 The Chicago Bears are fighting mad.

Expected to win the Western Conference title in the National Football League, the Chicagoans today are in sole possession of second place, only a game behind first-place Baltimore.

The Bears advanced by defeating Los Angeles 31-10 Sunday, but it was owner-coach George Halas, involved in one of the brawls that periodically broke out, who probably instilled the "get tough" attitude.

With the Rams leading 7-0 in the first quarter, Chicago's Ed Brown hit Harlon Hill with a sideline pass and the Rams defenders likewise hit Hill, shoving him out of bounds with authority.

Halas charged down the sidelines, protesting Hill's roughing up. The Rams' Don Burroughs shoved Halas nearly off his pins. Bear guard Hal Gibron pushed Burroughs.

The entire Bear squad rose en masse, but a few words from Halas quieted the situation. Apparently the incident incited the Bears to retaliate with the football.

Baltimore, meanwhile, retained the division lead, trampling defending champion Detroit 40-14. Cleveland defeated Pittsburgh 27-10 to remain at the head of the Eastern Conference.

In other games, Chicago's Cardinals dined New York 23-6. San Francisco edged Philadelphia 20-24, and Washington beat Green Bay 37-21.

Bears 31, Rams 10

Los Angeles (2-2) took its 7-0 lead on a 92-yard Billy Wade to Del Shofner pass, longest scoring aerial of the season. Rookie Erich Barnes tied it, blocking a field goal try and running 41 yards with the loose ball to score. Two TDs by Willie Galimore iced it for Chicago 3-1.

Los Angeles 7 3 0 0-10
 Chicago Bears 10 2 0 0-11
 Los Angeles: TD, Shofner (92 pass from Wade); PAT, Cothren, FG, Cothren (23).

Chicago: TD, Barnes (41 run after blocking field goal attempt); Galimore 2 (1 run, 20 run); McColl (2 pass from Brown); PAT, Blanda 3, Georgia 1, FG, Blanda (24).

Colts 40, Lions 14

The Colts (4-0) won on the arm of Johnny Unitas, who pitched a touchdown to Jim Mutscheller in the fourth quarter. It was the 19th straight game in which Unitas had tossed a TD. In all, Unitas passed for more than 200 yards. The Lions (0-3-1) came within a touchdown of the Colts on Yale Lary's 71-yard punt return but wilted in the last period.

Baltimore 6 7 7 20-40
 Detroit 0 7 0 7-14
 Baltimore: TD, Ameche 2 (1 run, 1 run); Dupre (4 run); Motre (61 run); Mutscheller (37 pass from Unitas); Lyles (27 run); PAT, Myrha 4.

Detroit: TD, Doran (19 pass from Morrall); Lary (71 punt return); PAT, Martin 2.

Browns 27, Pitt 10

Cleveland (4-0) moved two games in front in the East on the running of Jimmy Brown and rookie Bob Mitchell.

Brown boosted his rushing yardage for four games to 635 yards and scored two touchdowns. One came on a 32-yard run, the other on a 27-yard pass from Milt Plum. Mitchell scored once and picked up 108 yards in 13 carries. The Steelers (1-3-0) were unable to mount an offensive even with Bobby Layne tossing 26 passes.

Pittsburgh 7 0 0 3-10
 Cleveland 7 14 0 6-27
 Pittsburgh: TD, Matthews (64 pass from Tracy); PAT, Miner, FG—Miner (47 yards).

Cleveland: TD, Brown 2 (27 pass from Plum); 52 run; Renfro (26 pass from Plum); Mitchell (7 pass from Plum); PAT, Groza 1, Plum 2.

Cards 23, Giants 6

The Cards (2-2) pulled the injured Lamar McHan off the bench for their victory over New York (2-2). His right elbow wrapped in bandages, McHan fired two scoring passes to Gern Nagler. An eight-yarder from McHan to Nagler was the tie-breaker in the fourth quarter.

