

MR. AND MRS. SIDNEY NOBLES cut the first slice of wedding cake at the reception following their marriage at the Sacred Heart Church in Susanville.

— Eastman Studio Photo, Susanville

Nobles-Bengard Vows Given In Susanville

YREKA—Tall wedding baskets of large white chrysanthemums and white gladioli, interspersed with sprays of white bubble blossoms, and lighted candelabra decorated the Sacred Heart Catholic Church at Susanville for the recent marriage of Katherine Marie Bengard and Sidney Nobles. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Bengard of Yreka, and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jess Nobles of Susanville. Monsignor P. J. Moran officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Thomas Snyder sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Donald Howery. Katherine, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace gown over tulle, fashioned with a scoop neckline, three-quarter length sleeves, snug bodice trimmed in satin and a full ballerina length skirt. Her slippers were of white satin. She wore white hand-crocheted Madeira gloves and her jewelry consisted of pearl earrings and a love drop pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Her fingertip length French illusion veil was secured to a white satin crown trimmed in seed pearls and she carried a white prayer book adorned with a white cat's paw orchid corsage nestled in an arrangement of Stephanotis blossoms from which cascaded a billow of white picot edged satin. Vanda Mulroney, maid of honor, and Grace Day, bridesmaid, wore identical frocks of light blue chiffon tulle with matching shoes. The sleeveless gowns were styled with scoop necklines, vee backs and harem skirts. A white ostrich plume added a touch of elegance to feathered pink and white carnations fashioned into a wedding ring bouquet. An accent of interwined pink, blue and lavender ribbon outlined the circle and swirled into streamers. The white hand-crocheted Madeira lace gloves with a flower pattern forming into tiny cuffs, and pearl love drop necklaces worn by the attendants were gifts from the bride.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was John Yerraga of Westwood, and guests were seated by Charles Oxford of Westwood, Jerry Beavers, and Robert Bengard, cousin of the bride, of Susanville. All the attendants wore dark suits with matching blue neckties, the tuxes being gifts from the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bengard donned a black and white afternoon dress, and the bridegroom's mother a navy blue. Both wore white accessories and carnation corsages.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED

A party honoring Donny and Bud Stansberry was held at their home, 1931 Wantland Avenue, September 25, which was also the date of their mother's birthday. Bud was 1-year-old September 29 and on October 3 Donny will be 3. Guests were Len Bryant, Cindy, Richard, Benny and Lee Bear, Bobby, Marie and David Billings, Steven, David and Danny Lenniger, Duane Mohr, Gary and Stevie King, Donnie Hudson, Barbara June Hawkins, Mrs. Jeanne Mohr, Mrs. Ellen Mohr, Mrs. Wanda Billings and the three honored guests.

INSTALLATION OF NEW OFFICERS of Klamath Salon 355 Eight and Forty was held September 24. The new president and some of those members participating in the ceremony are pictured left to right, Leola Heilbronner, installing sergeant at arms; Vera Petrick, past president; Katherine Keep, president; May Rudd, Tulalake, retiring president; Lillian Otterbein, installing officer; and Arlene Schubert, past president.

— Miller-Williams Photo

Chiloquin Couple Give Nuptial Vows

CHILQUIN—In a candlelight double ring ceremony Barbara Alice Adamo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adamo, exchanged vows with Robert Wayne DuBois, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. DuBois, Thursday evening, September 11, at the Methodist Church. The Rev. Harley Zeller officiated. Large beauty baskets of pink and white gladioli were placed on either side of the tall candelabra which held alternating pink and white candles. Pews were marked by large loops of pink and white satin streamers.

Barbara, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white nylon lace and tulle. It was fashioned with a scalloped neckline, tight bodice, long sleeves, and a full skirt which was cutaway in the back to show tiers of tulle ruffles. A tiny bandeau decorated with seed pearls held her shoulder length veil of illusion net. Her bouquet was of pink roses surrounded by white carnations.

Best man was Richard Popp, Jerold Oates, friend of the bridegroom, acted as usher and candlelighter.

