Coast Gridiron Slate Set

Peacetime Grid Title Sought By Army Club

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS A full slate of Pacific Coast Conference games comes up this week with the University of California testing its newfound power against the Trojans of Southern California at Los Angeles in a headliner. After losing their opening battles to College of the Pacific and Michigan State, the Bears of Coach Pete Elliott have surged back for victories over Washington State and Utah by impressive margins. Going against the Trojans Saturday, they'll meet the only club they could beat last season, but one showing strong improvement over its 1957 efforts. The University of Oregon, currently leading the PCC with a 2-0 record, takes on Washington State at Eugene. UCLA plays at Washington and Oregon State at Idaho in the other conference encounters. Stanford, a surprise 22-12 winner over Washington, plays host to the undefeated Air Force Academy that showed power in fighting Iowa to a tie two weeks ago and humbling Colorado State 36-8 last Saturday. Oregon, after losing 6-0 to Oklahoma, surged back for a 25-0 triumph over Southern California while Washington State scored in the final period to beat Idaho 8-0 in the conference. In interconferences, Wyoming whacked Oregon State 28-0 and Florida downed UCLA 21-14 on Friday night. Oregon's victory over USC was its biggest margin against the Trojans since 1950. The Ducks scored the first time they controlled the ball as Willie West went 66 yards for a touchdown. USC penetrated no deeper than the Oregon 24. California quarterback Joe Kapp engineered the assault against Utah, netting 371 yards for the afternoon and 36 points before the visitors could tally. The score was highest for California since 1954 when the Bears had 46 against Oregon State. Wyoming sprang a big surprise on favored Oregon State as Gary Iovsick scampered 15 yards for the opening touchdown in the second period and a 40-yard pass from Jim Walden to Neil Curtis netted another before the intermission. Washington State's star quarterback, Bobby Newman, went out with a knee injury after four minutes against Idaho and it took the Cougars until the first play of the final period to score. Larry Rath intercepted a pass from Idaho's Gary Farnsworth and returned it 43 yards to the Vandal 6. Abe Wilson passed to Don Ellingsen for the touchdown. Stanford, after losing three straight, up-ended Washington on the running of Rick McMillen and the passing of Bob Nicolet, plus some strong defensive play. McMillen scored on runs of five and 20 yards, while Nicolet threw a one-yard touchdown pass to John Bond. McMillen gained 185 yards in 26 carries, caught a pass that set up the third touchdown, handled the punting, and intercepted a pass to shut off Washington's final scoring threat.

Casey Stengel Pick For Manager Honors

By FRED DOWN United Press International NEW YORK (UPI) — Casey Stengel, who made 1958 a year of vindication for his New York Yankees, the American League and himself, was picked today as the United Press International's American League Manager of the Year. The 68-year-old juggler of players and of words was chosen by a board of 24 baseball writers, three from each American League city. The vote was taken even before Stengel achieved his greatest 1958 accomplishment — bringing the Yankees from a 1-3 deficit in the World Series to a world championship. Stengel has accomplished great things previously in his long career but the 1958 season was one of the most satisfying of his life. It was a season that started with Stengel expected to win the American League pennant. For a while it appeared that it would be one of the easiest romps in history. But the team sagged badly in August and September and lost three of the first four games to the Braves in the World Series. The whole baseball world said it couldn't be done but Stengel rallied his forces and pulled them through to give the Yankees their 18th world championship in 24 tries. The board of 24 experts gave Stengel 15 votes with Manager Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox drawing four and Harry Craft of the Kansas City Athletics getting two. Harry Lavagetto of the Washington Senators, Joe Gordon of the Cleveland Indians and Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles got one each.

