

Army Takes Over Top Spot In Poll

NEW YORK (AP) — About the surest way to move to the top of the weekly Associated Press national football ranking is for an unbeaten team to knock off a hitherto unbeaten Notre Dame team, and that's just what Army did.

Preppers Headed By Demos

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Jefferson of Portland, which has averaged more than a point a minute in piling up five one-sided victories, remains the No. 1 team in the Associated Press' Oregon high school football poll this week.

Jefferson, defending city league and state champion, humiliated arch rival Grant, 69-0, last weekend as backs Raye and Mel Renfro and quarterback Terry Baker enjoyed a scoring binge.

The Democrats have tallied 243 points in 240 minutes. Many have come with second and third stringers playing.

Jefferson was the unanimous choice of the 18 sportswriters and sportscasters who voted in the poll.

Medford, a 26-0 victor over Crater of Central Point, was a strong second, as it was last week. It has a perfect four-game record.

North Bend moved up from fifth to No. 3 after a 27-0 victory over Cottage Grove, its fourth triumph in as many games.

Astoria advanced from a sixth place tie with North Salem last week to No. 4 after a 27-7 trouncing of Milwaukie. Astoria has won four of five games.

Grants Pass tied Marshfield, 6-6, and moved from tenth to a tie for No. 5 spot with North Salem despite the fact that it has won only twice and lost once.

North Salem won its fourth victory against one defeat, downing Corvallis, 20-7.

Marshfield fell from a tie for No. 3 with Madison last week to seventh place after the Grants Pass game in which it had an edge in yardage and in first downs, 19 to 9.

Roseburg jumped from ninth to No. 8 with a 20-13 win over Springfield. Roseburg has four victories and one tie.

West Linn, the Tualatin-Yamhill Valley League leader, dropped from No. 2 to ninth despite a 40-19 rout of St. Helens for its fifth triumph in as many games. Teen French scored three touchdowns and Terry Keller two for West Linn.

Madison tied for third last week —slipped to No. 10 after absorbing its first defeat in five games from Cleveland, 19-13.

The poll, with season records for each team:

Team	Points
1. Jefferson, 5-0	180
2. Medford, 4-0	160
3. North Bend, 5-0	112
4. Astoria, 4-1	85
5. Grants Pass, 2-1-2, tie	78
5. North Salem, 4-1, tie	78
7. Marshfield, 3-1-1	76
8. Roseburg, 4-0-1	67
9. West Linn, 5-0	43
10. Madison, 4-1	34

Others: Baker 19, Vale 13, South Salem 12, Willamina 5, McMinnville 4, Gresham 3, Roosevelt of Portland and Serra of Salem 1 each.

Cardinals Win Exhibition Play

HONOLULU (AP) — An unearned run in the fifth inning gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 5-4 victory over the Hawaii All Stars Monday night.

"Poor Ed. Practices all year around on his living room rug, but he just can't master putting!"

Owl Hooters Hear Report On Tech Foes

Spirit, desire and effort were the main points of discussion at Monday night's Owl Hoot meeting at the Chuck Wagon.

Another large turnout of Oregon Tech boosters heard head football coach Rex Hunsaker review his team's 27-6 win over Eastern Oregon and Jack Brooks give a short scouting report on Southern Oregon College, the Owls' foe this Saturday afternoon at Modoc Field. This is the Owls' Homecoming game this year.

Hunsaker told the booster members he hoped his club had its scare, and was ready to go to work and play the brand of football they are capable of playing.

Pass receiving — Ray Berry, 19 caught for 266 yards and 3 TDs. R. C. Owens is second with 16 for 187.

Scoring — Brown of the Browns 48 points on — TDs, John Crow of the Cards is second, 5 TDs, 30 points.

Punting — Don Chandler, New York Giants, averaging 46.2 yards to 45.7 for Sam Baker of Washington.

Punt returns — Billy Wells, Philadelphia, 5 for 91 yards, averaging 18.2. John Morris of the Chicago Bears is second, 4 for 48 yards and a 12 yard average.

