Medford Girl, Bride Of David D'Olivo

Carol Jean Risner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olen Risner, 611 South Holly Street, Medford, became the bride of David LeRoy D'Olivo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Plo D'Olivo, Klamath Falls, in a ceremony held September 6 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Medford.

The Rev. John H. officiated at the double ring nuptial mass held at 10 o'clock in the morning. Yellow gladioli decorated the church for the event and Bruno Pellegrini played the organ wedding music.

The bride wore a white Chantilly lace gown over white satin fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt which formed a chapel train. Seed pearls outlined the scooped neckline of the dress and trimmed the short lace mitts. Her fingertip length veil was held by a white velvet crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses. Mr. Risner escorted his daughter to the altar.

Donna Eskew, Gold Hill, was maid of honor and attendants were Elaine Zier and Mrs. Barbara Owens, Ashland. They wore yellow brocade frocks with yellow chiffon sashes and matching picture hats and carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Little Keta Swindler, Roseburg, was flower girl and Donald D'Olivo, Klamath Falls, brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. The flower girl wore a yellow brocade frock and carried a basket of bronze chrysanthemums.

served the cake. Mrs. Donald Miller, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. John Chisholm presided at the punch bowl while Mrs. Hanns Meier and Mrs. W. W. Williams poured the coffee. Mrs. Donald Cullop and Ramona Baugh were at the gift tables. Delora Dunn was in charge of the guest book.

The couple is making their home at 401 Beach Street, Ashland, following a wedding trip up the Oregon Coast to Portland. For her traveling attire the bride wore a brown sheath dress with straw colored accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage.

A dinner was held at the home of the bride's parents for 50 out of town relatives and close friends of the couple following the wedding reception. Among the out of town relatives were David's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Orville Giovanni, and paternal grandmother, Mrs. Pamela Ferri, both of Klamath Falls.

The bride attended Medford High School and Southern Oregon College and is employed as a secretary at the General Adjustment Bureau in Medford. David graduated from KUHS in 1955 where he was an outstanding athlete in both basketball and baseball. He attended the University of Oregon, where he was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, and is now a senior in education at Southern Oregon College.

HARVEST MOON was the theme of the Sojourners fall tea and style show Saturday, September 6, at the Willard Hotel. New fall fashions featuring the rich autumn colors were modeled before a background of graceful cattails, lighted by a harvest moon.

Two Marry In Idaho

The wedding of Andra Kern and Barry Stewart was solemnized in the Idaho Falls Mormon Temple on August 26 at 8 o'clock in the morning. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kern, 2113 Homedale Road, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Stewart of Klamath Falls.

The bridal gown was of white satin with lace bodice and full skirt. The fitted bodice featured a round neck edged with lace scallops and long sleeves pointed at the wrist. A crown of pearls held the fingertip length veil of nylon tulle. The bride's bouquet was of white roses.

Ranell Kern, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue taffeta. Marsha Griggs was bridesmaid. Her dress was of rose taffeta. Both attendants carried bouquets of white carnations. Ray Behnke served as best man. Wedding music was played by Joanne Matheson, who also accompanied Kurt Fiedler as soloist.

Mrs. Kern chose a grey lace over pink taffeta gown for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a white knit suit with a corsage of talisman roses.

The wedding reception was held September 3 at the Church of Latter Day Saints in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Ida M. Kerns, the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Roberts of Mesa, Arizona, Mrs. Ned Moon, Janna, Dennis, Roy, and Ned Moon, Mrs. Ed Morris, Mrs. Dale Gordon, Mrs. Dave Stinger of Grants Pass.

The bride is a 1958 graduate of KUHS. Her husband was graduated in 1956 and has been studying for two years at Brigham Young University. They will live in Provo, Utah, while Barry completes his work at BYU.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER

The Elks party room was the scene of a miscellaneous shower August 15 when Joyce Pretari and Theresa Reimer honored Kathleen Carrier, whose marriage to Norman Paup was an event of August 23 in the Sacred Heart Church. Individual cakes were served the guests from the pink and lavender decorated table which was centered with two umbrellas. Games were played after the guest of honor opened her many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Carrier entertained the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner the evening preceding the wedding.

The Carrier home was again the scene of a dinner following the wedding of their daughter. The wedding party, relatives and close friends of the couple were guests.

Out of town guests witnessing the marriage ceremony included: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Albert, Robert, Marie and Dennis Alberts of Palco, Kansas; Mrs. Edward Storts, Edward Jr., Dick and Marcy Storts from Tustin, California; Bernard Carrier of Oakland, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Standen and Floyd of Dorris; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Westhouse and Laurie of Dorris; Mr. and Mrs. Don Stemm of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tillman from Ashland.
