Air Base Chapel Wedding Scene

ALTURAS—Sharon Lynn Charlet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Charlet, chose March Air Force Base Chapel, Riverside, California, for her marriage to James William Carpenter on Sunday afternoon, September 28.

Sharon wore a pink suit, white lace hat and white lace mitts for the 2 o'clock ceremony. Her corsage was of pink Delight roses.

Mrs. Norman W. Tinkham of Long Beach, the bridegroom's cousin, was her only attendant. Her navy blue linen afternoon dress was worn with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Norman Tinkham was best man. James is the son of Daniel Carpenter of Colville, Washington, and of Mrs. Irene Walther.

The newlyweds are at home in Huntington Beach, California. The bridegroom is engineer third class in the Air Force.

Trick Or Treats

Witches and Black Cats—Jack 'O Lanterns and Goblins—all of these spell the witching time for the younger set. Klamath Falls is no exception to the rule—not only do the children dress up for parties but for tricks and treats. The front page of this section shows a number of the local children getting ready for Halloween.

At the top, left, are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Neitling, 807 North Third Street, who are looking forward to "Punky-Moon-shines" which term through the years has meant Halloween doings to the Vandenberg family. Mrs. Neitling is the former Mary Vandenberg.

The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall, 4507 Laverne Avenue, enjoy making their own decorations while baby brother Chris is just happy about the whole thing. Fancy cookies made by Gay Ann and Robbie Hall are sure to be a "treat" on the big day.

The six children of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Payne, 1707 Kane look to be expert at the ever popular stunt of "bobbing for apples" when they staged a dress rehearsal for the photographer.

It's a long reach to the door bell for little Louise Ganong as she and her sisters wait for treats. Below, she and Carrie watch big sister, Nancy, knife in hand, carve a handsome jack 'o lantern. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ganong, 131 Washington Street.

Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Wales Jr., 4512 Clinton Avenue, spent much time deciding on costumes to wear when they join the trick or treat parade. Final decision made, Sally adjusts the veil for her sister Diana.

The mystery of the pumpkin is explored by Michael Murray, (the bunny), son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Murray, 1945 Painter, and Jon Gertsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gertsen, 1972 Portland. Bobby Cruikshank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cruikshank, 1020 Pacific Terrace, stands with attention diverted elsewhere while Fritz Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hayes, 2033 Lawrence, could be wondering if he shouldn't have taken a longer nap.

With a little practice Jon Gertsen is sure to catch that elusive doughnut.

Silver Anniversary Observed In Bonanza

BONANZA—Twenty five years of wedded life were observed by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Burnett of Langell Valley on October 12, when more than 100 friends honored them at a party held in the Bonanza Library from 3 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Hosts for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Zeller, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Eittrien, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Battis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pinelli, Mrs. Muriel Smith, Mrs. Mae Gale, Mrs. Faye Weimer, and Mrs. Joyce Fett.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett were married at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. John Coan in Klamath Falls. They lived in that city 17 years while he was employed by the Klamath Falls Creamery. They moved to their present home in Langell Valley when they bought a ranch from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn in 1943.

A lace cloth covered the refreshment table which was centered by the pink, white and silver wedding cake. A large silver bell with "25" centered the floral decoration of pink carnations and chrysanthemums. Pink candles in silver candleabra completed the table decorations. Other fall flowers were used for decorating the room. Mrs. Burnett was given a pink corsage by the hostesses.

After Mr. and Mrs. Burnett cut the first piece of cake it was served by Mrs. Burnett's sister, Mrs. Joyce Fett. Another sister, Mrs. Mike Eittrien, served the punch and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Pinelli, poured coffee from the silver urn. Mrs. Adele Kent, close friend of the couple from Olympia, Washington, was in charge of the guest book.

The Burnetts have three children, Marla and Monte attending school at Bonanza and Richard of the Navy at San Diego, who was home for his parents' anniversary.
