Need For Regional Agency Told By Ex-Chamber Chief

DUNSMUIR—A plea for a regional chamber of commerce for southern Siskiyou County was made Wednesday night at the Dunsmuir Chamber of Commerce dinner at the Hotel Dunsmuir.

Grid Player Wins Claim

DUNSMUIR—Anthony (Tony) L. Welch, 20, paralyzed after a high school football scrimmage in Redding, has accepted a $137,500 settlement of his claims against the Dunsmuir Joint Union High School District.

Welch when injured was attending Dunsmuir High School. The settlement closes a law suit which has continued for several years following Welch's injury in a scrimmage game with Enterprise High School in September, 1955.

A Shasta County Superior Court jury awarded Welch $325,000 and this sum was later reduced by Judge Richard B. Eaton to $206,804.

Pending an appeal before the state supreme court, Tony's mother, Mrs. Gladys Welch, asked the court to approve acceptance of a $137,500 settlement offered by the Firemen's Fund Insurance Group because of her son's need of funds.

Consent of the court was needed before final disposition of the case could be made. Mrs. Welch explained in accepting the lower sum that her attorneys, Jack Halpin of Redding and J. Everett Barr of Yreka had advised her that if the supreme court ordered a new trial, the odds were against a favorable verdict.

Women Voters Planning Fair

A Candidate's Fair sponsored by the League of Women Voters, is scheduled for Saturday evening, November 1, at the Fremont School.

Numerous Klamath County organizations are cooperating with the league including the Republican and Democratic groups, the Klamath Falls Kiwanis Club, Oregon Educational Association, Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women, Venture Club, Beta Sigma Phi, Newcomers, Klamath Merchants Association, and the civic class students at Klamath Union High School under the direction of Paul Dellar.

Voters of both parties will be introduced during the evening. The fair was planned in the interest of giving the voter an opportunity to meet the candidates, to discuss the issues and lay the groundwork for an intelligent vote.

The public is invited and urged by the league to attend this meeting and to exercise the right of every adult American citizen to vote in the November 4 election.

Russia's Nobel Prize Writer Seems Confident Of Future

NEW YORK (AP)—There is much to indicate that troubles aplenty could be piling up for Boris Leonidovich Pasternak, the Russian novelist who has won world renown for his anti-Communist "Dr. Zhivago."

But there also is much to indicate that the 68-year-old novelist isn't worried a bit about the strange and touchy situation in which he finds himself.

At last reports the author, named Thursday as the first Soviet citizen ever to win the Nobel prize for literature, was putting about in his garden near Moscow unconcerned over his predicament.

Not the least of the problems is his fate at the hands of Soviet authorities, even though his best-selling work has not been published in Russia.

"It is a minor miracle that Pasternak has been left free to dig in his garden," Life magazine said.

Still it is possible that the worldwide hullabaloo over Pasternak may make the Soviets a little wary of dealing out any great punishment.

So far their official reaction apparently has been little more than a snorting disdain for the novel, coupled with an attitude of something like: "What else could you expect than praise from capitalist countries?"

cited the Mt. Shasta Ski Bowl as an example of area cooperation. In other action the chamber decided to concur with the city council and take no further action on moving the old steam locomotive to a better location until state freeway plans are more definite.

An affirmative vote was given the Inter-County Chamber of Commerce of Northern California resolution for more federal expenditure for fuller land use of federal lands.

Armand Brunel was named Christmas tree chairman and the community Christmas tree will be erected on Sacramento and Pine streets on November 21. J. Bud Lacheny, Jim Lockart and Frank Gilley were named as the merchants' committee for Christmas promotion. The garden section of the women's club will be asked to promote the Christmas judges. California Oregon Power Company will donate $150 toward prizes. It was announced.

Chapman Wentworth was named chairman of a nominating committee and asked to name his own committee. The annual chamber election will be held at a dinner meeting at the Travelers Hotel on November 19.

The corresponding secretary was asked to write letters of appreciation to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the St. Germain Foundation in recognition of the influx of may cognial visitors to the area in the last two months.

Psychiatrists Issue Report

NEW YORK (AP)— Bellevue Hospital psychiatrists have recommended that the woman who stabbed the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King be committed to a hospital for the criminal insane.

The preliminary report on Mrs. Izola Ware Curry was returned Friday to General Sessions Court Judge Abraham Geller. Mrs. Curry, 42, and King, 29-year-old integration leader, are Negroes.

Geller ordered a formal hearing on the Curry case for Nov. 7 at Bellevue.

Mrs. Curry stabbed King with a steel letter opener as he autographed copies of his book in a Harlem department store.

THERE IS A VERONA VERONA, Miss. (UPI)— The question arose Thursday at a meeting on expanding city limits as to whether Verona actually existed.

Mayor Frank Beane made a quick check with the secretary of state and was informed that the town has been around a long time. It was incorporated in 1850.

UNDECIDED CALUMET CITY, Ill. (UPI)— Noel Pennington, 30, was residing in his fourth jail in five days today. He is charged with assault and battery but authorities can't decide where the offense took place.