Mrs. John Mannering was soloist accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Gerald Wolff.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Adamo wore an aqua tulle dress trimmed in fur and a corsage of white carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore navy blue with a white carnation corsage.

A reception was held for the newlyweds at the Popp home following the ceremony. Serving the attractive three-tiered bridal confection was Mrs. William Wampler. A cousin of the bridegroom, Betty Winkle, served the punch. For going away, Barbara wore a royal blue lightweight wool sheath with white accessories. The couple left for a wedding trip to the Oregon coast. Wayne left September 25 to return for his last 16 months in the Air Force at Eglin Field, Florida. Barbara will live with a sister-in-law, Mrs. Louis Bickers in Eugene and attend the University Business College this year.

Both are graduates of Chiloquin High School and the bridegroom attended Bible Standard Institute in Eugene. Attending the wedding from Klamath Falls was the bride's sister, Judy, who attends KUHS. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mangum, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Lewis.

Draperies

Custom or Ready-Made!

Decorator Service!
Full Length Samples
Kirsch Rods - Installation Service

Drapery Dept.—2nd Floor

721 Main YOUR STORE Phone TU 161

8 at 40 Installs New Officers

Installation of new officers of Klamath Salon 355 Eight and Forty was held Wednesday evening, September 24, in the American Legion Hall. President May Rudd opened the meeting in ritual order. Reports were given. Julia Williams reported on Eight and Forty Convention held in Gearhart, Oregon. Others who attended from Salon 355 were Naomi Kurtz, May Rudd and Elizabeth Petersteiner. Each reported on the various activities held there. Lillian Otterbein reported she had been appointed to serve as the fifth member of the Eight and Forty state department child welfare board. Fannie Thompson reported she had been appointed to serve on the Eight and Forty partnership board of the state department.

At the conclusion of business and reports, Lillian Otterbein, who is a past department president of the Eight and Forty and installation officer for the evening, was escorted to the rostrum by sergeant at arms Arlene Schubert.

President May Rudd turned the meeting over to Lillian who proceeded with the installation assisted by Leola Heilbronner as sergeant at arms. New officers to be installed retired from the room to be duly escorted in. The theme of the installation was the star in the auxiliary pin and the Eight and Forty lug which is attached below the Auxiliary pin.

Past presidents holding arches made of Auxiliary poppies formed the arch through which Leola Heilbronner, sergeant at arms, escorted the new officers in front of the rostrum assisted at the piano by Bea Van. As each officer was given her instructions of duty she was escorted by Leola to form the star. The officers who formed the star were Katherine Keep, president; Katherine Phillips, first vice president; Alice Abbott, second vice president; Leah Glueck, secretary-treasurer; Frances Yost, historian; Anna Bean, chaplain; Lina Motschenbacher, sergeant at arms; and May Rudd, executive member and retiring president.

Immediately behind the star the lug was formed with Arlene Schubert, Vera Petrick, Elizabeth Petersteiner, Edna Russell, Julia Williams and Fannie Thompson, holding the poppy arches. At the conclusion of installation ceremony each officer was escorted to her station. Lillian Otterbein, installation officer, presented the retiring president, May Rudd, with a past presidents pin, and May Rudd presented the new president, Katherine Keep, with the year pin. Each officer installed presented to the new president a flower spray in a pledge to cooperate with her during her reign of office.

President Katherine Keep concluded the meeting and refreshments were served by Tulalake members, Arlene Campbell, Ruth Kadous, Regina Frey and Kathleen Todd.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM GARRIOTT at the reception following their wedding September 28 in Mount Shasta.

— Photo by McKinney

Nancee Love Is Bride Of William Garriott

MOUNT SHASTA — Lighted tapers in candelabra and bouquets of autumn flowers decorated the altar of the Mount Shasta Community Methodist Church for the wedding of Nancee Corinne Love and William L. Garriott Sunday afternoon, September 28. The Rev. Harold Engdahl officiated at the double ring ceremony, in which he sang the Lord's Prayer.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Zellmer Love and James J. Love, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a white Bible, a gift from her mother, that was topped with a spray of Cecile Bruner roses and Stephanotis tied with white ribbons.

