

New York Extends World Series

Spahn, Ditmar Could Tangle Wednesday

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Two-time Milwaukee winner Warren Spahn and New York's Art Ditmar appeared to be the logical candidates today to pitch Wednesday's sixth game of the World Series.

Bob Turley shut out the Braves 7-0 Monday. That gave the Yankees their second victory in five games and fanned their faint hopes of becoming the first team in 23 years to overcome a 3-1 handicap.

Head manager — Fred Haney of the Braves or Casey Stengel of the Yankees — has announced his pitcher as yet. They said enough, however, to indicate that Spahn and Ditmar would get the call.

Asked whether he thought Spahn, who pitched a brilliant two-hitter in the fourth game Sunday, would be sufficiently rested by Wednesday, Haney replied: "He's got all winter to rest."

Spahn said: "I'll be ready, but it's up to the manager. If he asks me, I'll try to do the job for him."

Turley Changes To Cutie

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees are still alive in the World Series because Bob Turley had rather be a "cutie" than a powerhouse on the mound.

The 6-foot-2, 244-pound speedballer risked Manager Casey Stengel's wrath and a niche in the doghouse in pitching the Yankees to a 7-0 victory Monday at Yankee Stadium.

He didn't do it with blinding fast

BOB TURLEY ... turns into cutie balls, for which he is renowned. He did it with curves and sliders which had Milwaukee's sluggers gawking with bats on their shoulders.

He was taking a gambling chance.

After Turley had been shelled from the mound in the first inning of the second game at Milwaukee, with the Yankees finally losing 13-5, Stengel reportedly was fit to be tied.

"The fancy stuff got him," Stengel said. "He is a fast ball pitcher. He should stick to his fast ball."

On that occasion, Turley's curves, sliders and sinkers were missing the plate, forcing him to come in with his hard one. This was all the Braves wanted. They waited and teed off.

They waited again Monday, but without the same luck. Turley's heaters were clipping the corners and bending over the plate. The Braves' big guns — Bill Bruton, Harv Aaron, Eddie Mathews and West Covington — were constantly being caught off balance.

Turley's breaking stuff was so well controlled that he was able to use his fast ball just as a quick deceiver.

"I guess about three fourths of my pitches were curves or sliders," he said. "I threw sidearm and overhead. I felt I was in control all the way."

Stengel had reason to be pleased.

"The difference in the way he pitched today and last week," commented the four manager, "was that today when he threw a curve it was a strike and they couldn't hit it. In the other game when he threw a curve it was a ball and they didn't have to hit it."

Turley called the game the best he ever pitched, rating it over the 1-0, 10-inning game he lost to Clem Labine of Brooklyn in the 1956 series.

"There wasn't a time during the game that I felt they could get to me," he said. "I don't remember when I have had better control."

Stengel listed four possible pitching choices . . . Don Larsen, Ryne Duren, Johnny Kucks and Ditmar.

"Right now Ditmar would be the closest man that should pitch," he said. "He's better now than he was last year. I haven't had to use him in this series yet, but he's been my No. 1 early inning relief man all the way through. I didn't use him because I had no spot for him."

Stengel was not especially pleased by the way his charges went to work on Lew Burdette Monday, once they had the Yankee-killer on the ropes.

After touching him up for a run on Gil McDougald's third-inning home run, the Yankees routed him with four hits in the sixth. By the time lefty Juan Pizarro put out the fire, the Yankees had scored six runs and the game was no longer in doubt.

It was the first time the Yankees had been able to beat Burdette in five fall meetings.

Burdette didn't appear depressed.

"They got only one good hit off me in that sixth inning," he said, referring to Yogi Berra's double, "As for McDougald's homer, it was a freak. The ball hit the screen alongside the foul pole. It would have been a foul ball in our park."

Burdette would have had to pitch a shutout to match Turley's brilliant work. The strong-armed right-hander doled out five hits, all singles, and fanned 10. He walked three and was in trouble only once. That was in the sixth when Bill Bruton led off with a single and Red Schoendienst followed with a soft liner to left center that had "base hit" labeled all over it. Elston Howard, playing left field in place of Norm Siebert, dashed in and made a spectacular sprawling catch in the outstanding defensive play of the series. Scrambling to his feet, he threw to Moose Skowron, doubling up Bruton. The Braves did not threaten after that.

Stengel listed four possible pitching choices . . . Don Larsen, Ryne Duren, Johnny Kucks and Ditmar.

