VENTURE CLUB

Venture Club initiation was held September 29 in the Winema Hotel. Dixie Nendall led the girls in the pledge of allegiance and Sharon Hipke gave the invocation. President Kathleen Gallagher welcomed the guests and members.

Venturists and their Soroptimist sponsors enjoyed a book review, "Dear Abbey" given by Kathleen Thompson.

Mary Bothwell gave the address on the founding of the local chapter and Venture Club activities in previous years.

Following the initiation ceremony in which 13 girls became Venturists, Dena Backes, adviser, gave a few closing remarks inspiring the girls toward a successful venturing year.

August Rites Unite Couple

Marilyn Genette Arney, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Lehigh, 2320 Union Avenue and Michael Lee Erickson, son of Mrs. Arvid Erickson and the late Mr. Erickson, 2641 Front Street, were married in a single ring ceremony August 22 at 3 o'clock in the Klamath Temple. The Rev. Harry M. Strachan officiated at the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

Aldene Prossie was maid of honor and wore a pale green chemise dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Thomas J. Skien was best man. The bride wore a champagne colored empire dress with beige accessories and small feather hat. She carried her white Bible covered with two orchids and stephanotis.

The bride's mother wore a black linen suit with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Erickson chose a dress of blue crepe which she wore with pink accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of garnet rosebuds and shredded pink carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Maudie Larson, 1218 Pine Street. Rosanne Lehigh, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

An aunt of the bride, Mrs. Charles Foster of Lakeview, and her three children attended the wedding.

The wedding trip included points along the Oregon Coast. The couple will live at Nellis Air Force Base, Las Vegas, where Michael is stationed.

Friends of the bride and members of the churches of both families entertained with several pre-nuptial affairs, honoring the couple.

Yreka Mass Unites Couple

YREKA—Joanne Burns of Sacramento became the bride of Charles W. Russell of Yreka at a Nuptial Mass, recently in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Yreka, with Father Robert Conley officiating, assisted by Richard Crawford.

Arrangements of white gladioli and lighted candles decorated the altar of the church where the couple repeated their nuptial vows.

Escorted and given in marriage by her brother, James Burns, the bride was gown in white lace and net. The floor-length gown was styled with a snug-fitting bodice highlighted with a Sabrina neckline, long, tight fitting sleeves pointed at the wrists. At the back of the bodice skirt was a cascade of lace and net tulle.

THE BETROTHAL of Sharon Dana Mathers to James D. McVay was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Mathers, 3923 Balsam Drive. The bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl McVay of Merrill. Sharon graduated from KUHS and attended the University of Oregon. James is a Malin High School graduate and attended OTI. The wedding will take place in November.

State Officer Visits Lodge

Mrs. Garnet Draper, grand matron of the Grand Ladies Encampment Auxiliary, IOOF of Oregon, made her official visit to Ewauna Ladies Encampment Auxiliary on Friday evening, September 26. She presented the cooperative program of the grand officers of all branches of Odd Fellowship and stated that the home project of the grand matron and grand matron for this year was needed bedside equipment in the hospital unit at the IOOF home in Portland.

Introduced and welcomed with Grand Matron Draper were Clarence Draper, grand high priest of the Grand Encampment; Mrs. Loretta Salley, grand marshal; Grand LEA; Mrs. Frances Munsell, grand officer; Grand LEA; Mrs. Elsie Redkey, deputy grand matron for Klamath Falls; Mrs. Mae Anderson, past president and right aide to the junior past president; and Mrs. Harriette Estes, officer of the day, both of the Association Ladies Auxiliary Patriarchs Militant, IOOF of Oregon. Also traveling with the grand matron were Mrs. Helen Birdsong and Mrs. Liva Miller of the Eugene LEA.

ditional first slice cut by the new Mr. and Mrs. Russell, the cake was served with punch by Mrs. Dorothy Crouch of Happy Camp. Throughout the reception organ music was played by Bill Ryan of Yreka.

For the honeymoon trip, the new Mrs. Russell chose a white sheath dress, complemented with black accessories. For her corsage she wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The newweds traveled through Yellowstone Park, Salt Lake City, Las Vegas and Reno for their honeymoon trip, and will reside in Sacramento.

The new Mrs. Russell attended school and junior college in Sacramento, and is now an employee of the Sacramento Municipal Utility District.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Russell of Yreka and Happy Camp. He will continue his education at Sacramento State College. He is a graduate of Yreka High School.

Newlyweds Given Party

MONTAGUE — The clubroom of the Montague Auditorium was recently the setting for a party given by the Montague Trail Riders in honor of Norman Nichols and his bride, the former Nancy Soule, both of Montague.

