"I am not going to scout any of the Big Ten games," declares California Coach Pete Elliott. "After all, every game left on our schedule could go either way."

His remarks, reflecting a sentiment and a problem, came after his surprising Bears whipped Oregon 23-6. That ran the first place Bears' Pacific Coast Conference record to 3-0.

The sentiment holds California the West Coast favorite for the Rose Bowl game against the Big Ten's representative. The problem confronting Elliott is to keep his Bears up for the remaining schedule, starting with Saturday's important contest against Oregon State at Corvallis.

The OSC Beavers hold second place with a 3-1 mark and can take the lead by beating Cal.

Oregon State beat Washington 14-12 Saturday while Southern California measured Washington State 14-6 and Stanford edged UCLA 21-19 on three conversion kicks by left-footed Skip Fane.

IDAHO WINS

Idaho, having completed its three conference games without winning one, turned in a 24-16 victory over Arizona.

California and Oregon State head this week's slate with Washington State playing UCLA at Los Angeles, Oregon at Washington, USC at Stanford and independent San Jose State traveling to Boise to meet Idaho.

Quarterback Joe Kapp and halfback Jack Hart starred as California upended Oregon, but the supporting cast proved superb with better blocking, tackling and faking than the Bears have evidenced in recent times.

Kapp scored two touchdowns—on a half yard thrust—and a 92-yard gallop. Hart tallied on a three-yard burst off tackle. The pair combined on two point pass conversions. Halfback Wayne Crow booted the other extra point. Keys to the first two touchdown drives came on passes of 37 and 24 from Kapp to Hart.

SPARKS DRIVE

Oregon State halfback Dainard Paulson, up from the reserves, led the Beavers to victory over Washington, spearheading the two touchdowns and plunging over for the decisive two-point conversion.

Paulson threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to end Don Thell, climaxing a 79-yard touchdown drive.

OSC, Oregon Stars Review

Here's the way a pair of Oregon's top collegiate football players looked at the performance of their respective schools this past weekend.

Nub Beamer, Oregon State's senior fullback and an All-Pacific Coast Conference selection last year, said, "we moved the ball well against Washington, but made lots of mistakes."

The Beavers nipped the Huskies 14-12 at Portland's Multnomah Stadium.

"I think we'll be up and ready to play real football next Saturday against California," he said. "We can't afford to lose from here on out and we have resolved to do our best not to lose."

Dave Urell, sophomore guard from Astoria, was disappointed because Oregon lost 23-6 to California.

"(Joe) Kapp was a thorn in our side for sure," he said. "But outside of that, I can't see that they were any better than any of the other teams we've played this year," Urell said. "We made some real costly mistakes but I don't think they should have beaten us."

Fights

Havana — Ezequiel Uribe, 136-1/2, Mexico, outpointed Armando Baragano, 137-1/2, Cuba, 10.

Hollywood — Dwight Hawkins, 122, Los Angeles, stopped Baby Brown, 121, Philippines, 5.

He went into Belfast to floor Spider Kelly for the British Empire title. Then, in the featherweight elimination which followed Sandy Saddler's retirement, he went to Washington where Miguel Berrios was well-liked and pounded out an easy decision.

That matched him with French favorite Cherif Hamia for the title—in Paris—and Bassey knocked him out in 10 rounds in June of 1957. Defending the bauble, Bassey moved into Los Angeles and quickly knocked out Mexican favorite Ricardo Moreno.

Race Snared By Thompson

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Johnny Thompson of Boyertown, Pa. grabbed a lead on the 38th lap and held it all the rest of the way to win the 100-mile National Championship big car race at the State Fairgrounds Sunday.

Judd Larson of Tampa, Fla., was second and A. J. Foyt of Houston finished third.

It was the fourth win of the year for Thompson, who is a close third in the national auto race standings. But the two men he trails also placed high Sunday.

Thompson's win was worth 200 points in the national championship derby for a total of 1,520 points. Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., finished fifth, worth 100 points, and leads the overall race with 1,670 points. George Anich, Venice, Calif., earned 120 points with his fourth place finish. His season total is 1,640 points.

Thompson sped the 100 miles in one hour, 7 minutes and 17 seconds, an average of 89.63 miles per hour.

YOUNG FACES WOODWARD
NEW YORK (UPI) — Paddy Young, former middleweight contender, returns to the ring tonight after a three-year layoff and fights young Otis Woodward at St. Nicholas Arena.
