. Sprinkle 4 to 5 tablespoons cold water over mixture while tossing and stirring lightly with fork. Add liquid to moist particles, pushing lumps to side, until dough is just moist enough to hold together. Form into a ball. Flatten to about 1/2 inch thick, smooth edges. Roll out on floured surface to a 16 by 10 inch rectangle. Cut into 16 10 by 1 inch strips. Weep 1 strip around each apple wedge. Arrange in 13 by 9 by 2 inch pan, sides not touching. Brush with 1/2 cup melted butter. Sprinkle with mixture of 1/2 cup sugar and 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Pour 1/2 cup water over pastries. Bake in hot oven, 450 degrees, 25 to 30 minutes until golden brown. Serve warm or cold, plain or with cream.

BASIN BRIEFS

Macdonald — Revival services are being held this week through September 29 at the Assembly of God Church in Macdonald with services starting at 8 o'clock each night. The public is invited. Evangelists are the Rev. and Mrs. David Hood of Santa Cruz.

Chilquien — The OES card party will be held in the Chilquien Masonic Hall, starting at 8 p.m., on Friday, September 26. Canasta, bridge and pinocle in play; prizes, refreshments. Public invited.

Eastside Grange — will meet October 4 in the grange hall. Hot-dish supper will start at this time.

To School — Robert Farris, New Pine Creek, left for the University of Oregon Dental School, Portland, on Tuesday. He visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham at Jasper, Oregon, on his way to Portland.

Validated — Irvin Farris of New Pine Creek reports on Monday of this week that he has validated 13 deer so far in that area in the hunting season which opened Saturday. Most of the deer were forked-horn or two-pointers.

Sailor's Wife Takes Care Of Complaint

HONOLULU (UPI) — A Pearl Harbor-based sailor registered just one too many complaints about his wife not writing long enough letters.

He got his answer the other day when he received a letter that looked like his own and one half hours to read.

Lang, of the station, said the letter was from his wife, and it was one on him all right — and the station down to pen a 25 foot reply.

Lang, who is stationed aboard the USS S. S. Lang, thought a moment and added, "Gee, we'll probably be back on the coast by the time I'm finished."

Former Senator Picked By GOP

DENVER (AP) — John J. Harpel, a former state senator, was selected yesterday by Denver Republicans to be their candidate for Congress.

Harpel, head of a company manufacturing salad dressing, will oppose Democratic incumbent Byron G. Rogers Nov. 3.

Carl S. Becker, a Denver city official, withdrew from the race the day after the primary, saying his wife was ill.

LATER THAN YOU THINK

CHILLICOTHE, Mo. (AP) — Charles Watkins returned to his former office, now vacant, to get a bronze plaque that had hung on the wall over his desk. It was official, withdrawn from the race the day after the primary, saying his wife was ill.
