Sneak Tornado Belts Florida

PAHOKEE, Fla. (AP)—A sneak tornado belted this tranquil farming town Sunday with fury that left one dead, 16 injured and $400,000 damage in splintered homes, equipment and communications.
 The twister lashed first at the airport, a mile west of Pahokee. Nine crop-dusting planes were wrecked. One of them sailed 500 feet across a road.
 "It rolled up my four planes like a ball," said Jack Phillips. Two rows of migrant farm workers' homes collapsed.
 One house was blown more than 400 feet. Its wreckage yielded the body of John Gray, 70-year-old Negro laborer.