Chicago Cards 0 6 0 17-23
 New York 0 0 6 0-6
 Chicago: TD, Nagler 2 (4 pass from McHan, 8 pass from McHan); Conner (3 run); PAT, Conrad 2, FG, Conrad (37).

New York: TD, Triplett (4 run).

49ers 30, Eagles 24

John Brodie, replacing the injured Y. A. Tittle, passed for a pair of touchdowns and Hugh McElhenny scored twice for the 49ers (2-2). Philadelphia (1-3) started a last-minute touchdown drive, but with the ball on the 8, the San Francisco line held. Gordy Soltan's two field goals in the second half proved to be the eventual margin of victory.

San Francisco 14 10 3 3-20
 Philadelphia 10 7 0 7-24
 San Francisco: TD, McElhenny 2 (1 plunge) 39, pass from Brodie; Conner (21, pass from Brodie); PAT, Soltan 3, FG, Soltan 3 (28, 29, 21).

Philadelphia: TD, Barnes (1 plunge); Walston 14, pass from Van Brocklin; McDonald (7, pass from Van Brocklin); PAT, Walston 3, FG, Walston (29).

Skins 37, Packers 21

Johnny Olszewski paced the Washington attack. Johnny-O gained 165 yards and scored once and Eddie LeBaron passed for two TDs as the Redskins (2-2) rolled up a 34-0 lead before the Packers (0-3-1) scored on a 81-yard Babe Parilli to Max McGee pass in the last quarter.

Green Bay 0 0 0 21-21
 Washington 10 10 14 37-27
 Green Bay: TDs: McGee (89 pass from Parilli), Hornung (3 run), Taylor (31 pass from Parilli); PAT: Hornung 3.

Washington: TDs: Olszewski (45 run), Walton (20, pass from LeBaron), Anderson (33, pass from LeBaron), Sutton (5, run); PAT: Baker 4, FG: Baker (44, 38, 22).

The great Exterminator raced 12 times at Laurel during his career. He won six times.

Philadelphia: TD, Barnes (1 plunge); Walston 14, pass from Van Brocklin; McDonald (7, pass from Van Brocklin); PAT, Walston 3, FG, Walston (29).

Colts 40, Lions 14

The Colts (4-0) won on the arm of Johnny Unitas, who pitched a touchdown to Jim Mutscheller in the fourth quarter. It was the 19th straight game in which Unitas had tossed a TD. In all, Unitas passed for more than 200 yards. The Lions (0-3-1) came within a touchdown of the Colts on Yale Lary's 71-yard punt return but wilted in the last period.

Baltimore 6 7 7 20-40
 Detroit 0 7 0 7-14
 Baltimore: TD, Ameche 2 (1 run, 1 run); Dupre (4 run); Motre (61 run); Mutscheller (37 pass from Unitas); Lyles (27 run); PAT, Myrha 4.

Detroit: TD, Doran (19 pass from Morrall); Lary (71 punt return); PAT, Martin 2.

Philadelphia: TD, Barnes (1 plunge); Walston 14, pass from Van Brocklin; McDonald (7, pass from Van Brocklin); PAT, Walston 3, FG, Walston (29).

OWLS ON THE RUN—Oregon Tech's Owls defeated Southern Oregon 40-0 in the OTI Homecoming Weekend football game at Modoc Field Saturday afternoon. Above left, fullback Earl Green bows his head and shudders his way for extra yardage in this bit of first half action. Trying to put the stop on the OTI ball carrier is Southern Oregon's Larry Maurer (22). No. 40 for SOC is defensive back Lavel Maunier. At right, Herald and News photographer Don Kettler catches OTI's first touchdown midway through the first quarter. End Ardell Hamilton latches onto a pass from Charlie Ganter on the five-yard line just a split second before scoring. Moving in too late for Hamilton are SOC players Larry Yarnell (11) and Larry Maurer (22).

Big Conference Tilts Set This Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Half a dozen major conferences have important—if not critical—games this week.

Any or all of the six could produce winners that were pool-pooched in preseason ratings.

