

MRS. OLIVE STARKEY, an employee of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, receives a 30 years service pin and recognition from W. J. Dunham, district traffic manager from Eugene. Meryl Calder, evening chief operator, at left, presented Mrs. Starkey with a corsage. The pin party was held in the lounge of the telephone company Wednesday, September 17, at 2 o'clock. Employees of the company and friends were served cake and coffee by Mrs. Faye Baugh and Mrs. Beverly McLean. —Photo by Kettler

MRS. FRED WISSENBACH shows one of her late husband's paintings which she brought with her on her recent visit to the home of Mrs. Olive Cornett, 509 Eldorado. Rev. Fred Wissenbach was pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church when the family resided here. After serving five years as a housemother at Willamette College, Mrs. Wissenbach has returned to Bend where she has opened a shop featuring rare antiques, paintings and agates. —Photo by Kettler

BETHEL NO. 61

By LUCILLE ANDERSON

International Order of Job's Daughters Bethel 61 held its first meeting of the fall term September 15 at the Scottish Rite Temple. Honored Queen Barbara Moore presided in the east and welcomed everyone back after summer recess.

Discussion was held and a vote taken for the Bethel to hold their first formal dance. Committees were appointed for the dance which will be called "Autumn Fantasy."

The honored queen related the reading of "What the Job Daughters Robe Means to Me" by L. Swain.

The librarian, Carolyn Osborn, reported on the book, "Jane Eyre" by Charlotte Brontë.

Initiation will be held at the next meeting, October 5.

Surprise Party

YREKA—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burbank in Yreka, was the setting for a surprise birthday party given in honor of their daughter, Mrs. John Cummings of South San Gabriel, who is visiting with them.

The honoree was the recipient of many gifts from friends in Mount Shasta, and she was also presented a beautifully decorated cake by Arlene Sears of Grenada. Refreshments were served while colored pictures were being taken.

Prior to her trip to Yreka, the honoree had been honored with a surprise birthday party given for her by her sister, Mrs. Helen Sears in Alhambra.

Present besides Mr. and Mrs. Burbank and Mrs. Cummings were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sears, their daughter and son, Arlene and Stanley and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Desozo, all of Grenada.

WHEN YOU SELECT HER DIAMOND
DON'T do it in haste...

...and remember... it's your jeweler's NAME... that reflects your CARE... and TASTE...!

...make no mistake about THAT... folks DO judge the value of a diamond... by the STORE from which it COMES
...that's why we say...

FIRST choose your JEWELER... and THEN the ring...
She'll look for his NAME... the very FIRST THING...!
CREDIT TERMS...? YES, OF COURSE!

Pickys

700 Main St.

Downtown and
Town & Country
Ph. TU 4-3151

fall coat SALE

38⁰⁰

48⁰⁰

58⁰⁰

78⁰⁰

Paris inspired silhouettes: Trapeze, full-swing, almond, scythe, pear, barrel, slim wrap, pleated and tucked backs. Exciting collar lines: platter, shawl, peter pan, draped, stand-away, cardigan, tuxedo, many more.

Elegant fabrics: new souffles, mohair curl, Italian mosaic, Hockanum Kittenere, Kezar Electrique, Worumbo Ebonique, Forstmann Velours, Oscar Cohn plaids and tweeds.

Fashion's best colors: Black, imperial blue, empire green, holiday red, tortoise, sand, beige, taupe, goldenrod, camel, vicuna, chestnut brown, coppertone, antelope grey. Tweeds and plaids in a host of combinations.

'choice' fashion

on your

'choice'

two-way

charge account!

payable as you prefer:

regular or e-x-t-e-n-d-e-d

LaPointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE