Herald And News Reporter Depicts BPW Members

Editor's Note: This is the third in a series being printed on interesting women in the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's Club. Other sketches will be published soon.

By RUTH KING

Her birthstone is the amethyst, her flower is the violet or the primrose, the time of her birth puts her under the zodiac sign of Aquarius supposed in the Middle Ages to influence human life, giving the Aquarian versatility and urge for action.

Eva Cook, who holds the office of Klamath County treasurer, was born in Okanogan, Washington, and schooled in part near the site of the Custer battlefield in Montana, where white headstones on a rolling hill mark the spots where heroic men of the United States Army fought and lost against the Indians in the country of the Little Horn and the Big Horn rivers.

She came to Klamath Falls in 1926, has a husband Cyril Cook, a grown son and grown daughter, Lyle and June. Children in her family naturally led to interest in PTA, at Riverside School. Parents and Patrons at Klamath Union High School, 4-H Club and Camp Fire leadership, Red Cross bloodmobile unit responsibility, BPW official duties and membership, action in Toastmistress and home extension units, have filled off-office hours during the many years Eva Cook has been employed.

Her years of work with the public began back in 1929 with the old Baldwin Hardware as cashier and have continued through affiliation with the onetime Barney Chambers Gun Store, time at Ken's in business, ownership of the Pine Tree Confectionery here in Klamath Falls, as timekeeper for the contractors who built the Marine Barracks, now homesite of O.T.I.

She remembers the stretch of sagebrush and sand that was to become the first runway at the Klamath Falls airport since she kept facts and figures for Cliff Dunn, local contractor.

Cook's hobby is children, and the organized groups which lay the groundwork for better young citizens.

The family home is at 2415 Ward Street. Husband, Cyril is a lineman for the Morrison-Knudsen Construction Company.

How To Hold FALSE TEETH More Firmly In Place

Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass you when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No rummy, gummy, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug counter.

She believes that women are preparing themselves for the leadership opportunities that are more and more coming their way and that membership in the Business and Professional Women's Club, the oldest and largest national organization for women who work, stimulates interest in women taking part in government, community improvement and in seeking policy making posts.
