Legion Shows Yule Gifts

DUNSMUIR—Christmas gifts for families of hospitalized veterans will be on display at the American Legion Clubroom Thursday night for the meeting of Epps Unit of the auxiliary.

Each year the unit participates in a nationwide auxiliary program to provide the veterans hospitals with gift selections. Each veteran selects gifts valued at $3 each for each member of his family and these gifts are wrapped and mailed. There is no cost to the veteran.

Epps Unit has been working on this project this month with each member asked to make a gift or contribute merchandise. Donations valued at less than $3 are grouped with others for uniform value of each gift.

Following Thursday's meeting, the gifts will be shipped to a Bay Area veterans hospital. A potluck dinner for auxiliary and post members and their families will precede the meeting. Myrtle French, unit president, has announced activities in the legion clubroom. It has been out of use for about three months due to remodeling of the building.
