

LOUISE NIEHAUS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Niehaus, was installed as worthy adviser of the Chiloquin chapter of Rainbow for Girls September 14. Louise's white dress trimmed with red was made by her mother to help carry out the theme of the installation, "Heart of Rainbow." Louise is a senior at Chiloquin High School where she is active in many activities.

New Officers Installed By Rainbow Girls

CHILOQUIN—A brilliant rainbow arched across the east ending in pots of gold to form a setting "The Heart of Rainbow" when Louise Niehaus was installed as worthy adviser of the Chiloquin Assembly of Rainbow for Girls Sunday afternoon, September 14, at the Masonic hall. Other decorations for the event were in white and red with the heart motif.

Crowning the worthy adviser was Gary Kranenburg, master counselor of Klamath Chapter of DeMolay, who was attended by six sword bearers.

Installing officers were Janet Clark, adviser; Mrs. Bill Wampler, marshal; Mrs. Dwight Kircher, chaplain; Mrs. Athel Rose, musician; and Mrs. Lawrence Myers, recorder.

Taking offices in addition to Louise Niehaus were Claudia Heglund, associate adviser; Sandra Haas, charity; Diane Kircher, hope; Janet Hall, faith; Cherry Wolff, chaplain; Sharon Wilder, drill leader; Barbara Davis, love; Jimmy Lynn Doak, religion; Diane Haas, nature; Linda Oates, immortality; Sharon Davis, fidelity; Barbara Nicholson, patriotism; Donna Kircher, service; Frances Testi, confidential observer; Karen Jenkins, outer observer; Donna Robinson, musician; Meta Collins, choir director; Helen Hescocock, historian.

Following the crowning ceremony Cherry Wolff played an accordion version of "Over the Rainbow," and a surprise addendum to the music of "Louise" was a tap dance by the twins, Sharon and Karen Chase.

Refreshments were served in the dining room at the close of the program with Mrs. Callie Clark and Mrs. Anton Zalina in charge. The table was centered with a large cake on which was a red heart.

Advisory board for the local Rainbow chapter consists of Mrs. Bob Mathis, mother adviser; Mrs. Lester Hoback, assistant mother adviser; Mrs. Lawrence Myers, Lawrence Myers, Layton Hoback, Mrs. Joseph Adamo, Mrs. Gail Ridenour, Gene Page, Mrs. John Manning, and Mrs. Dwight Kircher.

RAINBOW GIRLS

ALTURAS—Worthy Adviser Pat Weber of Alturas Assembly No. 53, Order of Rainbow for Girls, and her officers were accompanied by Mrs. Helen Morgan, mother adviser, to Fall River Mills September 25 to greet Hollis Kay Hammond of Marysville, grand worthy adviser of California. Mrs. Florence MacDonald, grand inspector of the state order for girls, was also present. Assemblies at Tulelake and Susanville were represented at the meeting.

SOCIETY

SISKIYOU DAR HOLDS MEET

YREKA—In observance of Constitution Week, the Siskiyou Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, presented a program at the recent meeting of the organization that included a history of the constitution.

The meeting, which was conducted by the regent, Mrs. Lawrence Lichens of Yreka, took place at the home of Mrs. Grover A. Roush in Mount Shasta. Mrs. Roush was assisted with hostess duties by her daughter, Mrs. Philip Mattos, and other Mount Shasta members.

As national and civil defense chairman, Atlanta Adams of Etna gave an account of the history of the constitution, and stated that it was partly through the efforts of William F. Knowland, senator from California, that the dates of September 17 to the 23 were set aside in 1956 as Constitution Week. Miss Adams also made a few brief remarks relative to the appropriate national theme, "Fruits of Freedom," for the coming year in the DAR.

The president general's message was presented by Mrs. Henry Terwilliger, of Little Shasta, who is the program chairman this year.

As an added attraction for the afternoon, members viewed the many antiques in Mrs. Roush's home, and her daughter, Mrs. Mattos, exhibited an early American sugar bowl and plate. Mrs. George Schrader, who has collected spoons of all types, showed spoons in chronological order which illustrated her article "A Spoon Collector Looks at American History." The Siskiyou Chapter of the DAR has a showcase in the county museum at Yreka, and it now has on display the Susan B. Anthony plaque for viewing, it was reported by the museum committee.

Other members present at the meeting in addition to previously mentioned, included Anna Grisez, Mrs. Edward Dreyer, Mrs. Walter Williams, all of Mount Shasta; Mrs. Conley Brown, Mrs. Alfred Crebbin, Mrs. Albert Parrott, Mrs. James M. Allen Sr., and Rosamond Westover, all of Yreka; Mrs. V. C. Derham and Mrs. Henry Ball of Etna; Mrs. Robert DeNure of Fort Jones and Mrs. Howard Simcox of Mount Shasta.

Grand Officers Pay Visit To Friendship Court

More than 100 members and visitors were present at the Scottish Rite Temple Saturday, September 20, when the grand officers of the Grand Court, Order of Amaranth, State of Oregon made their official visit to Friendship Court No. 11, Klamath Falls. Honored were Mrs. Gertrude Mack, grand royal matron and Hugh Templeton, grand royal patron. They were accompanied on their visit by Mrs. Margaret Dobson, grand associate matron; Ted Dahlgren, grand associate patron; Mrs. Ruby Alton, grand associate conductor; Jack Kennedy, deputy supreme royal patron; Mrs. Frances E. Ostrom, past supreme royal matron, present grand secretary and Jack Schulze, past grand officer and 14 other grand officers from throughout the state.

The officers of Friendship Court conferred the degree of the order on Edmund Chilcote, Mrs. Geneva Swift, Mrs. Howard Hanville, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Linville, Mr. and Mrs. James Weaver with Mrs. E. G. Gienger as courtesy candidate.

Gifts were presented to the grand royal matron and the grand royal patron from the court.

Also present for the evening were royal matrons, Mrs. Betty Day of Roxy Ann Court, Medford; Mrs. Rose Renno of Mirror Court, Bend and Mrs. Nance H. Finlayson of Emerald Court of Eugene, many of their officers and nine past royal matrons and past royal patrons from courts throughout Oregon and Washington.

Rebekah Lodge

DUNSMUIR—Plans to present a program for members of Shasta Lily Lodge No. 315, Order of Rebekahs, were made at the last meeting of Oriole Lodge No. 217, at their meeting in the Dunsmuir Masonic Temple.

Oriole members will take with them a traveling log cabin, symbolic of the state president's project of providing a camp for underprivileged and handicapped children. Contributions placed in the cabin will be used toward this goal.

Oriole Rebekahs received the cabin at the September meeting. Rebekah guests from Yreka presented it after giving a costumed skit.

Doris Phillipi was initiated into the order at this meeting with the ceremonies directed by Beulah White, noble grand. The log cabin theme was continued in the table decorations when refreshments were served later in the evening and pine tree favors were at each place setting.