"Right now Ditmar would be the closest man that should pitch," he said. "He's better now than he was last year. I haven't had to use him in this series yet, but he's been my No. 1 early inning relief man all the way through. I didn't use him because I had no spot for him."

Stengel was not especially pleased by the way his charges went to work on Lew Burdette Monday, once they had the Yankee-killer on the ropes.

After touching him up for a run on Gil McDougald's third-inning home run, the Yankees routed him with four hits in the sixth. By the time lefty Juan Pizarro put out the fire, the Yankees had scored six runs and the game was no longer in doubt.

It was the first time the Yankees had been able to beat Burdette in five fall meetings.

Burdette didn't appear depressed.

"They got only one good hit off me in that sixth inning," he said, referring to Yogi Berra's double, "As for McDougald's homer, it was a freak. The ball hit the screen alongside the foul pole. It would have been a foul ball in our park."

Burdette would have had to pitch a shutout to match Turley's brilliant work. The strong-armed right-hander doled out five hits, all singles, and fanned 10. He walked three and was in trouble only once. That was in the sixth when Bill Bruton led off with a single and Red Schoendienst followed with a soft liner to left center that had "base hit" labeled all over it. Elston Howard, playing left field in place of Norm Siebert, dashed in and made a spectacular sprawling catch in the outstanding defensive play of the series. Scrambling to his feet, he threw to Moose Skowron, doubling up Bruton. The Braves did not threaten after that.

Stengel listed four possible pitching choices . . . Don Larsen, Ryne Duren, Johnny Kucks and Ditmar.

"Right now Ditmar would be the closest man that should pitch," he said. "He's better now than he was last year. I haven't had to use him in this series yet, but he's been my No. 1 early inning relief man all the way through. I didn't use him because I had no spot for him."

Stengel was not especially pleased by the way his charges went to work on Lew Burdette Monday, once they had the Yankee-killer on the ropes.

After touching him up for a run on Gil McDougald's third-inning home run, the Yankees routed him with four hits in the sixth. By the time lefty Juan Pizarro put out the fire, the Yankees had scored six runs and the game was no longer in doubt.

It was the first time the Yankees had been able to beat Burdette in five fall meetings.

Burdette didn't appear depressed.

"They got only one good hit off me in that sixth inning," he said, referring to Yogi Berra's double, "As for McDougald's homer, it was a freak. The ball hit the screen alongside the foul pole. It would have been a foul ball in our park."

Burdette would have had to pitch a shutout to match Turley's brilliant work. The strong-armed right-hander doled out five hits, all singles, and fanned 10. He walked three and was in trouble only once. That was in the sixth when Bill Bruton led off with a single and Red Schoendienst followed with a soft liner to left center that had "base hit" labeled all over it. Elston Howard, playing left field in place of Norm Siebert, dashed in and made a spectacular sprawling catch in the outstanding defensive play of the series. Scrambling to his feet, he threw to Moose Skowron, doubling up Bruton. The Braves did not threaten after that.

MILWAUKEE	AB	R	H	B	I	P	O	A
Bruton cf	3	0	2	0	2	0	0	0
Schoendienst 2b	3	0	1	0	0	1	0	0
Mathews 3b	4	0	1	0	1	3	0	0
Aaron rf	4	0	0	1	0	0	0	0
Covington lf	4	0	1	0	2	0	0	0
b-Wise	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Torre 1b	3	0	0	0	1	0	0	0
Crandall c	3	0	0	0	1	0	0	0
Logan ss	3	0	0	0	0	3	0	0
Burdette p	2	0	0	0	1	0	0	0
Pizarro p	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
a-Hanebrink	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Willey p	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	30	0	5	0	24	10	0	0

NEW YORK	AB	R	H	B	I	P	O	A
Bauer rf	4	1	1	0	2	0	0	0
Lumpe 3b	3	0	1	0	0	1	0	0
Richardson 3b	1	0	0	0	0	1	0	0
Mantle cf	3	1	2	0	2	0	0	0
Berra c	4	1	1	1	1	0	0	0
Howard lf	3	1	0	0	3	1	0	0
Skowron 1b	4	1	1	1	5	1	0	0
McDougald 2b	4	2	2	3	3	1	0	0
Kubek ss	4	0	1	0	1	1	0	0
Turley p	3	0	1	2	0	0	0	0
Totals	33	7	10	7	27	6	0	0

MILWAUKEE	IP	H	R	ER
Turley (W)	9	5	0	0
Burdette (L)	5	1	3	6
Pizarro	1	2	3	1
Willey	1	0	0	0

KUHS Boosters To Hold Session

The Pelican Booster Club will meet Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. in the Willard Hotel to hear the Klamath Union High School coaches' report on the Pels' upcoming game with the Orland, California Trojans.

The Pelicans travel to Orland this Friday for their last non-league game before opening their Southern Oregon Conference schedule against Medford the following week.

Coach Andy Knudsen and assistants Jim Inglesby and Jack Peterson will also give a resume of the Pelicans' defeat at the hands of the Springfield Millers last week.

Complete POLISH JOB

1 DAY SERVICE—IN AT 8—OUT AT 5!

Using famous Cadillac "BLUE CORAL" POLISH

DICK B. MILLER CO.
7th & Klamath Ph. 4-4154

World Series Figures

Standings of the clubs

Club	W	L	Pct.
Milwaukee (NL)	3	2	.600
New York (AL)	2	3	.400

First game at Milwaukee
New York 100 120 000—3 8 1
Milwaukee 000 290 010—4 10 0

Ford, Duren (8) and Berra; Spahn and Crandall. L — Duren. Home runs—New York: Skowron, Bauer.

Second game at Milwaukee
New York 100 100 003—5 7 0
Milwaukee 710 000 238—13 15 1

Turley, Maas (1), Kucks (1), Dickson (5), Monroe (8) and Berra; Burdette and Crandall. L — Turley. Home runs—New York: Mantle (2), Bauer. Milwaukee: Bruton, Burdette.

Third game at New York
Milwaukee 000 000 000—0 6 0
New York 000 020 208—4 4 0

Rush, McMahon (7) and Crandall; Larsen, Duren (8) and Berra. W—Larsen. L—Rush. Home run—New York: Bauer.

Fourth game at New York
Milwaukee 000 001 110—3 9 0
New York 000 000 000—0 2 1

Spahn and Crandall; Ford, Kucks (8); Dickson (9) and Berra. L—Ford.

Fifth game at New York
Milwaukee 000 000 000—0 5 0
New York 001 006 008—7 10 0

Burdette, Pizarro (6), Willey (8) and Crandall; Turley and Berra. L—Burdette. Home run—New York: McDougald.

Sixth game, Wednesday, Oct. 8 at Milwaukee.

Seventh game (if necessary), Thursday, Oct. 9 at Milwaukee.

Financial figures fifth game
Attendance—65,278
Receipts (net)—$419,079.09
Commissioner's share — $62,861.86
Clubs' and leagues' share—$39,054.30

Duren Says He's Ready As Starter

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Relief ace Ryne Duren notified Casey Stengel today he is ready to pull a Jim Konstanty and start Wednesday's World Series game for the Yankees—"if that's what they want me to do."

In the event Duren does start against the Braves—and Stengel says there's a strong possibility he may—it will mark the third time in eight years a manager reached into his bullpen and converted a relief ace into a starter for a World Series contest.

Manager Eddie Sawyer of the Phillies caused quite a stir in 1950 when he nominated his No. 1 fireman, Konstanty, to pitch the series opener against the Yankees. Konstanty gave a fine account of himself although he lost to Vic Raschi, 1-0.

In 1956, Manager Walt Alton of the Brooklyn Dodgers prolonged the series for another day when he selected relief ace Clem Labine to start the sixth game against the Yankees. Labine topped Bob Turley, 1-0, in 10 innings to force the series to a seventh game.

"I'll go as far as I can if they pick me to start," said the bespectacled Duren, who made only one starting appearance all year for the Yankees in the final phase of the season.

"It was against Detroit," Duren recalled, "and I didn't do too badly. I went five innings and shut them out on six hits."

Even if Duren starts, Stengel indicated he would "load his bullpen" with other pitchers, whom he would call on as soon as he deemed necessary.

"I'll have (Art) Ditmar, (Johnny) Kucks, (Murry) Dickson and all the rest of 'em out there if I have to," Stengel explained.

NY Yankees 6-5 Wednesday Picks

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Yankees have been made 6-5 favorites in man-to-man odds to defeat the Braves Wednesday and square the World Series at three games apiece.

The Braves are listed as 11-5 favorites to win the best of seven game series for the second straight year.

