STOCKS

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices milled unevenly in active trading at the close today after a recovery movement canceled an early decline.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,700,000 shares compared with 3,570,000 Tuesday.

Leading issues declined fractions to a point or so. Scattered stocks resisted.

Aircrafts, rails, coppers and oils declined. Steels, rubbers, tobaccos and building materials were mixed.

Addressograph was ahead about four points. Vertentes-Camaguey Sugar dropped more than a point.

Gold mining stocks had a slight flurry. Homestake was up a point and Dome Mines a sizable fraction.

Du Pont picked up more than two points. U.S. Gypsum more than a point.

Studebaker-Packard erased a slight gain in late dealings. American Motors was fractionally higher. Raytheon was up a point.

Losses of around a point were taken by Kennecott, American Smelting, Phelps Dodge, Westinghouse Electric and Baltimore & Ohio.

U.S. government bonds extended their rally into the third straight session.

Tousey, Pasadena, divisional superintendent and president of the California Open Bible Institute; Rev. Herbert Bradshaw, Port Chicago, Northern California, district superintendent, and Rev. T. C. Johnson, Seattle, secretary-treasurer of the board. Back row, same order are Rev. Harry M. Strachan, pastor of the Klamath Temple, this city, Oregon district superintendent; and Rev. O. L. Welshons, Tujunga, Southern California district superintendent. Board members absent were Rev. Melvin Hanson, Stockton, youth director, a former resident of Klamath Falls; Rev. Harvey Klapstein, Eugene, president of the Bible Standard College, and Rev. E. J. Fulton, pastor of the Lighthouse Temple, Eugene.

Messages, Reports Keynote Open Bible Standard Meet

Messages and reports from Open Bible Standard Churches on the Pacific Coast are highlighting the fall conference in session at the Klamath Temple today and Thursday. Conference moderator is the Rev. Theron A. Tousey, Pasadena, division superintendent of OBS churches. The Rev. Harry M. Strachan is pastor of the host church.

Today's schedule, following registration of some 150 pastors and their wives Tuesday, was opened with a 7 a.m. meeting of the board of directors of the Bible Standard College, Eugene, who met to launch a promotion program for the college. Challenging and encouraging information was given to the board by the Rev. H. C. Klapstein, college president.

During the morning session, the Rev. Robert Haynes, Spokane, was appointed district superintendent to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. David S. Land who has resigned to devote more time to his local church and association responsibilities.

Following business sessions this afternoon, the evening meeting will include a missionary pageant presented by the Rev. Art Henderson, Jamaica, British West Indies missionary, speaker, assisted by the Rev. Klapstein, program director. The 40-voice, robed college choir, directed by Bernice Kovacs will sing. The choir and college faculty arrived by special bus from Eugene to take part in today's conference. Program chairman for today is the Rev. Klapstein.

Women's activities today include business meetings and a world fellowship luncheon at the Winema Hotel.

Thursday, concluding day of the conference, will open at 8:30 a.m. with a prayer meeting at the Klamath Temple followed by 9:30 a.m. Bible study and a 2 p.m. Sunday School meeting for church youth.

Evangelist Rev. O. I. Taylor, Vancouver, Washington, will bring the concluding conference message at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Co-program chairman for Thursday will be the Rev. David S. Land, retiring district superintendent, and the Rev. Herbert Bradshaw, superintendent of the Northern California District.

The public is invited to attend any or all of the services.

Accident Group Named In Suit

Herbert W. Waits Jr. has filed suit against the State Industrial Accident Commission claiming he lost total function of his right leg when injured in an uncompleted house where he was working as a plumber.

The commission previously ruled that Waits lost 20 per cent of the leg's normal function in the accident on January 12, 1956. At the time, Waits' circuit court suit stated he was employed by G. C. Motley Inc.

Waits seeks to rescind the 20 per cent ruling in favor of grant of 100 per cent loss of function. Also filed in the circuit clerk's office was a claim by S. Birkenwald Company of Portland against Edward D. Miller for $536, plus interest, said due on a cooler Miller bought in October 1956. Birkenwald claims Miller made only the $410 down payment. He seeks the remainder, or the cooler.

Wounded Hunter Termed Better

Some improvement in the condition of Leon James Richardson, 35, head of Ward's appliance department, was reported this morning by Providence Hospital at Portland where he is a patient.

His condition is still serious as a result of a gunshot wound in the chest last Sunday afternoon, inflicted by Burt Hamilton of Lakeview, while hunting in Lake County.

Mrs. Richardson, who is with her husband, informed her sister, Mrs. C. D. Thurber, last night that Richardson was conscious and could speak. He was in considerable pain, she said, because of having been moved from the Lakeview Hospital. She added that surgery is planned within a few days.

Vet Attorney

"If you would like to see the office of district attorney again operated on a competent, efficient and impartial basis, by an experienced attorney, I solicit your vote."

Humble is married, lives at 900 Eldorado, has two daughters and a son, and recently again became a grandfather.

