Couple Weds In Alturas

ALTURAS—The Church of Christ was the setting for a wedding on Sunday afternoon, August 24, when Gerald Grant Davis of Canby, California claimed Jo Ann Elouise Mattson as his bride. Forest Meyer, assistant minister, officiated at the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives of the couple.

Jo Ann wore a white satin sheath and fingertip veil for the 2 o'clock service. A clip headpiece embroidered in seed pearls held her veil in place. She carried a shower bouquet of small white chrysanthemums.

Ray Bishop of Willow Ranch gave his niece in marriage. The bride's mother wore a peacock blue silk sack dress with white accessories.

The bridegroom's mother chose a navy blue afternoon dress with matching accessories.

Jo Ann is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Mattson of Alturas and Arthur Mattson. She is a student at Modoc Union High School.

Gerald is the son of Mrs. Fannie Black and the late Mr. Grant Davis of Canby. He is a graduate of Modoc Union High and is currently employed in Canby.

A tiered wedding cake was the centerpiece of the bride's table in the Modoc Hotel Mallard Room where a reception was given by Mrs. Gladys Robbers immediately after the nuptial service. Mrs. Robbers employed the bride during the vacation season and after school hours when she was a student at Modoc Union High School. White chrysanthemums and tall white tapers formed the decorations for the reception.

Yreka OES Holds First Meeting

YREKA—After two months vacation the Stella Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, resumed activities with the observance of Friendship Night. Several past and present officers were honored, during the meeting recently held with worthy matron, Mrs. Marilyn Garoutte presiding.

Old acquaintances were renewed and tribute was paid to newly acquired friends in commemoration of Friendship Night, and all renewed obligations to the Order of Eastern Star.

During the rites of placing the Bible on the altar by Mrs. Boyd Simmons, Mrs. Florence Frank and Mrs. Mary Hebard, the "Ave Maria" was played.

Worthy Matron Marilyn Garoutte especially honored the following district deputy matrons who had aided her in her years as an officer: Mrs. Irma Cooper, Dunsen, Mrs. Willie Adams, Weed, Mrs. Zelma Gerlicher, McCloud, Mrs. Margaret Hayden, Steel, a Chapter, Mrs. Margaret Olson, of Fidelity Chapter, and Mrs. Isabel Elder of Mount Shasta.

All those honored were escorted to the East, later being presented with gifts by Mrs. Garoutte.

Also receiving honors were worthy matrons of District No. 2 of which Stella Chapter is a part. They were Mrs. Helen Hickey, White Pine Chapter, Weed; Mrs. Frances Farley, Evening Star Chapter, Etna; Mrs. Josephine McNelly, Fidelity Chapter, Dunsen; and Mrs. Maxine McIntosh of McCloud Chapter.

Present for the meeting were grand committeemen Mrs. Gladys Hart of the Benevolent Fund, Mrs. Willie Adams, fraternal correspondence, and Mrs. Willie Marie Pritchard, grand representative to California from Oklahoma.

The chapter room was colorfully decorated with arrangements of fall flowers. Refreshments were served in the dining room where the tables had been cleverly decorated with varied colored balloons, clown bean bags, serpentine, gum and peanuts.

Mrs. Pauline Snyder was chairman of the refreshment committee. She was assisted by Mrs. Ruby Johnson, Mrs. Margaret Hayden, Mrs. Josephine Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Millbourn, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moore. Other assistants were Mrs. Julia Harris, Mrs. Ethel Gavin and Mrs. Ahlgren.

Alturas Scene Of August Rites

ALTURAS — In a double ring ceremony at which Wilbur Banks, pastor of the Church of Christ, officiated, Shirley Rhodes, and Jack J. Oxley, both of Alturas, exchanged vows Friday night, August 29. They were married in the home of Jack's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. Oxley before the fireplace which had a formal arrangement of scotch broom, white gladioli and pink asters, flanked with candelabra which held tall white tapers.

Only attendants of the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. Oxley. The bride wore a street length powder blue linen and lace dress.

Her accessories were navy blue and her corsage a white orchid.

Mrs. Oxley's navy blue frock and navy accessories were complemented with a pink rose corsage.

A supper was served at a beautifully appointed table immediately following the 7 o'clock ceremony to members of the immediate family and close friends.

Shirley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rhodes of Independence, Kansas. She received her B.S. degree in education from the University of Kansas and her M.S. degree from the University of Oregon. She will continue to teach physical education in Modoc Union High School, Alturas.

Jack is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Oxley and a grandson of Mrs. Adah Oxley, with whom he has made his home since coming to Alturas after his release from the Navy 10 years ago. He is a veteran of World War II. He attended school in San Francisco. Jack is associated with his uncle who operates Eddingfield's Floral Service.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the couple is at home at 936 Estes Street in Alturas.

Book Reviewing Given For AAUW Meeting

Members and guests attended the first fall meeting of the American Association of University Women on September 29 at the Willard Hotel. Following luncheon Mrs. Philip Blum, the new president, presided over a short business meeting, then introduced her committee chairman.

Study group chairmen announced plans for the coming year, and it was emphasized that the AAUW study groups are open to all women in the community who are interested in participating. Following are the chairmen of these groups: Social studies, Barbara Stevenson; dollars and sense, Jean Underwood; international relations, Jo Ann Hawkins; instrumental music, Mrs. Russell Penzly; drama, Mrs. Aaron Hoffman; creative arts, Mrs. Murdo Morrison; great books, Mrs. James Kerns.

Final plans for the annual rummage sale were announced by Mrs. Glenn Miller. The rummage sale will be held October 24 and 25.

Mrs. Robert Thompson, the featured speaker of the day, was introduced by Mrs. Harry Todd, program chairman. Mrs. Thompson presented food for thought in the form of a book review of "The Reign of Pippin IV," a fabrication by John Steinbeck. Carrying out this theme were the attractive table decorations by Mrs. Richard Newman.

Players Club

Members and guests of the Players Club were entertained Wednesday evening, September 17, in the library club rooms by Mrs. Albert Petersteiner, Mrs. Ed Gowen and Mrs. Ethel Dibble.

Refreshments were served at 8 o'clock from a beautifully decorated table.

Mrs. Lee Holliday, president, conducted a short business meeting.

Following the meeting, cards were in play with high scores in bridge awarded to Mrs. Vernon Neet and Mrs. Percy Cook. Mrs. Erwin Kramer and Mrs. Don Norman had the high scores in pinocle. Mrs. May Eck was surprised with a birthday gift.

The next regular meeting is slated for Wednesday, October 1, at 7:45 in the city library club rooms.
