

Spahn, Ford To Open World Series Action

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee's Warren Spahn and New York's Whitey Ford, the same pair who pitched last October's opener, will face each other in the first game of the 1958 World Series here Wednesday.

The selection of the star southpaws to open the post season proceedings was taken for granted even before the official announcements, scheduled to be made some time today.

Spahn, 22-11 during the regular season, warmed up for his important assignment with a six-inning performance against Cincinnati Saturday, during which he permitted only one run. Ford (14-7) also turned in an impressive performance for his lead-off role with a one-hit, six-inning performance against Baltimore Friday.

Although neither of the managers would admit it, each has his rotation for the first three games all set. Lew Burdette (20-10), three-time conqueror of the Yankees, is a lead pitcher for the Yankees in last year's Milwaukee triumph, in a lead pipe cinch to hurl the second game for the Braves. Opposing him on Thursday, in Milwaukee's County Stadium, will be Bob Turley (21-7), the Yankees' strong-armed right-hander.

Third game opponents figure to be Bob Rush (10-4) for the Braves and Don Larsen (9-6), the only perfect game pitcher in World Series history, for the Yankees. Rush, who hurled three strong innings in the season's finale against Cincinnati Sunday, is this corner's choice to receive the nod over candidates Carleton Willey, Juan Pizarro, Bob Ruhl and Ernie Johnson.

No matter who pitches, and when, the Series figures to go at least six games. Neither of the clubs has a decided advantage over the other. The hitting and fielding is about even, the Braves have the edge in pitching and the Yankees are superior in speed and on the bench.

The Braves, having proved to themselves they could beat the Yankees, are confident they can do it again. The Yankees, on the other hand, point to the fact that both Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron, who missed part of the action last year because of injuries, are hale, hearty and healthy this time.

The Braves will enter the Series with Wes Covington, their big left-handed power hitter, nursing two bad legs. His sub-par physical condition could prove fatal. Cincinnati Manager Jimmy Dykes, for one—and a National League, to boot—thinks Covington's poor underpinnings may cost the Braves the Series.

"The Braves are in trouble," he said before his team clashed with the Yankees in the season's final game. "They're not coming up to it in good shape."

"There are a few things wrong with them right now," Jimmy added. "Left field is one of the big ones. Covington did a good job for them out there last time. Now he has two bad legs. You can't play in that big Yankee Stadium with bum legs. It'll hurt the Braves."

"I'm worried about that guy (Johnny Logan) at shortstop," the 61-year-old Redleg skipper said. "He's having a terrible year. He did a terrific job in the Series last year. He played great shortstop as well as half of left field for Covington. He took care of all the pop flies in short left, allowing Wes to play deep. He'll have to go back even further this time, and he's having his own troubles."

All Owl Hunt members are urged to attend Monday night's dinner meeting at the Winema Hotel according to president Dick Gallagher. Meeting time is 6:30. OTI football coach Rex Hunsaker will review Saturday night's 34-0 loss to Hamilton AFB, while line coach George Miller will give a scouting report on Portland State, the next Tech opponent.

Any person interested in sports and the athletic program at Oregon Tech is invited to attend these Owl Hunt meetings, held every Monday night.

Northwest Conference and Oregon Collegiate Conference football teams generally had rough going in Saturday night's games.

Only two teams in the six-school Northwest Conference were able to post victories. There were two victories by Oregon Collegiate Conference teams also.

Willamette blanked the California Aggies 2-0 and Linfield downed Whitworth 24-13 for the two Northwest Conference victories.

Lewis and Clark lost 26-20 to Chico State, College of Idaho was beaten 20-6 by Eastern Washington, Whitman bowed 13-7 to Central Washington and Pacific was beaten 20-19 by Portland State of the Oregon Collegiate Conference.

The other OCC winner was Southern Oregon which beat Brierley Columbia 25-6. The OCC teams which lost were: Eastern Oregon to Carroll College of Helena, Mont., 10-0; Oregon College of Education to Western Washington 32-12; and Oregon Tech to Hamilton Air Force Base, 34-0.

Northwest Conference action will open Saturday night with games scheduled between Whitman and Linfield and between Willamette and Pacific. Lewis and Clark and College of Idaho will play outside the league—Lewis and Clark vs. Southern Oregon and College of Idaho vs. Cal Poly.

The Oregon Collegiate Conference also will open action with Portland State playing Oregon Tech and Oregon College of Education taking on Eastern Oregon.

Yanks, Braves Snare Pennants; Races End

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The American League "race" that really ended in May during a close Sunday with the New York Yankees winning by 10 games and 40-year-old Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox clinching his sixth batting championship.

Williams smashed seven hits in 11 trips in the final series at Washington, beating out teammate Pete Runnels who had only five hits in 19 at-bats.

Williams clinched it with a home run into the center field bleachers. He had doubled earlier in Boston's 6-4 victory over Washington.

The final figures showed Williams .328 and Runnels .322. Boston's eighth triumph in its last nine games sewed up third place while Cleveland took fourth by whipping Detroit 6-2. Chicago, using young pitchers after a second-place finish, ground up an 11-4 score over Kansas City.

Don Larsen and Tom Sturdivant, tuned up for World Series duty as the Yankees swept two from Baltimore 7-0 and 6-3.

Mickey Mantle won the home run crown with 42 although he had to be satisfied with three singles on the final day. Cleveland's Rocky Colavito hit his 41st to come within one of a tie.

In the National League, Richie Ashburn won the batting title from Willie Mays, 350 to 347. Ashburn had three singles in four trips as Philadelphia snatched Pittsburgh 6-4 in 10 innings. Mays had his 29th homer in a 3-for-3 day while his San Francisco Giants whipped St. Louis 7-2. Cincinnati beat Milwaukee's National League champs 4-0.

Larsen almost certainly won himself a starting job in the Series against Milwaukee by his fine game against Baltimore in the first game. The perfect game pitcher of the 1956 Series allowed only one hit in five scoreless innings, striking out four. Ryne Duren and Johnny Kucks finished the job with a two-hit shutout.

Sturdivant, like Larsen a sore-armed disappointment in the second half of the season, allowed six hits and two runs in six innings.

Rookie Gary Bell went all the way for Cleveland in the "monsters" game against Detroit. Victory meant a fourth-place share of the Series cash for the Indians. They finished half a game ahead of the Tigers, playing only 153. A rained-out game with Baltimore never was replayed.

Rookie Stover McIlwain, Hal Trosky and Bob Shaw pitched for the White Sox. Lou Klimchek of the A's hit his first big league homer.

Manager Billy Rigney gave Mays a hand by batting him in the leadoff position. Needing a perfect five for five to catch the Phils center fielder, he managed to get three for five, including his 29th home run.

Alex Kellner and Brooks Lawrence of Cincinnati teamed up with a four-hit 4-0 shutout of the pennant-winning Milwaukee Braves. Manager Fred Haney paced Bob Rush, Carlton Willey, Eddie Johnson and Juan Pizarro in a World Series tuneup. Willey, likely third game pitcher, was the loser.

With Mays showing the way, the Giants drubbed St. Louis 7-2, finishing in third place 12 games behind the Braves. St. Louis, a major disappointment, wound up in a fifth-place tie with Chicago, 20 games back. The Cubs and Los Angeles finished their seasons Saturday while the Coliseum was given over to pro football Sunday.

Almost overlooked in the excitement over the batting race was the fact that Dave Philley set a major league record with his eighth straight pinch hit for the Phils.

Rush pitched three scoreless innings. Willey and Johnson gave up two runs and Pizarro regave the side in order in the ninth.

a pass interception and a Chicago fumble into two quick TDs, both by Gifford, and wrapped it up with the game barely five minutes old. Webster scored twice and Conerly quarterbacked flawlessly.

New York 14 13 7 3-37
Chicago 6 0 7 0-7
New York: TDs, Gifford 3:18 run, 8 run, 2 run; Webster 2:17 run, 1 plunge; FG, Summerall (28), PAT, Summerall (4).

Chicago: TD, Crow recovered fumble in end zone; PAT, Conrad.

Colts 28, Lions 15
End Ray Berry put on a terrific show as the Colts opened before a record first day crowd at Baltimore, 48,377. Berry climaxed his day by scoring for the second time on a 14-yard pass play at the outset of the last quarter, while the Colts ahead to stay.

Berry, catching 10 passes for 149 yards, also scored on a 26-yard. Howard Cassidy kept the Lions in contention with two touchdowns.

0 9 8 0-15
Detroit: TDs, Cassidy 2 (11), pass from Layne; 30, screen pass from Role; FG, Martin (31).

Baltimore: TDs, Moore (18, run) Berry 2 (26, pass from Units); 14, pass from Units; Dupre (12, run); PAT, Myrha 4.

Skins 24, Eagles 14
Redskin quarterback Ed LeBaron directed fourth period drives of 69 and 90 yards for come-from-behind victory over the Eagles. Dick James and Don Gosseler scored the deciding TDs. Passer Norm Van Brocklin sneaked over from the 1 for an Eagle TD.

Washington 0 10 0 14-24
Philadelphia 7 0 7 0-14
Washington: TDs, Carson (28, pass from LeBaron), James (3), Baker 3, FG, Baker (33).

Philadelphia: TDs, Barnes (1, plunge), Van Brocklin (1, sneak); PAT, Walston 2.
