

HANK SNOW, the Singing Ranger, who with his Rainbow Ranch Boys, is headlining the Grand Ole Opry show and dance which will be presented at the Klamath Auditorium, formerly the old armory, Wednesday night. The well-known RCA-Victor recording artist will appear with Judy Lynn, girl yodeler, and Pat Kelly, the rock 'n' roll artist, on the program that will also feature Cousin Horsefly, the funny man, and The Shamrocks band. The two-hour show will be followed at 10 p.m. by a dance. Tickets are now on sale at Derby's Music Company.

Bankers Group Schedules Meet

LAKEVIEW—For the first time in 25 years the annual meeting of the Klamath-Lake County Bankers Association will be held at Lakeview on Tuesday, October 14, with a 6:30 p.m. dinner. President is Richard Probstel, manager of the Lakeview Branch of the First National Bank of Oregon. Stewart Patty, assistant manager, is secretary.

Speakers will be Ervie Williams, president of Portland Union Stockyards Company, and John A. Sell, vice president of the First National Bank of Oregon and chairman of the Oregon Bankers Association's Legislative Committee.

About 40 persons are expected to attend. Special guests will be H. B. Hager, president of the Oregon Bankers Association and executive vice president of the Clatskanie branch of the FNB; Scott E. MacEcheron, executive secretary of the state bankers' association and two retired Lake County bankers, C. F. Snider and W. H. Buell.

SMORGASBORD DINNER
LAKEVIEW—Tickets are now available for the annual smorgasbord sponsored by the social club of the Oriental Chapter No. 5, Order of Eastern Star. The date is October 18, beginning at 6 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. The tickets may be secured from Eastern Star members or purchased at the door that evening.

Cuba has a law requiring that all cigars be made by hand. The law keeps some 35,000 cigar-makers busy.
