He drew attention to the need, also, of picking up debris this fall.

Richards hopes for 100 per cent cooperation of individuals, adult and youth groups, schools, churches, and business people in the effort to beautify this part of Oregon as a salute to 100 years of statehood.

Last spring, students of the Pelican School won the competition among city schools and those immediately adjacent to Klamath Falls, for making the best showing in cleaning up the area about the school and other places in Pelican City.

The awards for work well done included an ice cream party, through the courtesy of Crater Lake Creamery and Medo-Land Creamery, a theater party given by the management of the Klamath Theaters, and an engraved bronze plaque from the chamber of commerce.

"While there were rough spots in this initial attempt," Richards states, "and some persons were disappointed in pickup of debris," those who headed the working