Kickoff returns — Len Lyles of Baltimore, 3 for 147 yards and a 49 yard average. Green Bay's Al Carmichael is second, 3 for 115, a 38.3 average.

Pass interceptions — Andy Nelson of Baltimore and Pittsburgh's John Butler, tied with 4 each.

Torres Flattens Frankie Anselm

NEW YORK (AP) — Undefeated Jose Torres stepped up schedule will send the flashy, young middleweight prospect against seasoned Burke Emery of Canada in three weeks.

Shortly after Torres knocked out Frankie Anselm in 2:12 of the ninth round Monday night, Manager Gus D'Amato agreed to match his 22-year-old protégé with the Canadian here Nov. 1.

Emery, of Sherbrooke, Quebec, has a 25-6-2 record. Torres scored his seventh pro victory and his fifth kayo in disposing of the 26-year-old Anselm.

Brown Pointing For Mark

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Husky Jimmy Brown of Paul Brown's Cleveland Browns is leading the National Football League in ground gaining with more than half as much yardage in three games than he pounded out in last year's entire 12 games schedule.

Now in his second year of pro football, Brown gained 942 yards in 1957. In the first three games of 1958, he has accounted for 482 yards for the unbeaten Browns.

Cleveland's "bread and butter" guy has carried the ball 75 times, averaging 6.4 yards per effort and 160 yards a game. He's taken dead aim on Steven Van Buren's seasonal yards gained rushing title of 1,146, set by the former Philadelphia Eagles' star in 1949.

Tom Wilson of Los Angeles ranks second in the art of carrying the ball with 280 yards, followed by newcomer Bobby Mitchell, also of Cleveland, with 262, and Jon Arnett, Los Angeles, 253.

Little Eddie Lebaron, the lightest man in the league, has the heaviest passing average. The mighty mite, as he is known in the pro football world, sports a per pass average of 9.6 a throw. In all, Lebaron has tossed 44, completed 25 for 426 yards and two touchdowns. His percentage of completion is 56.8.

Mack Reynolds, the Chicago Cardinals' rookie quarterback, is second with a 9.5 average, 37 for 63, 601 yards gained, 5 TDs and a 58.7 completion percentage. Third is Billy Wade of Los Angeles with these figures: average 8.35, 42 for 74, 633 yards, 4 TDs, 56.8 completion percentage.

In other departments these are the early season leaders: Pass receiving — Ray Berry, Baltimore, 19 caught for 266 yards and 3 TDs. R. C. Owens is second with 16 for 187.

Scoring — Brown of the Browns 48 points on — TDs, John Crow of the Cards is second, 5 TDs, 30 points.

Punting — Don Chandler, New York Giants, averaging 46.2 yards to 45.7 for Sam Baker of Washington.

Punt returns — Billy Wells, Philadelphia, 5 for 91 yards, averaging 18.2. John Morris of the Chicago Bears is second, 4 for 48 yards and a 12 yard average.

Kickoff returns — Len Lyles of Baltimore, 3 for 147 yards and a 49 yard average. Green Bay's Al Carmichael is second, 3 for 115, a 38.3 average.

Pass interceptions — Andy Nelson of Baltimore and Pittsburgh's John Butler, tied with 4 each.

Ryne Duren, Braves Pay For Series Miffs

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ryne Duren apologized to umpire Charley Berry today and said he'll "gladly" pay a $250 fine but Del Crandall angrily insisted it was "unfair" to fine 22 Braves players $50 apiece because of a World Series leak.

The fines were imposed by Commissioner Ford Frick. Duren drew his for a "choke-up" gesture directed by Berry during the sixth game of the series while the 22 Milwaukee players were hit for disclosing how they had voted to divide their series money.

Duren had said after the sixth game he didn't remember making the derisive choke-up sign at Berry and he repeated that assertion at his San Antonio, Tex., home Monday night.

"They told me I put my hand to my throat when I was arguing with Berry but I honestly don't remember doing it," said the bespectacled Yankee relief ace.

"If I did do it, then I certainly am sorry it happened and I want to apologize sincerely to Charley Berry. I'm not angry about the fine. I'll pay it gladly with the biggest smile you ever saw. This has been my happiest season in baseball. Nothing can mar it."