The group presented the newlyweds with a gift of an electric waffle iron grill.

The evening was spent in playing pinocle and canasta, followed with the serving of cake and coffee to the 42 persons present. The evening was concluded with dancing to music furnished by local musicians.

The newlyweds have been living in Astoria where Norman was serving as a fireman with the U.S. Navy, returning to Montague when his overseas orders came. On October 8 he flew from San Francisco to Pearl Harbor where he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Nichols of Montague. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cline Soule of Little Shasta.

DINNER PARTY

D. O. (Buck) Williams was guest of honor at a dinner party October 9 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Hyde on Pacific Terrace. The occasion marked Mr. Williams' 75th birthday.

Guests included his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Williams and her daughter, Rhoda of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Geary, Mrs. Avis McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hyde and family.

A WEDDING OF INTEREST to many Klamath Falls people was that of Mary Barbara Dias, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dias of San Diego, and Charles Glenn Brumble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brumble, 4411 Summers Lane. The ceremony took place September 7 at Saint Agnes Church in San Diego. Glenn was graduated from KUHS in 1956 and is presently stationed with the Seabees at Coronado where the newlyweds will reside. Mr. and Mrs. Brumble attended the wedding ceremony.

Her flowers were pink roses and she wore a pink formal.

Refreshments were served after the installation. Mrs. Donald Chase, Medford, served the punch and Mrs. Ival Wolfe served coffee.

"JAYHAWKER STATE"

Kansas acquired its nickname of "Jayhawker State" from a slang term applied to a group of anti-slavery men during the days when Kansas was a territory.

Round About

By HELEN BECHEN

Word coming to Mrs. Harry (Bea) Van this week told of the birth of Karen Lisa to Dr. and Mrs. Gene Petroff of Portland. She tipped the scales at 8 pounds and 13 ounces at 9 o'clock on the morning of October 14. Her mother is the former Madelon Adler. Two brothers will greet her on her return home. Maternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. George live on the base at Camp White in Medford. Sheila Adler, aunt to Karen Lisa, attends Southern Oregon College.

1976 Huron, also have glad tidings to report — a third grandchild, born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lewis of Portland. Mark Steven was born to the former Carol Van Doren and weighed 7 pounds, 9 ounces. He will share attention with brother, Craig, 2, and sister, Terry, 14 months. His paternal grandmother, Mrs. Leona Lewis, lives in Long Beach, California.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Former Klamath residents, Sergeant and Mrs. Earl Tichenor, who have been living in Milwaukee, are now transferred to Medford, where they have purchased a home.

Mothers of University of Oregon students are looking up their best recipes and preparing to cook a turkey dinner with all the fixings for their annual dinner October 30 in the First Presbyterian Church. Promises to be a fun way to have a grand meal and learn about the doings at Oregon. See you there.

Mrs. Herbert (Vi) Hauger is going to be missed, but Menlo Park residents are going to be glad she chose their locale for her new address in Waverley district of that southern city.

Mrs. Ethel Wilson of West Falmouth, Maine, is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Al McSwain, 2451 Corvallis Street. Mr. McSwain is with Johns-Manville. Five grandchildren are her main interest, but she has enjoyed some sight-seeing on this first trip west.

Mr. and Mrs. John Van Doren,

YREKA — A bridal shower was recently given in honor of Mrs. Harry Hammond, nee Lollie Smolsky, Yreka, at the home of Mrs. Luke Lange, who was assisted with hostess duties by Mrs. Gene Cordes and Mrs. Al McKenzie.

Visiting among the guests predominated the evening's activities, followed with the honoree opening her gifts.

Refreshments were served from a table which had been decorated with lighted candles. Pink carnations encircled a large sheet cake which bore the inscription of "Best Wishes, Lollie."

Present besides the honoree and hostesses were Mrs. Chester Barnett, Mrs. E. C. Bennett, Mrs. Frank Brahs, Mrs. Paul Fisher, Mrs. Rhy Fraga, Mrs. Saul Friedman, Mrs. Robert Greive, Mrs. Ora Jackson, Mrs. Lloyd Lane, Mrs. Norman Sears, Mrs. Carl Snider, Marilyn Sirianni, Mrs. George Simmons, Mrs. Gladys Washington and Mrs. Albert Wedin.

Unable to attend but sending gifts were Mrs. Mary Louise Gay, Mrs. Paul Foster, Mrs. Lloyd Lea, Mrs. Mathew Michels, Mrs. Aaron Westbrook, and Mrs. Gene Wuelzer.
