The Coca-Cola Bottling Company has been named in a $10,000 damage suit filed in circuit court on behalf of a 12-year-old girl.

The suit, filed by Marie Norris as aunt and guardian of the girl, maintains that the girl became violently ill and required the services of a doctor after drinking a bottle of Coke bought in Chiloquin last July 12.

The Oregon Bureau of Labor has sued Louis Soukup for $75 wages said due L. V. Finkenbinder, a ranch foreman who worked from September 30 to October 8, 1956.

The insurance company paid the McCollums $2,500 to satisfy a claim, and seeks reimbursement from the car dealer.

Leader's Day Set By CFG

"The World Around Her, She Cares, Do You?" is to be the theme of the sixth annual Camp Fire Girls Leader's Day Conference to be held in Klamath Falls Thursday, October 23. The meeting will emphasize the Golden Jubilee of Camp Fire which will evolve into a two and a half-year-long project of tree planting and wild life conservation on a national scale.

Thursday's meeting, to be held at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, will coincide with this week's visit of Gwen Harper, Spokane, regional field adviser, here to make her annual visit to the Klamath Area Council of Camp Fire.

The conference will include six workshops, three for Camp Fire leaders, three for Bluebird leaders. Topics at each level will be "Let's Look at a Tree," "Silhouettes Against the Sky," and "Our Fine Feathered Friends."

During her visit Miss Harper has on her agenda a visit to Camp Esther Applegate, Lake of the Woods, meetings with various council committees, staff members, and with Mrs. Robert L. Smith, OTI, council president.

Girls of the local council plan to take a tree census to be used for the remainder of the project, the census to determine the kind of trees to be planted in this locale. This will be the first phase of the project. The second will stress "Habitat Improvement for Wildlife."

Among speakers at the Thursday conference will be Don Hummel, Weyerhaeuser forestry expert and a second speaker, also informed on forestry conservation, Charles Glidden.

Youth Enroll In Rifle Club

More than 80 youngsters, most of them with their parents, swarmed into city police headquarters the other night to register for the police department's Junior Rifle Club.

As a result, Lt. Bud Adkins said, registrations for the first course were filled in something like an hour and a half Monday. The youngsters will begin classes the first week in November.

However, another course is planned 10 weeks from now, so more youngsters may enroll in the popular Junior Rifle Club, Adkins said registrations would open sometime around February 1, and he advised a check with the newspaper at that time.

Actually, 82 students were enrolled in an age group ranging from 10 through 15 years for the classes beginning next month. Registrants already have been divided into four classes, the first beginning Monday, November 3, the second, Tuesday, the third, Wednesday and the fourth, Thursday.

Classes start at 7 o'clock each evening. The course, including instruction in hunting safety and rifle handling with lots of .22 target practice, lasts 10 weeks. It is in charge of Adkins and Patrolman Phil Chlipek, chief instructor.

Official Asked To Resign

DORRIS — The Mount Shasta City Council has called for the resignation of Carl Berg, city assessor, for what councilmen termed the arbitrary and inequitable assessment of property.

Mayor Pete Chinca said a letter has been sent to Berg requesting his resignation. Berg, an appointive official, was out of town.

Councilmen stated the assessment rolls will be investigated; a complete reassessment made, and new bills sent to taxpayers.

Officials said numerous protests were made following receipt of the tax statements mailed about October 1. They related they found some assessments doubled and some reduced with the city assessor not following any city, county or other rules for determining the values.

"It was discovered by the city council that the assessments, in many instances, were so grossly raised by the city assessor for the tax year of 1958-1959 that an adjustment will be necessary," Mayor Chinca stated.

The city council was advised by the city attorney that these assessments should be gone over and corrected and a corrected tax bill mailed to all taxpayers.

Bomb Threat Hits School

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—Classrooms were evacuated briefly at integrated Midwestern University Tuesday after the second threatening anonymous telephone call in two weeks.

Eddie Wyatt, senior and university telephone operator, said a man told him over the phone to "get everybody out of there by 11 o'clock."

Wyatt said the caller sounded like the man who phoned two weeks ago, asked if Negroes were students at Midwestern and said, "We give you until tomorrow to get everybody out of the building."

That call was ignored but Dr. Travis White, president of the city-owned school, ordered classrooms emptied after the second one. About 1,400 persons left the classrooms for about 20 minutes.

Dr. White said Negroes have attended the school for five years without previous incidents.

Record List Of Voters Prepare For Balloting

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Official and unofficial estimates today placed the nation's eligible voters for the Nov. 4 elections at 76,145,600. This is a record for a mid-term election.

Despite scattered reports of voter apathy, the same sources estimated the probable total vote in the 48 states at 48,131,226, including the 284,226 already officially recorded for Senate candidates in Maine Sept. 8. This also would be the highest for any non-presidential year.

The Associated Press tabulation is based on estimates gathered from state officials, party chairmen and in a few instances from veteran political writers.

It showed a gain of 1,266,454 qualified voters over the record established in the last midterm election in 1954. However, it is about four million under the total of eligibles for the 1956 presidential election.

The estimated vote represents an increase of 3,683,700 over the previous midterm highest vote in 1954. That total of 44,447,496 was reached by adding the top vote in each state whether for senator, governor or combined House vote.

The 1954 official vote for representatives was 42,582,927, including 22,366,386 for Democratic candidates and 20,016,809 for Republicans. The remainder went to independent and small party candidates. The largest presidential vote was more than 62 million in 1956.

The estimate of 76,145,600 eligibles for this year compares with a Census Bureau estimate of 104,600,000 "potential" voters for the coming election (civilians 21 years of age and over; 18 and over in Georgia and Kentucky). The potential vote has gained 4,377,000 over 1954.

Twenty-seven states show gains over 1954 in the estimated number of persons who have registered, paid poll taxes, or otherwise have met state voting requirements for the elections Nov. 4. The biggest gains are in California, 867,000, and Iowa and North Carolina, 200,000 each.

Nine states have qualified fewer voters than in 1954, although in some instances election officials said their estimates four years ago were too high. The nine states: Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Missouri, New Mexico, Ohio, South Carolina, Tennessee and West Virginia.

Estimated registrations for 12 states remained about the same as 1954.

States showing gains of 200,000 or more in estimated vote, over 1954's combined House vote, are California, Massachusetts, New York, Ohio and Texas.

Weeks Warns On Spending

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —Secretary of Commerce Weeks criticized Congress for unnecessary defense spending Tuesday.

Weeks told the St. Petersburg Chamber of Commerce that Congress was wrong in increasing personnel in the National Guard and reserve units over what the administration and Joint Chiefs of State recommended.

"They had better recognize that the next war will be different and ease up on things that are not necessary," the Cabinet official said.

Weeks said defense spending already is taking 77 per cent of the government's money and warned this figure shouldn't go higher.