Auburn Snarers Top Spot In Grid Voting

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Auburn's Tigers, back in the familiar spot at the top of the national college football rankings, take on Kentucky next Saturday in an effort to become the first team to hold that place for more than a week this season.

Auburn, national champion last year, was rated only fifth in the preseason Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters. Ohio State was picked as No. 1. In just two weeks those positions have been reversed.

Ohio State slid after its second straight close call, a belated 12-7 decision over Washington.

Auburn climbed to the top with rather impressive victories over Tennessee and Chattanooga, drawing a rush of first-place votes from the experts to lead Oklahoma by 99 points this week.

According to the voting, the Game of the Week should be the meeting between third-ranked

Jefferson Retains Vote Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Defending state champion Jefferson of Portland continues for the second week to rank as the top team in the Associated Press high school football poll.

Undefeated Jefferson led the first poll, then strengthened its hold with a 48-0 victory over Washington in a Portland League game last Friday.

Marshfield and Medford traded positions in the No. 2 and No. 3 slots in the poll after their hard-fought game last weekend. Medford won 3-0 on Mike Murray's field goal and advanced to first runnerup. It was Medford's third straight win this season.

Marshfield, second last week, dropped back into a tie for third with Madison of Portland. Medford, after three decisive victories, was hard-pressed to beat unranked Benson 14-7 last week.

North Bend held on to the No. 5 position by rolling over Coquille 44-0. North Bend also is undefeated in four games.

North Salem and Astoria tied for sixth. Last week North Salem beat Lebanon 25-7 and Astoria showed strength with a 26-14 victory over powerful Beaverton. In the first poll, North Salem was sixth and Astoria seventh.

West Linn was the only new entry in this week's poll, taking over eighth place after routing Oregon City 40-19.

Roseburg, despite its impressive 21-12 victory over strong South Eugene, dropped one rung to ninth place. And Grants Pass dropped from ninth to tenth although it defeated Central Point 26-7.

McMinnville, No. 10 last week, dropped to among the also-rans, despite defeating Dallas 26-7.

The standings, with 10 points given for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc., and the win-loss records:

Team	Points
1. Jefferson (4-0)	177
2. Medford (3-0)	156
3. Marshfield (3-1)	125
3.4. Madison (4-0)	125
5. North Bend (4-0)	97
6.7. Astoria (3-1)	56
6.7. North Salem (3-1)	56
8. West Linn (4-0)	36
9. Roseburg (3-0-1)	25
10. Grants Pass (2-1-1)	27

Others: South Salem 21, Baker 17, Gresham 14, McMinnville 11, Astoria 10, Springfield 8, Willamina 7, Vale 4, Redmond 3, Corvallis, Cottage Grove, South Eugene, 2.

For The Sportsman -- Farmer -- Logger!

See the International 8-Passenger "TRAVELL" STATION WAGON

Lots of Clearance, Power, Easy Ride, Plenty of Room!

LOW PRICE! 2 and 4 Wheel Drive

See it at . . . JUCKELAND MOTORS INC. 11th & Klamath Ph. 2-2581

Herald and News SPORTS

Tuesday, October 7, 1958 KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON Page 1 Sec. B

Oregon Tech, Pels On Road For Weekend Gridiron Play

Modoc Field will remain dark this weekend as both the Oregon Tech Owls and Klamath Union High School Pelicans pack their bags and head out of town for their weekly football action.

Rex Hunsaker's Oregon Tech club travels to La Grande for an Oregon Collegiate Conference meeting with Eastern Oregon College Saturday night. On Friday night, Andy Knudsen's Pelicans journey to Orland, California, for a non-counting contest with the host Orland High gridders.

The Owls will be away only one week before returning home to meet Southern Oregon in an OCC and Homecoming Weekend game. The Pelicans will be out of town for two more weeks before meeting Grants Pass on Modoc Field October 24.

Hunsaker's Owls had an easy time of practice Monday afternoon, but Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday promise more than three days of rugged practice work. After viewing the films of Tech's 31-21 win over Portland State College last Saturday, the OTI coaching staff mapped out heavy duty work for their gridders.

"We might have looked good on the outside in winning last Saturday night," Hunsaker told his club Monday afternoon, "but our blocking and faking in the backfield was terrible and some of the line play needs lots of improvement before we are ready to meet Eastern Oregon." The Tech mentor added, "And those films don't lie," Hunsaker remarked.

