

ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

NUCLEAR FLEET ADDITION — Crewmen stand at attention aboard the nuclear-powered submarine Nautilus during commissioning ceremony at Portsmouth, N. H. The 2,400-ton vessel, U. S. Navy's fourth such craft, will be assigned to the Pacific.

SUMMER HOME — Bruce Barnett and sister, Barbara, peer from firewood castle they built at Medford, Ore. Castle will dwindle when parents "fire up" for winter.

ON A LIQUID DIET — These baby squirrels take kindly to indoor life, at least when meal time is involved, as they are fed by Carl Walker in Miami, Fla. The pair was rescued from a tree when workmen were cutting timber on Walker's farm in Georgia.

CHANGE OF PACE — Charlton Heston and Stephen Boyd enjoy scooter ride as contrast to the chariot racing they've been doing in filming of "Ben Hur" in Rome.

SHAPING UP — Since movie making and personal appearances are exacting work, Olivia de Havilland believes in keeping in trim. Here, she exercises in London while waiting for premiere of latest film, "The Proud Rebel."

THINGS TO COME? — Herman F. Anderson demonstrates experimental model of his "car of the space age" in Nashville, Tenn. He says static tests show such a machine is capable of 200 miles an hour. Model is powered by a three horsepower lawnmower motor.

CALLIGRAPHY — Marshal Alphonse Juin bestows the traditional buss on Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery in Paris ceremony honoring Britain's war services.

EAGER DUO — Both Dick Savitt, left, and his partner, Mal Anderson, get set to return same ball during doubles play in Toronto, Ont., tourney, P.S. They lost match.

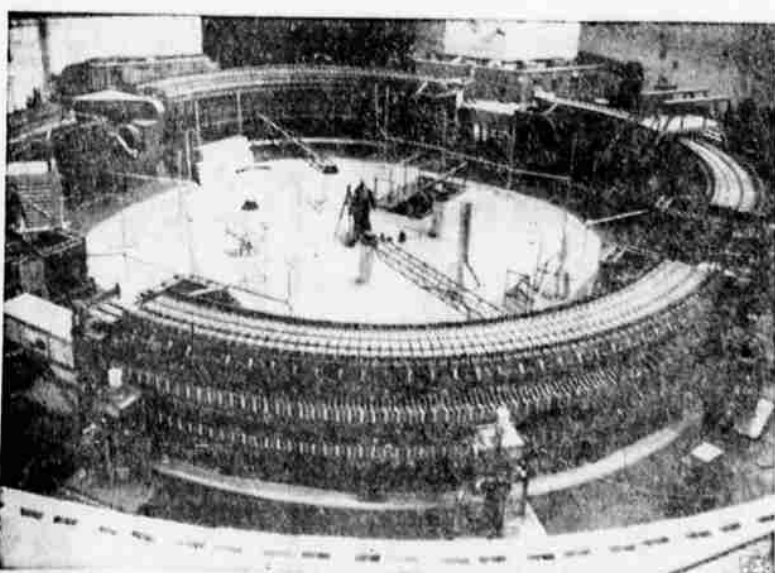

SHAPED FOR SPEED — Marcy Nelson is intrigued by dummy bearing U. S. Navy's new flight deck communications helmet at Philadelphia show. Helmet is designed for carrier personnel handling jets and contains a transistor radio transmitter and receiver.

RED N' BLACK — This lipstick red Empire coat with a detachable cape that ties on with a black satin bow is from fall collection of Balenciaga in Paris. A diamond brooch and black saucy hat complete the ensemble.

RIVALS AGAIN — Milwaukee's Fred Haney and Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees will be opposing managers in the World Series. Last year the Braves won.

FRENCH ATOM SMASHER — This is a general view of the "Soleil" France's new synchro-cyclotron which has gone into operation in Saclay near Paris. A heavy protective concrete wall surrounds machine, believed largest of its type in world.

NO EARTHLY HELP — This highway directional marker appears to be pointing more to space regions than to earth. It is a sign for the new highway to the moon.

OLD STORY FOR HARTACK — Bill Hartack, three-time national riding champion, is astride Herald Wind as winner's circle at Atlantic City as he marks the 2,000th victory of his career. His only rival company of jockeys who he has topped last year.