"Nobody likes to lose $250, but I did something wrong then I guess I deserve to pay it. I have no hard feelings against anyone."

"We're being made the goats," said the Milwaukee team captain when informed that he along with 21 other Braves' players were being assessed $50 each.

"It's not quite fair," Crandall added. "That information could have come from other sources. Lots of people knew about the split. Other members of the organization could have been sulky."

Charles Segar, secretary-treasurer of baseball, announced the fines for Frick. He said Milwaukee players did the same thing last year and had been reprimanded.

The players fined were Hank Aaron, Joe Adcock, Bill Bruton, Bob Buhl, Lew Burdette, Gene Conley, Wes Covington, Crandall, Harry Hanebrink, Joey Jay, John Logan, Felix Mantilla, Ed Matthews, Don McMahon, Andy Pafko, Del Rice, Humberto Robinson, Bob Rush, Red Schoendienst, Warren Spahn, Frank Torre and Bob Trowbridge.

Torres Flattens Frankie Anselm

NEW YORK (AP) — Undefeated Jose Torres stepped up schedule will send the flashy, young middleweight prospect against seasoned Burke Emery of Canada in three weeks.

Shortly after Torres knocked out Frankie Anselm in 2:12 of the ninth round Monday night, Manager Gus D'Amato agreed to match his 22-year-old protégé with the Canadian here Nov. 1.

Emery, of Sherbrooke, Quebec, has a 25-6-2 record. Torres scored his seventh pro victory and his fifth kayo in disposing of the 26-year-old Anselm.

OTI Owls, KU Pels Face Tough Counters

A big "counting" weekend faces the Oregon Tech Owls and Klamath Union High School Pelicans as they face the defending conference champions in their respective Friday and Saturday gridiron meetings.

Coach Rex Hunsaker's Mile High Campus Techners are at home Saturday afternoon to Southern Oregon College's touted Red Raiders. It will be Homecoming Weekend for the Owls as they meet their arch rivals from Ashland in an Oregon Collegiate Conference showdown battle.

Andy Knudsen's Pelicans travel Friday for the third straight weekend as they go to Medford Friday night. The KUHS-Medford game is the big night of the season for the Black Tornado as they play their annual United Fund football game of the year.

Here Saturday afternoon, Hunsaker's Owls will have their hands full. Southern Oregon, though plattered by Lewis and Clark week before last, came back strong to whip Portland State College, 21-14 last Saturday at Ashland. OTI also owns a win over the Portlanders, 91-21, giving the Owls a slight advantage by comparative scores. But in this SOC-OTI rivalry, comparative scores mean nothing.

Coach Al Atkins' Red Raiders boast a wide open attack that is led by a former Oregon Tech football standout. Quarterback Jack Brown, who played two years of football for Hunsaker at OTI before entering the service, is expected to lead the Ashland collegians against Tech at Modoc Field Saturday. Brown is a very capable passer and could make trouble for the Owl pass defenders all afternoon.

Hunsaker said a heavy practice schedule is in store for his boys this week. "We are planning to scrimmage hard every day and play with what's left," Hunsaker remarked Monday. "We have to get ready for Southern Oregon. They're going to be real tough and our boys know it," the Tech mentor added.

The Owls are 2-0 in OCC standings. SOC stands 1-0. The other conference game pits Oregon College of Education against Portland State in the Vikings Homecoming game.

The Klamath Pelicans, still searching for win No. 2 of the '58 season holding a 1-4 record, face what may be the toughest test of the year in the mighty Medford Black Tornado. The game, the Pels' first Southern Oregon Conference tilt, will be played in Medford. Medford, ranked No. 2 on the AP state prep school ratings, has an unbeaten record to date, numbering among their conquests the Marshfield Pirates. The Pirates, who blasted the Pelicans 47-0 in the season opener, were defeated 3-0 by the Tornado in a thunderous clash played in Medford.

Other victims of coach Fred Spiegler's Medford squad include North Salem, David Douglas of Portland and the Crater Comets, the only SOC foe they have met thus far.
