Eight-Year-Old Girls Give Formal Dinner

"We're having a birthday party On Thursday, October 16. From 3 until 7—it's supper. And the plans are really keen. Dress up in your loveliest formal. And primp with this powder puff. Put on some high heels and lipstick. And we'll really strut our stuff."

So read the invitations adorned with pink powder puffs sent by Alice Favell and Judy Kerns to nine of their friends asking them to dinner at the Favell home, 1201 Eldorado Avenue, on October 16.

The party was a celebration of the birthdays of the hostesses, Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Favell, was 8 on October 17 and Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kerns, was born on October 18.

The table decorations were designed and made by the girls who used the Halloween theme, which was also carried out in the dinner with individual pumpkin cakes served as dessert.

OSC MOTHERS To Hold Tea

The first meeting of the Oregon State College Mothers Club of Klamath County will be a tea honoring mothers of new students to be held at the home of Mrs. James R. Olson, 2035 Portland, on Wednesday, October 29, from 2:30 until 4:30.

The committee in charge will include Mrs. F. C. Adams, chairman, and the officers of the local unit: Mrs. Robert A. Thompson, president; Mrs. Keith Henry, vice president; Mrs. Madrice Hauser, secretary; and Mrs. Fred Kelsay, treasurer. Assisting also will be Mrs. Gary Price, Mrs. Dick Hensel and Mrs. Polly Schroeder.

Mrs. Schroeder is a district representative to the state board for Klamath, Deschutes, Crook and Jefferson counties.

No invitations are being mailed, but it is hoped that all mothers of Oregon State students throughout Klamath County and Tulelake will attend.

BPW Club Hears Ballot Discussion

Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's Club held a regular business meeting at the Willard Hotel on Monday, October 20, with the president, Alice Gallup, presiding.

The program was under the direction of Viola Dickson, legislative chairman, and featured a four-member panel who discussed different measures on the November ballot.

Dena Backus spoke on the park measure; Judge Charles Mack on the county home rule amendment; Francis Landrum on the continuance of the three mill levy for another five years; and Ed Geary on the 12 measures on the ballot. A question and answer period followed the discussions.

The lovely fall table decorations of pumpkins and fall leaves were arranged by Lela Thurman who was assisted by Dolly Cox.

The next meeting will be held November 3 with Beulah Elliott, career and advancement chairman, in charge of the program.

CAR COAT
from FOULGER'S Leons

Everyone warms up to a Ranch Coat

Especially this Great Six style... tailored long and flattering for comfort and freedom. The water-shedding poplin is accented with striped knit collar to match the pockets. Quilted lining means plenty of warmth. Gold buttons. New shades.

It's Fun to go in a Wagon Coat

Fabulous is the word for this Great Six creation... the perfect fashion for today's in and out of car living. Smartly styled in all-weather ribbed Walacord with bulky wool knit collar and cuffs. Orlon pile lining means lots of warmth.

As seen in GLAMOUR

Stripes are Fashion Right

Destined to be a cold weather favorite... the Great Six Ivy jacket of water-repellent sheen with quick-closing slip buckle. Let the wind blow... just a flip of the knit collar converts it to a curl-protecting hood. So warm, too, because there's a full quilted lining. Wonderful colors.
