Mail-Carrying Stagecoach Arrives In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A stagecoach, carrying mail from the East, rattled into San Francisco today after a 23-day, 2800-mile journey from Tipton, Mo.

A short time earlier a Navy Skywarrior jet bomber took off with mail for St. Louis—a flight of about three hours.

The long haul and the short flight marked the 100th anniversary of the first successful establishment of transcontinental mail, which linked California with the rest of the country.

Prior to the arrival of the first Butterfield Overland mail coach on Oct. 10, 1858, the only regular mail service had been in ships around the horn or caravans across the Isthmus of Panama.

Today's arrival of the coach, along with an ox-drawn chuck wagon and other vehicles which accompanied it, highlighted the issuance of the overland mail centennial commemorative stamp by the Post Office Department.

The arrivals of 1858 and 1958 were a study in contrasts. When the first dusty stage pulled into town 100 years ago, there was nobody on hand to greet it. The proposed overland trip had been termed "impossible." Today's stage held the place of honor in a parade up Market Street to Civic Center for an official welcome at City Hall.

TWO OF THE TOP men of this year's 22nd annual Klamath Basin Potato Festival, slated for October 24-25 at Merrill are, left, William Falvey, president of the Merrill Lions Club and general chairman of the festival, and right, John Thompson, secretary. The festival plans include the annual banquet Friday, opening day, a Saturday parade, free beef barbecue at noon, two football games and the annual Harvest Ball concluding the two-day fete.

Queen Of Potato Festival To Be Named October 11

MERRILL — The Klamath Basin's 22nd annual Potato Festival will open Friday, October 24, and continue through Saturday, October 25.

This year's new ruler of the Potato Kingdom will be named during the Queen's Ball, to be held Saturday night, October 11, in the Merrill Recreation Hall. Voting on favorite candidates, Jean Pettigrew, Tulelake; Myrtle Barnes, Merrill; Becky Short, Henley; Sharon Jackson, Bonanza; and Helen Collins, Malin, will continue until near midnight.

Baldy's Band will play and the dance is open to the public.

The new ruler will be crowned during the annual banquet to be held in the grade school gymnasium on Friday evening, with entrance of the court including two junior princesses, Vicki Haskins and Janet Kech, scheduled for 6:30 sharp.

Winston Purvine, director of Oregon Technical Institute, will be guest speaker and will crown the queen. There will be other banquet entertainment. Dr. Frank E. Trotman will officiate as master of ceremonies.

Saturday, Lewis Kandra will lead the parade of floats, marching units, musical units, children's entries down Front Street. The parade will be followed by a free beef barbecue to be served on the grounds between the high school and the recreation building.

At 2:30 p.m. Jacksonville and Merrill High School football squads go into action on the high school field. A game will be played in the evening between the Malin Mustangs and the Chiloquin Panthers, starting at 8 o'clock. The Harvest Ball will climax the two-day fete. No game is scheduled for Friday afternoon.

Potato exhibits, other agricultural entries, home-making exhibits, community booths will be in the high school gymnasium. Dances are to be held in the community hall.

The Lost River Garden Club with Mrs. Hugh O'Connor as chairman will sponsor a harvest flower show and a potato foods contest to be conducted.

Court Ends Treason Trial

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Iraq's special military court has completed the trial of Fadhil Jamali on charges of crimes against the state and people during the monarchy. He is in prison awaiting the verdict.

Advices from Baghdad today are that the ex-premier, recent foreign minister and former chief of the Iraqi delegation to the U. N., may not learn his fate for weeks.

The five-man court set up by the revolutionary government after the overthrow and killing of King Faisal in July, reportedly intends to complete the trials of all accused leaders of the king's regime before announcing the verdicts.
