Reds Show Moderation Toward Yugoslavia Rebs

LONDON (UPI)—Soviet Russia has lately been displaying signs of moderation toward "heretic" Yugoslavia, diplomatic sources reported Sunday.

The Kremlin, which only a few weeks ago steered an aggressively hostile course against Marshal Tito's revisionism, has toned down its campaign against the Belgrade regime.

The new development prompted diplomatic speculation Premier Nikita Khrushchev was preparing another "conciliatory" approach to the revisionist marshal who has been causing him much headache.

But Soviet Affairs experts doubted Russia's stick-and-carrot tactics would resolve the explosive conflict, short of surrender by Moscow or Belgrade.

Neither was held prepared, or in a position, to do so.

The Communist camp's conflict with Yugoslavia lately has been ostensibly spearheaded by Red China which has continued mercilessly to attack Tito revisionism, calling for its uncompromising destruction.

Moscow has given every indication of following the Peiping lead, however reluctantly. In doing so Khrushchev brutally struck against Belgrade, hitting it hard where it hurts most — in the economic field.

The most serious measure was Russia's decision to freeze a multi-million-dollar credit to Yugoslavia on which the capital-starved country had been counting for the development of its economy. Yugoslavia has since been looking to Washington and London for alternative credits.

But, significantly, Moscow did not go all the way that Peiping has gone.

Red China withdrew her envoy from Belgrade. It also cancelled its contract for Yugoslav tobacco and refused to participate in the Zagreb trade fair where in the past it was strongly represented.

Furthermore, Belgrade reported discrimination lately by Red China against Yugoslav shipping and its Adriatic port of Rijeka. Communist exporters to China have been asked to send their goods instead through Italian Trieste and not to employ Yugoslav shipping.

Russia, on the other hand, has not broken off trade relations and has not instructed the satellites to break off their trade with Belgrade.

And earlier last week came the news Moscow had reversed its decision and was sending some of the 200,000 tons of wheat to Yugoslavia whose delivery she had earlier suspended.

Then came the surprising news the departing Yugoslav ambassador had been personally received by Khrushchev and given a friendly farewell after having been ignored and cold-shouldered in the past.

Moscow also announced technicians would be going to Yugoslavia under previous arrangements.

Finally, Soviet anti-Tito propaganda has been seen to have been moderated; at least its ear-ring violent features have been missing lately.
