Mrs. Anthony Bliss; Mrs. Lorraine Manville; Mrs. August Belmont; and Mrs. Robert Merrill, wife of the baritone. One new fashion emphasis appeared to be the floor-length sheath-straight satin or brocade coat often matching the gown underneath it. As for the opera, its classic melodrama appeared to please everyone. Associated Press arts editor W. G. Rogers said the performance was a "splendid send-off for the Met's diamond jubilee year." It also was a splendid financial sendoff for the 1958-59 season, with $36,887 taken in on opening night, an all-time record.