Texas Wins Aerial Game From Sooners

DALLAS (AP) — Is the glamorous winning era of Bud Wilkinson at an end? Was Texas' 15-14 upset of Oklahoma Saturday the downward start to an average place in college football for the erstwhile tribute Big Red? No one will say but there are plenty who conclude this wasn't the great Oklahoma that won 50 games out of 51, had the all-time record streak of 47 straight, been No. 1 in the nation twice. This Oklahoma team had a weakness against passes, something no one could remember before. It remained for a man who once played quarterback at Oklahoma under Wilkinson to exploit this weakness for his greatest victory. He was Darrell Royal, who came to Texas last year charged with the task of picking up Longhorn fortunes and specifically with beating Oklahoma, one of the things that cost Coach Ed Price his job when he failed to do it in six years. Royal brought to Dallas Saturday a team lacking experience, one that wasn't supposed to be nearly so good as the Longhorns of 1957, who lost to Oklahoma 21-7. The Sooners were given a 13-point bulge and that was considered conservative, although Oklahoma had shown a semblance of weakness the week before in a 6-0 victory over Sooner. But Texas scored first, led for more than three quarters, was overtaken early in the fourth period, then stormed back to score with just three minutes left and win its first game over Oklahoma since 1951. In three previous contests this season Texas had tried only 25 passes, completed 8 and gained just 93 yards. But Saturday the Longhorns attempted 17, completed 12 for 153 yards — scored both touchdowns on passes. Royal revealed that Texas took advantage of the Oklahoma eight-man line and got end Bob Bryant in the pocket for the scoring pass that won the game. The Texas coach also said he employed the two-point scoring rule, although he still opposes it. "It's unfair to the coach," he said. "But I decided last week we would go for two if we scored first against Oklahoma, believing it would be a great psychological factor," Royal added. Texas worked hard on the two-point play all week and guard H. G. Anderson who opened the hole for fullback Don Allen to crash through. There was so much excitement on the Texas bench after quarterback Bobby Lackey intercepted a pass to stop Oklahoma's last threat that Royal never knew the last play — an end try by Lackey — was run until he saw the films yesterday. "I thought the game was over on the play before," Royal said.

Aussies Win Golf Trophy From Yanks

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) — Australia won the World Amateur team championship of golf and the golf Eisenhower Trophy today by defeating the United States by two strokes in an 18-hole playoff. The three low scorers of the four-man Australian team compiled an aggregate score of 222 to 224 for the three low U.S. players. The playoff, like the main part of the 29-nation competition, was decided on aggregate scores for the three low men on each team. Australia and the U.S. tied in the 72-hole competition Saturday with 938 total. Today Bruce Devlin shot a par 72 over the testing 6,936-yard Old Course of St. Andrews and Peter Toogood and Bob Stevens had 75. For the United States, Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City, the U.S. amateur champion, had a 73, Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C., a 75 and Dr. Frank (Bud) Taylor of Pomona, Calif., a 76 for the 224 aggregate.

Mays' Stars Beat Mantle's

NEW YORK (AP) — The Big Town got its first look at long-time favorite Willie Mays in more than a year Sunday and found Say-Her little changed from a season in San Francisco. The occasion was an exhibition game at Yankee Stadium matching Mays' National League All-Stars with an American League team managed by the Yankees' Mickey Mantle. It was no contest, with Mays and Richie Ashburn of the Phillies combining for seven hits in a 6-2 romp. The crowd was announced as 21,129. Mays, runnerup to Ashburn in the NL batting race this season, had a triple and three singles in five at-bats while Ashburn went 3-for-4 and scored four runs. Each stole a base while the National League lead their fun behind the combined four-hit pitching of Pittsburgh's Bob Friend, Los Angeles' Johnny Podres and Philadelphia's Dick Farrell.

Bob Scanlon, Rosi To Meet

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Another test between the cautious boxer and the hammer — punch throwing windmill takes place tonight when lightweight Bobby Scanlon meets Paolo Rosi, Italy, the brawling brawler from Rieti, Italy. Scanlon at the moment is San Francisco's best product. He is unbeaten in 32 bouts, one of which ended in a draw. But the baby faced Irishman, who likes to tie up his opponent, is meeting in Rosi the hardest puncher he ever faced. On the other hand, the sixth ranked Rosi, an easy bleeder, recently had an operation removing scar tissue from his chopped up eyes. He had not had a bout since he outpointed Johnny Busso in New York, Jan. 3. NEW TANK COACH SEWANEE, Tenn. (AP) — Ted Bitondo, former Florida State University swimming coach, is the new coach of Sewanee's swimmers. Bitondo also coached the University of Florida team. He's a former Ohio State swimmer.
