Robatcek - Tracy Rites In Presbyterian Church

Chrysanthemums in rich autumn colors decorated the First Presbyterian Church Sunday, September 14, for the wedding of Louise Charlotte Tracy and John Gary Robatcek.

The Rev. Robert C. Groves read the marriage service before 150 relatives and friends at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Charlotte is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tracy, 2325 Applegate Street. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robatcek of 1519 Oregon Avenue. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her wedding gown of white lace was fashioned with a scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The waltz length skirt featured a scalloped hemline over tulle, and was cut away to the waist in back to show tiers of tulle ruffles. A tatra of pearls held an illusion fingertip veil. She wore glass and white kid slippers and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her string of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom.

In keeping with tradition the bride wore a six pence in her shoe and a blue garter. She carried a handkerchief borrowed from Ida Mommyer Odell which her mother had made of tatted medallions and point lace.

Shirley Thompson was maid of honor and Judy Cross was bridesmaid. They wore frocks of peach nylon organza with matching hats and carried colonial bouquets of chrysanthemums in autumn shades.

Lorie Metler and Debbie Acuff were flower girls. They wore headbands of green to match their full skirted dresses of sheer nylon. Their flowers were nosegays of chrysanthemums.

Best man was Wayne Robatcek.

EIGHT BROTHERS AND SISTERS met for the first time in eight years at the William F. Jones Jr. home, 3851 Wiard Street, on August 15. Seated in the group, left to right, are Ella Slaughter, Earl Jones, Bill Jones and Evelyn Laird. Standing, in the same order, are Dave Jones, Morris Jones, Norman Jones and Joe Jones. The evening also marked the birthday of three members of the family and the surprise announcement of the engagement of Betty Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones, to Jerry Ramey. Refreshments were served to the families of the eight, also to guests not of the immediate family: Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Jones, Ontario, California; Rev. Bonnie Jones, Bellflower, California; and Jerry Ramey of Kingsley Field.

MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE KEITH SNYDER

Susan Myers Is Bride Of L. K. Snyder, Condon

A wedding of interest to many Klamath Falls people was that of Susan Elizabeth Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Myers of Condon, and Lawrence Keith Snyder, son of Mrs. William DeCew of Beaverton and Charles Snyder of Klamath Falls. Lawrence is the grandson of Mrs. Henry Anderson of Klamath Falls and the late Henry Anderson.

The marriage took place September 14 at 2:30 in the Condon Congregational Church with the Rev. Stuart Goude officiating.

Yellow and turquoise satin bows accented the large baskets of gladioli, roses and chrysanthemums of rich autumn shades of yellow, copper and bronze. Candelabra held tall lighted white tapers.

Mrs. Nick Riley at the organ played the wedding music. Mrs. Van Rietman sang "Whither Thou Goest" before the ceremony, and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt before the altar.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown with nylon chiffon bouffant skirt over taffeta. The Chantilly lace bodice featured a jeweled Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. A finger tip length illusion veil trimmed with tiny bows and seed pearls was held in place by a matching chiffon cap accented with seed pearls and jewels. She carried a cascade bouquet of white cymbidium orchids and yellow baby rosebuds entwined with ivy and centered with a white orchid.

Bonnie Jaeger, maid of honor, wore a bouffant yellow nylon gown flaked in small white daisies. She carried a fan of Chantilly lace with yellow and bronze autumn flowers. Bridesmaids, Ann Palm-

WELCOME BACK TO SCHOOL was the greeting shown by Jean Underwood, left, to Maxine Burritt, Mary Egan, and Irene Geiger at the annual open house of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Klamath 1295, Monday night, September 22 at the parish hall. Guests enjoyed school box lunches at tables decorated as blackboards. Clever use of maps, hickory sticks, books and autumn leaves completed the decorations. Guest speakers were Mrs. Otto Smith and Mrs. John Kennedy. Six couples of the A and I square dance group presented several unusual dances for the more than one hundred guests present.