Drawing lots of time in this week's practice schedule will be work against a passing attack. The Owls' aerial defenses let down last week against Portland State, a prime factor in the Vikings staying close to OTI in the scoring column until the last few minutes of the game. Other time will be devoted to working with the backs on blocking assignments and timing on running plays.

Hunsaker announced that end Ardel Hamilton will rejoin the club for the first time since the first game of the season September 20. Hamilton suffered a knee injury in the 6-0 win over Westminster and hasn't even taken part in any contact work since that time. The addition of Hamilton is expected to bolster the Owls' passing game and give quarterbacks Charlie Ganter and Roy Johnson a prime target to throw to.

The Pelicans' trip to Orland marks the result of athletic director Jim Johnson's successful attempt to schedule a game to fill the blank spot on the KU schedule.

At the outset of the season each of the Southern Oregon Conference schools faced the possibility of having an open weekend prior to the opening of league action. The Pels are the only ones who managed to get a fill-in game.

In the Orland Trojans the KU squad meets an opponent that is necessarily an unknown quantity. Because of the distance and unavailability of a Trojan schedule there has been no chance for a scouting report. A plan to swap movies of previous games played fell through when the California school was unable to make arrangements for a photographer.

Pel coach Andy Knudsen and Orland boss, Marshall Latimer, will trade notes for the only pre-game preparations.

Newspaper reports on the Orland squad term the Trojans the number two team in the Westside Conference, behind powerful Willows Orland.

Orland has a 3-win, 1-loss record so far in the 1958 season, having suffered their only defeat to the Chico Jayvees by a last-minute tie-breaking score of 20-13. In the win side of the ledger, the Trojans hold victories over Anderson High, 19-0, and Enterprise, 6-0. Both are California schools.

A letter received from coach Latimer shows the Orland club to be the lightest of the teams that the Pelicans have faced to date. There is a tendency, however, on the parts of the KU mentors to consider the listed weights with a grain of salt.

The Pelicans will avoid scrimmages in their preparations for the Orland test in order that some of the injuries incurred by the squad through the past two weeks will heal. Monday night the KU club took a complete day off.

Scheduled to return to the Pel lineup is tackle Nick Insley who was sidelined for the Springfield game last Friday because of an injured shoulder. Still missing, however, is starting center, Charlton Curran, who as yet has not returned to school after treating the ligaments in his knee.

The Pelicans have a 1-win, 3-loss mark for the 1958 starts. The victory was garnered from the Eugene Axemen.

LADY CHAMPION — Donna Sprout is pictured after successfully stopping Luster Nerseth for the Reames Country Club Women's championship.

Good Golf

By CLARK GOOD
Reames Golf Pro

The second hole-in-one of our golf season was scored by Bill Halvestein last Wednesday on number 7, a par 3 hole. Bill, playing with Guy Barker, Gus Anderson and Martin Swanson, holed his ace on the 155-yard green with a three wood.

The Ladies have completed their play on the club championship with Donna Sprout winning top honors. Donna defeated Luster Nerseth in the 36-hole final.

In the first flight, Dorothy Swanson defeated May Good for the title.

The nine-hole championship was won by Margaret Larkin after she defeated Leona Robertson.

The first flight championship for nine-hole players was won by Ene Humble as she tipped Eva Ashley. The beginners flight was won by Agnes Bean in a match victory over Wilma Wiley.

The ladies hold their final play on the club trophy this Friday morning. Pairings will be posted in Wednesday's Herald and News.

The New York Giants (now operating in San Francisco) top National League teams in the number of pennants won since 1900. They took the flag 15 times. The Cubs and Dodgers each have won 10 times.

In Fine Whiskey FLEISCHMANN'S IS THE BUY

Only Fleischmann's has more Proof—90 Proof—as compared with all other leading blends. They are only 86 Proof. Fleischmann's 90 Proof means more flavor—more enjoyment—more satisfaction. And—Fleischmann's surprising mildness and exceptional smoothness tell you that you're getting the highest quality in every bottle. That's why Fleischmann's offers you so much more than any whiskey. $4.15 4/5 QT.

BLended Whiskey • 90 PROOF • 65% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS
THE FLEISCHMANN DISTILLING CORPORATION, NEW YORK CITY

CORRECTION FOOTBALL CONTEST OTI TIE BREAKER GAME SHOULD HAVE LISTED EASTERN OREGON Rather Than Southern Oregon