Mike Jordan Wins Contest

Surprises that awaited football fans over the weekend also made their effects known to entrants in the Herald and News Football Experts Contest.

Two games on the list (Michigan - Michigan State) and (Air Force Academy-Iowa) ended in ties, and one game (Hentley-Glendale) was not played at all.

Despite these handicaps, we had winners this week. They were: Mike Jordan, 3317 Shasta Way, first prize; Bob Victorin, Malin, second prize; Allan R. Taylor, Malin, third prize.

Honorable mention winners were Mabel Porter, Francis Kenyon, George Shadle, Bob Flame, Edwin Malork, Dick Abraham, William Seaberry, Merle Halasa, Larry Binney, Dean Matlock, Dave Alexander, Vern Henngh, and A. Z. Woody, all of Klamath Falls; Bucky Wilson, Merrill; George H. Brady, Malin, and Tod Shelton, Lakeview.

All these honorable mention winners missed only five games. Contestants are reminded that tie-breaker games also are counted as games in the contest, and the scores of those games are used to break ties. Thus games are counted both as games themselves and as games in scoring.

TV CAUSES FIRES
NEW YORK (UPI) — Fire Commissioner Edward F. Cananagh blamed television Sunday for at least part of a 90 per cent increase in kitchen fires this year. Cananagh said most of them occur between five and seven in the evening. He suggested cooks keep their eyes on the pot instead of the TV screen.

Only Single Fire In Klamath Area

Despite a certain number of careless hunters, the only forest fire in this area known to be going Monday morning was a small affair in the Klamath River Canyon, about five miles downstream from Keno, the Klamath Forest Protective Association reported.

However, the KFFPA added that there was positive evidence of hunters' carelessness. No sooner had deer season opened Saturday morning than crews found two abandoned campfires which could have given trouble. The cause of Monday's fire was not yet known at the time of the report.