Maid of honor was Alice Ragsdale. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Garriott Sr., of Dunsmuir.

George Burrell was best man for his friend. Steven Love was ring bearer. Carleton and Paul Love ushered the guests to their seats. They are brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Barbara Reed sang "Al-ways" and "Because" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Ann Messenger.

A reception in the church parlor followed the wedding. The newlyweds cut the three tier wedding cake which was then served by Mrs. George Burrell. Barbara Porteous served punch and Mrs. Betty Engdahl presided at the coffee service. Alice Ragsdale took charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Myrnel Souza, San Francisco, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Catherine Garriott, Dunsmuir, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hittenberger and Mrs. A. H. Krohnert, North Highlands; Mr. and Mrs. George Burrell, Medford; Mrs. Emily Crenshaw and Mrs. Florence Johnson, Dunsmuir; Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Ragsdale, Mrs. M. O. Bortolazzo and Mrs. E. M. Rhodes of Weed.

Following a wedding trip the couple is at home in Dunsmuir where the bridegroom will complete his senior year at high school. The new Mrs. Garriott will also finish her last year at Mount Shasta High School.

Beta Sigma Phi Kappa Chapter

Kappa chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its opening meeting of the year September 9 at the home of Lorraine Storey. Charlotte Pierce was co-hostess.

Lorraine Storey, president, conducted the business meeting. Following the opening ritual Jeanne Walker, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting. Donna Turner gave the treasurer's report and committee chairmen made their reports.

A rummage sale will be held in the near future to help raise money for the service project of the group for the coming year.

During the meeting the ritual of fulfillment was ready by Brownie Bramwell, Eleanor Souder, Donna Turner and Dorothy Lowell.

Programs from the book of the year "Beauty" will not start until the next meeting.

Members present included Brownie Bramwell, Isabelle Brixner, Carol Creswell, Lavonne Kellow, Dorothy Lowell, Betty Perrin, Betty Parsons, Charlotte Pierce, Lois Rea, Mary Lou Roufs, Agnes Rusth, Eleanor Souder, Lorraine Storey, Donna Turner, Katie Vanderhoff, Jonnie Vanish, Jeanne Walker and Shirley Mayhew.

Miller's ANNUAL OCTOBER

PRICED FROM 29.95

COAT EVENT NOW IN PROGRESS

The finest fashions in Fall and Winter Coats are found at Miller's... you will purchase just the very finest coat available for the price... Miller's guarantee quality, workmanship, and fabric... Hurry in for first choice!

USE YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT

"the best place to shop after all"

FOR ONE WEEK ONLY

STREET FLOOR

Stockings nationally known for their sheerness, strength, and proportioned fit... not only this, they came in a wonderful choice of weights and colors. Save now at reduced prices!

Regular Pair Price!	SALE PAIR PRICE!
1.61	NOW 1.35
1.50	NOW 1.24
1.65	NOW 1.36
1.95	NOW 1.61

USE YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT

SAVE BY THE

TH...

EARN FROM THE

ST

Be thrifty the smart way: open your account... or add to your account at First Federal on or before the 10th of any month. Earn 3 1/2% from the 1st of the month.

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION

540 MAIN STREET

Member Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation

CASUAL COMFORT TOGS FOR BOYS

Ivy League Dress Shirts
Smart ivy stripes and cotton flannel prints by Tex-son in sizes 1-7. All styled just like the big fellows wear. $1.59 to $1.98.

White Shirts
Tex-son's dress-up whites at just $1.98. Also French cut styles with bow tie included. Individually boxed, ideal for a gift. $2.98.

Little Boys' Dress Pants
Famous Tex-son's in comfortable, good looking flannels and cord-like fabrics. In the new darker shades for fall. Sizes 2-6. $3.49 to $3.98.

Baby Comforter

Soft and cozy, this Barclay quilted comforter filled with snow white Warmcel for warmth without weight. Washable, too. See it in our infant's department.

2 98

24¢ Green Stamps on All Purchases
30-Day Charges—Revolving Charges

Fashion Villa

TOWN & COUNTRY CASUALS

TOWN & COUNTRY SHOPPING CENTER

Shop Till 9