

THERE WERE 80 CANDLES on this birthday cake when members of her family gathered October 4 to help Mrs. Minnie Dillard Davis, Klamath Falls, celebrate. Mrs. Davis, who comes from a family of teachers, is believed to hold a record in Oregon for teaching in this state. She has lived in Klamath County 76 years and devoted most of her lifetime to her profession, retiring at 75. Her last school was at Arook, near the Malheur County line in Eastern Oregon, and she recalls that she taught on a year to year basis after retirement age in remote spots where younger teachers found no interests.

She came to Langell Valley when this country was very young, settling with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bussey at Lorella, and at 16 taught her first school. Left to right, standing, are her four children, Mrs. Melvin (Eva) Bowman, Merrill; Mrs. Clyde (Zenita) Barks, Tulalake; Uel Dillard, Reno, and John Dillard, Monroe, Oregon. Other family members present for the dinner, served at the guest of honor's home, 2230 Darrow Avenue, were Mr. and Mrs. Hal Ogle, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Evert Griffith, Springfield, Mrs. Davis' sister; a grandson, Donald Bowman and Mrs. Bowman, Susanville; granddaughter, Mrs. Stewart Hensel, her husband and young son, Jimmy, Klamath Falls, and a great granddaughter, Charlotte Barks, Tulalake.

McCloud Iola Council 167

McCLOUD — Mickey Artz, of Bellflower, great Pocahontas, made her official visit to the McCloud lodge's 39 year anniversary meeting. Twenty members attended the Italian style dinner at the lodge hall banquet room.

Thirty-three members and guests attended the anniversary meeting of the lodge, including Mrs. Minnie Young of Yreka, one of the two living charter members. Mrs. Atlanta Adams of Etna is the other charter member.

An Indian summer theme was carried out for the table and room decorations. Barbara Caswell and Lorraine Correa served on the committee.

Lloydne Zolunardo, Alberta Nash, Lorraine Correa, Dorothy Clingsmith, Leatrice Bambino and Glenna Welch were on the refreshment committee.

Thelma Welch, Leona Flores and Alberta Nash were on the dinner committee. Mrs. Rachael Artz, mother of the great Pocahontas, accompanied her daughter on the visitation.

SURPRISE PARTY

BONANZA — Mrs. Howard Schmidt gave a surprise birthday party for her husband the evening of September 27. Pinocchio was played during the evening followed by party refreshments. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nork, Jack DeVaul, Bill Butts and Ralph Dixon.

STREET MIXUP

HOBBS, N.M. — Local postmen have notified a new street-naming setup. Postmaster L. L. Ghoslon complained: "Now we have an East Green Acres, a West Green Acres and a North Green Acres. And we have a North Llane Drive which is south of East Llane Drive."

Round About

By HELEN BECHEN

Word from Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Carothers, 2150 Shasta Way, tells of the birth of a grandson, David Lee, who tipped the scales at 7 lbs., 7 ozs., when he arrived September 24 at Springfield. His mother is the former Merla Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Price, Springfield. He and his brother, 4-year-old Kenny, will live in Sacramento where their father, Wayne, is teaching. Aunt Alene Carothers sent greetings from Greenville, South Carolina, where she is a freshman at Bob Jones University.

Over from Roseburg are former residents, the Byron Hardenbrooks. Hardy is spending his time hunting while Neil is getting in some good visiting and bridge games with friends.

Mary Juckeland and Ellen Clark are taking over the Red Cross Canteen from Edna Dakin who has done a magnificent job for seven years.

From Willamette University comes word of the pledging of Christine Rye of Dorris to Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Exciting news these days from the Clarence Humble home. Son Tom, who enlisted in the Marines in January, graduated sixth in a class of 58, then was given a citation for military bearing and scholarship, the only double one given. Recently he has been assigned as an aide to a naval commander, been in Japan one month, and now is on his way to Europe. Not to be outdone by brother Tom, the Robert Harper's of Pendleton are the parents of a son born October 8 in St. Anthony's Hospital. He joins two sisters, Robin and Linda. Mrs. Harper is former Nancy Jane Humble. Paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper, live in Gervais.

Rainbow Girls Of Dunsuir Elect Officers

DUNSMUIR—The visible and colorful beauty of Hawaii was compared with the possible development of inner beauty in consciousness of the symbols of Rainbow for Girls in the installation of Rayola Hanlen as worthy adviser of the Dunsuir Assembly at recent ceremonies at the Dunsuir Masonic Temple.

Hawaiian Rainbow Paradise was the theme of the evening and Rayola, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Q. Hanlen, was gowned in lavender chiffon for the occasion.

Little Karen Kleaver presented her with flowers as she approached the altar.

Supporting officers are JoAnne Kelby, worthy associated adviser; Margie Green, charity; Margie Grenvick, hope; Donna Parsons, faith; Patsy Herrin, recorder; Marcia Gordon, treasurer; Linda Lockart, chaplain; Carolyn Clark, drill leader; Terri Fawcett, love; Carol Wagner, religion; JoAnn Hanlen, nature; Mickey Ake, immortality; Susan McClure, fidelity; Darlene Wylie, patriotism; Dianne LaBarre, service; Peggy Johnson, confidential observer; Sandy Edwards, outer observer; Sue Samuelson, musician; Norleen Caswell, chair director.

Katherine Nelson was retiring worthy adviser and served as installing officer. She was assisted by Beverly Crowe and Linda Coppi, installing marshals, and Judy Crowe, installing chaplain.

Harry Bender was host for the evening. Mrs. Doris Morgan is mother adviser.

Gerald Gass bore the Bible. Richard Kelby presented the American flag and other special assistants were Richard Ridgeway and Jim Conwill.

Entertainment was provided by Niki Edson who danced the hula and Mrs. Roscoe Kimble who played Hawaiian music. The Hawaiian motif was used in decorating.

Among the honored guests were

Eugenia Kennedy, mother adviser of the Redding Assembly, and Doris Alberts, past worthy adviser of Grants Pass.

In accepting office, Rayola spoke of the colors of Rainbow and their use in building an ideal life. She is a freshman at Shasta College this year.

Katherine Nelson was presented with a Rainbow emblem in appreciation of her term of office.