One daughter lives in Felix, Oregon, another daughter is a teacher out of Seattle, and his son, Thomas, is currently serving in the Marine Corps.

Humble has been active in civic affairs. He has been president of the local Eagles Lodge as well as state president. He was one of the incorporators of the YMCA and the Teen-Age Club.

A member of the Masonic order, Humble is also a past president of the Klamath Falls Lions Club and a past international counselor of the Lions.

He was graduated from the University of Minnesota, and admitted to the Minnesota Bar in 1927.

When asked about reasons for filing for the office, Humble stated, "For too long the office has been a teething ring for young lawyers. Our legal problems are too complex now to be left to inexperienced personnel."

Humble's entry into the race will make it a three-way write-in contest for the office. Arthur Beddoe, incumbent, failed to file for reelection in the primary and has indicated he will be a write-in candidate as has another Klamath Falls attorney, Glenn Ramirez.

Hamilton pleaded guilty to a charge that he both kicked and punched State Police Officer Roland Clark after Clark had stopped him for drunk driving. Hamilton was sentenced to 60 days in jail on the assault and battery charge and was sentenced to six months and fined $500 on the drunk driving charge. The sentences were to be served consecutively.

Dewey Warren Thompson, 35, Denver, Colorado, was sentenced to 30 days in jail after admitting he stole two pairs of gloves from the Payless Drug Store last Saturday.

William R. Gildewell of Clinger's Lodge near Rocky Point, said the license plate was stolen from his car parked on Seventh Street between High and Washington, sometime Monday.

Andrew C. Villegas, 1317 Adams Street, said registration papers were stolen from his car, parked in front of his home, sometime Tuesday.

The missing car is a 1949 Dodge believed stolen September 24 from in front of the Drumstick Tavern, 1038 East Main Street. That theft was reported by state police.

Police also were informed of a missing 14-year-old girl, who was last seen Monday noon at Fremont Junior High School. The girl, Patricia Morris, 2401 Eberlein Avenue, was described as being five feet five inches tall and weighing 145 pounds.

An out of season theft was reported by Mrs. R. M. Wolf, who said someone stole a chaise longue from her back yard at 2434 Garden Street.

New High Court Justice To Be Watched By Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Judge Potter Stewart of Cincinnati, whose appointment to the U.S. Supreme Court was announced Tuesday, probably will undergo unusually close Senate scrutiny into his legal philosophy.

This is not because of the man, but because of the times. Stewart's selection by President Eisenhower to succeed retiring Justice Harold H. Burton, also from Ohio, comes at a time when the Supreme Court has become a major center of controversy. Its rulings on school segregation have been denounced in some quarters, while others have criticized its findings in Communist cases.

The appointment was announced less than 24 hours after the disclosure that Burton was retiring on the advice of his physician.

Stewart, a 43-year-old Republican, now is a judge of the 6th Circuit Court of Appeals. Eisenhower appointed him to that position in April, 1954.

Under a recess appointment, Stewart will be able to take his place on the nation's highest judicial tribunal immediately after Burton's retirement becomes effective next Monday.

When Congress reconvenes in January, his nomination to the $35,000-a-year lifetime post will be sent to the Senate for confirmation.

The new appointee told questioning newsmen Tuesday that as a circuit judge, he has had a part in deciding only one school segregation case — an Ohio dispute where the court ruled for prompt integration.

Stewart was recommended for the nomination by Sen. John W. Bricker (R-Ohio).

Stewart's views will get prime consideration before the Senate Judiciary Committee, which considers all federal judgeship appointments.

Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.), the committee chairman, was at the last session of Congress a leader in the unsuccessful fight to pass legislation to curb the court's powers and to undo the effects of some of its decisions.

Stewart said his selection took him by surprise. He came here Tuesday morning for a conference with Eisenhower after a rush call from Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers.

Five of the nine Supreme Court justices, including Chief Justice Earl Warren, now have been appointed by Eisenhower. The political division remains at five Democrats and four Republicans.

A native of Jackson, Mich., Stewart was a member of a Cincinnati law firm before going on the bench. He also served on the Cincinnati City Council and as vice mayor of the city in 1952-53.

Bernard G. Segal of Philadelphia, chairman of the American Bar Assn.'s standing committee on the federal judiciary, issued a statement calling Stewart's appointment an excellent one.

Grand Jury Plans Probe

EUGENE (AP)—A county grand jury Thursday will begin an investigation of violence in Oakridge, Dist. Atty. Eugene Venn says.

Venn said there have been "certain acts of lawlessness in the Oakridge area apparently associated with a pending labor dispute."

About 20 persons will testify in the investigation, said Venn.

The district attorney said inquiries will be made into a train derailment, a number of threats and damage suffered by logging vehicles and a state police car.

The current major labor dispute in the Oakridge area is a strike by the International Woodworkers of America against the Hines Lumber Co.

The strike began June 3 and has become about 200 men.
