Popular Couple Wed In Christian Church

A candlelight service at the altar of the First Christian Church on October 2, united two popular young people of Klamath County when Joan Eva Carson became the bride of Leland Clarence Webber.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Carson of the Midland District. Her husband, serving in the Air Force, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Webber of Poe Valley.

Otis Bell, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiated at the 8 o'clock service before 300 relatives and friends of the young couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white Chantilly lace, ballerina length, over satin made with chapel train. The fitted bodice, buttoned up the front was made with long sleeves, pointed at the wrists and with tiny petersham collar. Her illusion veil fell from a tiny headband of pearl-encrusted orange blossoms. She carried a white orchid and shower of Stephanotis on a white Bible.

The bridegroom was in the blue uniform of the Air Force.

Mrs. Robert Dougherty sang, "O Promise Me," Stanley Kendall sang, "O Jesus We Have Promised," and Roy Landgren, "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Stanley Kendall was organist.

Bette Lou Carson, sister of the bride and maid of honor, was gown in sunshine yellow. Her flowers were lavender carnations. Wanda Anderson, also a sister, wore an orchid frock and carried yellow carnations, the ensembles carrying out the colors predominating at the wedding and the reception.

The little flower girl, Heather Lee Derby, and Dennis Coats, ring bearer, are niece and nephew of the bride.

Gerald Durant, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Richard Derby and Donald Anderson, brothers-in-law of the bride who also lighted the tall white tapers that gleamed among the altar flowers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carson chose a two-piece turquoise dress with black accessories and pink roses at the shoulder. Mrs. Webber wore a bronze shaded frock with black accessories and rosebuds at the shoulder.

Mrs. Richard Derby, sister of the bride, served the five-tiered white and silver wedding cake after the new Mr. and Mrs. Webber cut the traditional first slice. Mrs. Marjorie Coats, sister of the bride, was at the punch bowl and Mrs. Ethel Guchess, Medford, cousin of the bridegroom, was at the coffee urn. Mrs. Gerald Durant, ANNOUNCED recently by Mr. and Mrs. Loyd A. Smith, 2130 Darrow Avenue, is the engagement of their daughter, Loretta Ann, to Robert W. Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. (Ben) Morris, 2142 Darrow Avenue. The bride-elect, a 1955 graduate of Myrtle Creek High School, is employed at the U.S. National Bank since her transfer from the Myrtle Creek branch in January, 1957. Her fiancé, a 1955 KUHS graduate, is stationed with the Air Force at Point Arena, California. No date has been set for the wedding.

MADE A RACKET

The term "racketeer" traces its origin to 17th century England, where pickpockets would start a racket or noise on the street in order to attract a crowd of victims.

Pocahontas

WEED — Mrs. Betty Meadows line as second counselor and Mrs. Rita Renning as second scout for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Geneva Hildreth thanked those who assisted with the recent banquet held to honor the Great Pocahontas Mickie Artz on her official visit.

The coin award for the evening was given to Mrs. Rachel Doughty. Halloween costumes were worn by members in keeping with the theme of the party time held following the meeting adjournment.

A potluck supper, games and an exchange of silent pal gifts highlighted the party.

Centennial Topic Of AAUW Meet

The forthcoming Oregon Centennial year set the theme for the monthly luncheon meeting of the American Association of University Women October 18 at Reames Country Club.

Visitors

Recent guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Causey, 443 Pacific Terrace, have been Mrs. Causey's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McCawley of Galveston, Texas. This was the first visit to Oregon for the couple who spent the week seeing interesting places in the Basin. On their return trip they will visit Yosemite Park and Los Angeles.

original poems and prayers. Gayle Carnini, costumed in an old fashioned dress, danced an original ballet. James Chance, accompanied by Marie Obenchain, sang several numbers. He then led the group in singing "All Hail Oregon, All Hail," by Marie Obenchain and the "Oregon State Song."

James Boyle, chairman of Klamath and Lake counties and member of the Oregon Centennial Commission, spoke of "What the Oregon Centennial Is About," and outlined some of the plans that are being made for the exposition in Portland, as well as the more local aspects of the celebration. He elaborated on the part that AAUW members might expect to play in the various projects. In view of the thousands of visitors to the centennial who will be in Klamath Falls, he suggested that we should all be prepared to answer their questions about the history and heritage of Oregon.

Legislative chairman Ni Patterson announced a meeting to inform all who are interested concerning the studies and surveys of OTI and to hear a discussion led by Dorothea Buck, Winston Purvine and Lucile O'Neill. This important meeting will be held Monday, October 27, at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Fred Ehlers, 1338 Pacific Terrace.