Latest American visitors to Pasternak's cottage about 15 miles outside Moscow described him as pleased over the success of his book and seemingly undisturbed as to what may befall him in his own land.

"I find if I let events slide along everything usually works out all right," he was quoted as saying.

The gray-haired author, sturdy of build and rugged of face, is of Jewish ancestry.

"Dr. Zhivago" recounts the misery of a group of Russians during the last years of the Czars and the first years of the Communist revolution.

It contains such views as "I don't know a movement more self-centered and further removed from the facts than Marxism," and strongly asserts individual dignity.

MONDAY EVENING, October 27, these three Klamath Union High School girls will appear as contestants on Oregon Tech's Search for Scholarship program from 5:30 to 6 p.m. over KOTI-TV. Seated, from left, are Mary Barker, Janice Wilson and Sue Lund. The first trio appeared last Monday evening on the Tech Talk program and one of the six will receive a full tuition scholarship to Oregon Tech. Applications are being accepted now for the winter term competition which is open to high school seniors within the viewing radius of the television station. Interested students are urged to get full details from the principals of their high schools in Klamath, Lake, Modoc and Siskiyou counties.

School Board Okays System

DUNSMUIR—Use of a school-to-home communication system for the instruction of bedridden students was approved by the Dunsmuir High School Board of Trustees at its October meeting.

Jana Pierce of Castella is receiving classroom instruction through use of excutoni, a two-way microphone hookup, whereby she can hear classroom activity and ask questions about points that puzzle her. Jana has a rare fever that may keep her out of school for several months. Her parents are sharing the cost of the installation with the school district.

In other business, the school board learned the application for flood damage relief for repairs to the giant slide that took out part of the school driveway and athletic field had been tentatively approved. The California Disaster Office has granted $2,524 to the district pending inspection of the repair. McCammon Wunderlich, contractor for the new freeway, assumed responsibility for completion of the job.

Accident Group Loses Judgment A circuit court jury awarded Travis M. Smith of Klamath Falls permanent total disability for several months. The jury in a reported 11 to one vote, voted for total disability.

Actress Finds Solution; Stays Home Most Of Time

By DOROTHY ROE Associated Press Women's Editor

Pretty Kitty Carlisle is one actress who has found the ideal solution to the problem of how to juggle her duties as wife, mother, housemaker and headliner.

"A half hour once a week on television keeps my professional pride in working order," says she, "and the rest of the time I can spend at home."

Kitty is married to playwright-producer-director Moss Hart and has two children, Chris, 10, and Cathy, 8. The Hart family lives in a swank duplex apartment in New York and spends weekends at a beach house in New Jersey. Says Kitty:

"When I married Moss I decided he was a full-time job. But an actress does like to keep her hand in. After our marriage I appeared in a Broadway play he directed, called 'Anniversary Waltz'—my last play."

"Having my husband directing me in a play seemed just like home. He told me what to do and I did it, just as I always do."

Kitty is one of the panel of the TV show, "To Tell the Truth," an arrangement which suits her perfectly, since it requires no rehearsal and depends on the native wit and general knowledge of the panel. Besides—

"When you're on television you reach millions of people all over the country, instead of only a few hundred in a theater. It's so efficient."

Life is entirely different when you become a television personality, says Kitty, and it has its own special set of problems.

"You have to be awfully careful not to offend anyone," she explains, "because instead of being a somewhat remote character behind the footlights of a theater, you move right into people's living rooms."

Bicycle Riders Safety Urged

WEED—Safety for bicycle riders was emphasized through the medium of films presented Tuesday to the Weed Union Elementary School student body assembly.

Captain J. B. Booth, California Highway Patrol, Yreka, and David L. Dawson, Weed police chief, introduced the films that encouraged the students to be more alert to traffic rules, points of maintenance of their bicycles and recognition of mechanical defects to insure safe operation of their cycles.

Captain Booth thoroughly explained the traffic laws pertaining to bicycles and urged extreme caution to the young drivers.

Following the film showing and remarks by Captain Booth, over 500 students were issued a prepared California Highway Patrol bicycle safety quiz, made up of 50 questions based on the film subject.

Leno Lenzi, principal of the Weed school, announced recently that 95 per cent of the papers was correct.

Gun-Toting Lad Escape Foiled

A 15-year-old Bend boy, arrested here Wednesday, got as far as the juvenile home with a loaded revolver in his possession.

Officers said the youth and a 14-year-old boy were arrested as suspected runaways and eventually taken to the juvenile home. Police then notified Bend authorities, who telephoned back that the boys were wanted for questioning about a stolen car and that the older boy was considered armed and believed dangerous.

A hasty check revealed the revolver in a room at the juvenile home where the boys had changed clothes.

The two later were returned to Bend to face charges there.

Court Sentences Aide To Death

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—The Court of Appeals Saturday reversed a lower court verdict and sentenced two-time presidential candidate Cho Bong Am to die on charges of espionage and violation of the national security law.

The decision is subject to review by the Supreme Court.

The court upheld government charges that Cho worked for the North Korean Communist regime through Yang Myung San, who was also sentenced to death Saturday.

Yang and Cho were arrested last spring. Yang confessed he had worked as a liaison agent between the Communists and Cho.