The Big Ten, Big Eight, Southeastern, Pacific Coast, Atlantic Coast and Southwest are in such a state of confusion that the coaches have to peer at the standings to believe their eyes.

Taking them in order: Big Ten—Who would have given a plugged shilling for Northwestern's chances before the call to action? Answer: No one, including Northwestern.

The Wildcats were the sad sacks of the league last year, dropping their entire schedule. Now they've done a complete about-face and are one of the dozen or so remaining undefeated major teams in the country.

Last Saturday, they laid emphatic claim to championship consideration by walloping Michigan 53-24.

This Saturday Northwestern meets Iowa, another title aspirant. The winner figures to fight it out with Ohio State for the title.

Big Eight—Who ever would have any doubts of the winner of the crown? It simply always is Oklahoma. The Sooners have wound up in front for the past 11 years. But this time around, they have proved human, losing to Texas as a couple of weeks back.

Furthermore, Colorado, which usually winds up a discouraging second to the Sooners, has come up with a tough team this year—the only undefeated club in the league, in fact. The Buffs play Oklahoma Nov. 1.

This week, they play Nebraska while Oklahoma goes against Kansas State. Both, of course, are heavy favorites. The Buffs licked Iowa State 20-0, and the Sooners clobbered Kansas 49-0 Saturday.

Southeastern—Before the season, it was all Auburn. Now the Tigers have had their 17-game winning streak snapped and they are not even the favorites for the title any more.

Georgia Tech tied them Saturday 7-7.

The word now is Louisiana State, which has won five in a row, including a 32-7 decision over Kentucky Saturday.

Pacific Coast—Oregon appeared headed toward a second title in a row until the Ducks came acroppe 6-0 at Washington State Saturday. California, relegated to an also-ran spot in September, upset Southern California 14-12 to take the lead and now has a showdown battle ahead with Oregon.

Paced by Earl Brinson and Ted Steiner, the Pel frosh scored five touchdowns in the first half and Brinson, Bill Kennitzer and Eric Peterson each counted one in the last half. Passes accounted for three KU six-pointers as Kent Hunsaker connected with two and Gary Buchholz hit for one.

Jordan, Gaspar Ortega Clash In Return TV Scrap

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 A possible welterweight title shot will be at stake Wednesday night when rangy Don Jordan of Los Angeles and Indian Gaspar Ortega of Mexico clash in a return television 10-rounder at Long Beach, Calif.

Jordan, 24, won a disputed, split decision over the aggressive Mexican Sept. 17 in running his winning streak to four. Ortega carried the fight all the way to Jordan in the first fight and many observers felt he deserved the verdict.

Ortega, 23, was the top-ranking welterweight contender until he was upset by Jordan. Now Gaspar is ranked third by Ring Magazine and fourth by the NBA. Jordan is ranked second among the lightweights by the NBA and first among the welters by Ring.

Sonny Liston, Philadelphia's heavyweight contender, aims for his 15th straight victory Friday night at St. Louis against Bert Whitehurst of Baltimore in a television 10-rounder.

Braves, Bucs Place Three On Star Team

NEW YORK (UPI)—The champion Milwaukee Braves and the second-place Pittsburgh Pirates placed three players each today on the United Press International's 1958 National League all-star team.

Pitcher Warren Spahn, catcher Del Crandall and outfielder Hank Aaron were the Braves honored while pitcher Bob Friend, second baseman Bill Mazeroski and third baseman Frank Thomas were the Pirates chosen.

The remainder of the 10-man squad, eight regulars and two pitchers, was composed of first baseman Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals, shortstop Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs and outfielders Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants and Richie Ashburn of the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Los Angeles Dodgers and Cincinnati Redlegs were not represented on the squad.

Spahn, Banks and Mays were unanimous choices and Aaron missed by only one vote in the poll of 24 baseball writers, three from each city in the league. Crandall was named on 22 ballots, Friend and Mazeroski on 20 each, Ashburn on 16 and Musial on 14.

The three unanimous choices—Spahn, Banks and Mays—were in the headlines practically daily in the league's first coast-to-coast season.
