

Bowl Games Await Saturday Grid Play

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 "What are you doing New Year's Eve?" the popular song asks.
 Any answer that Louisiana State, Iowa, California or Colorado can give to that question will have to wait until after Saturday's football games. These are the teams who have the inside track to the major New Year's Day bowl games.
 The day's big game has the Sugar Bowl as a prize, as Louisiana State, the nation's No. 1 team, faces sixth-ranked Mississippi. Both have 6-0 records. The winner will take control of the Southeastern Conference. The SEC title is the automatic Sugar Bowl host.
 The other opponent in the big New Orleans classic can come from quite a few places.
 North Carolina (No. 17), winner of its last four games, is a hot possibility as it meets Tennessee. So is the runner-up in the Big Eight Conference, whose title could be decided Saturday when seventh-ranked Oklahoma visits Colorado (No. 9).
 Oklahoma (4-1), current Orange Bowl champ, is eligible to return this year. The Buffs, with a 5-0 record, head the Big Eight race.

Green Bay Hopes QBs Set For Colts

BALTIMORE (AP) — "I think the difference between winning and losing will be who has the real hot quarterback," an advance man for the Green Bay Packers says of Sunday's game against the Baltimore Colts.
 Tom Miller, publicist for the Packers, brought with improvement of Babe Parilli as another quarterback to go along with Bart Starr.
 "We hope Parilli has found himself," said Miller after noteworthy performances the past two weeks.
 Parilli averaged 33 yards in completing nine passes late in the game against the Washington Redskins and hit on 14 of 26 in Green Bay's victory last Sunday over Philadelphia.

Starr is the control type of thrower while Parilli is the long ball stylist. Last year, Parilli beat the Colts in the last minute with a 75-yard scoring pass.
 Starr gave the Colts a fit in their first meeting this season by completing 26 of 46 passes, the best single game performance so far. The Packers came up a 17-0 lead before the Colts came on to win 24-17.
 The Colts have real good reason to be tranquil about their own quarterbacking with John Unitas. He has thrown at least one touchdown pass in the last 20 games and is only three short of the all-time league record held by Cecil Isbell.
 Unitas has chucked 10 touchdown passes this year, three more than any other league tosser. His passes have gained 1,090 yards which also is the most.

Braves, Yanks Top All-Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves and the New York Yankees dominate the 1958 Associated Press major league all-star team named today in a poll of 173 members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America.
 Three Milwaukee players and two Yankees were selected. The Braves are outfielder Hank Aaron, catcher Del Crandall and left-handed pitcher Warren Spahn. The Yankees chosen are outfielder Mickey Mantle and right-hander pitcher Bob Turley.
 The rest of the squad is composed of first baseman Stan Musial of the Cardinals, second baseman Nellie Fox of the White Sox, third baseman Frank Thomas of the Pirates, shortstop Ernie Banks of the Cubs and outfielder Willie Mays of the Giants.

and morale seem higher than at any time throughout the season and the lads are tackling and blocking with a viciousness that indicates trouble for the Comets.
 This being the last home appearance of the 1958 version of the Pelicans, it would be an ideal time for an enthusiastic stand full of shoulders to come out and give the boys some real moral support. Night, Ashland won't have a chance and that means the Whitebirds will close their season with a 3-0 record. After the schedule they faced this year, they could be proud of finishing on an upnote.
 They may not be the best football players in the state but a better group of boys would be hard to find.

George Hanson, who in his first year as a coach stands to grab off a third place finish in District 5B with his hard-playing Malin Mustang squad, was categorized thusly, only a week after the football season opened: Said a Malin father, "I don't know yet just how good a football coach he is — but I do know that he is just the kind of guy I have always hoped would teach my boy."
 Hanson is the first to admit he had a lot of help in his freshman year; he compliments his squad for their part. A few that were a big help to the Mustang cause, yet received little notoriety, are half-back Al Kirkpatrick, quarterback Randy Miller, ends Harvey Milligan and Rick Illian and tackle Ed Stasny.

Jerry Kempf and the faithful "17" Sacred Heart Trojans saw their patience and perseverance pay off finally as they pulled themselves out of the basement by their own bootstraps with a win over the Talent Bulldogs last Friday. The fact that they tangle with the potent Bonanza Amblers Saturday gives them little hope of picking up two in a row, however, regardless of their spirit.

One of the standout performances of the District 5B season was turned in by Ron Hoggarth of the Chiloquin Panthers in their tough test with the Malin Mustangs last week.
 Ron packed the pigskin 18 times during the game for a total of 117 yards and an average of 6.5 per trip. In addition to his work on the ground Hoggarth completed 4 of 11 pass attempts for a total of 79 yards, averaging 7.2 per toss. Oh yes, then he intercepted one Mustang pass and scored a touchdown for the Panthers. Outside of that he had a relatively slow night.

Those who have talked to KU basketball coach Dean White are busy making arrangements to spend State Tournament week in Eugene again this year. Things on the maple look mighty promising despite the fact that Moore, Robinson and Niles are no longer with us. Bob Peterson is back and he will have lots of help. Practices start tomorrow.

Sam Huff To Draw Top Duty

NEW YORK (AP) — Think you've got things tough? Look at Sam Huff. All he has to do is stop Jimmy Brown.
 Coach Jim Lee Howell of the New York Giants put the finger on his middle linebacker today to put the blocks to Brown — who happens to be on the way to a National Football League rushing record — when they play the Cleveland Browns Sunday at Cleveland.
 The Giants, second in the Eastern Conference with a 3-2 record, have to get this one to keep the first place Browns (5-0) within reach. And to do that, they have to stop Brown.

Young Jimmy, outstanding as a sophomore last year, is a terror as a sophomore. He's powered to 815 yards in the five games, averaging 6.9 a crack — smashing for virtually six of every 10 yards the Browns have made on the ground. He's scored 14 touchdowns and hasn't been held to less than 125 yards in any game.
 And with rookie Rob Mitchell sweeping the ends for Cleveland to keep the other two linebackers alert, Huff was Howell's pick "to do Brown all the way."

Owl Runners Whip Raiders

Oregon Tech opened its 1958 cross country season Thursday afternoon on the campus as the Owl runners defeated Southern Oregon College 26-29. It was the second meet of the year for SOC.
 Placing first in the two-way meet was Roger Moreland. The Owl runner raced the two and one fourth distance in 11:03. Second went to Charles Black of Southern Oregon.
 Joby Hiron (SOC), George Pappert (OTD) and John Pappert (SOC) were the other finishers in the top five places. Gene Garner, Norm Sawyer and Gerrence Crenshaw all of OTD finished sixth, seventh and eighth to assure the Owls of the win. Charles Wingle and Dave Yandell of Southern Oregon were ninth and 10 in the final scoring.

Miss Zalagaitė achieved a throw of 187 feet, beating the recognized world record held by Australia's Ann Pazeria by three inches.

Pel Spirit OK Despite Woes

 efforts in practice this week were linebackers Cliff Paugh and Gary Burt, each of whom have turned in good performances in previous battles.
 Fullback Ron House, the stubby 175 pounder, has shown a marked improvement this week in his ball-carrying assignments, as he chewed chunks out of the defense thrown up by his Pel teammates.
 While the offensive plan is more or less secret, it can be assumed that Knudsen is working on a way to make the best use of his light backs, House, Blake Griggs, Don Story and Ron Olivera, who own a 20-pound deficit as compared with their Comet counterparts.
 A disheartening note emerges from the fact that ends Wayne Dennis and Larry Bunyard, and defensive workhorse Les Husted have all been placed on the doubtful starter list because of bruised knees incurred in practice.

The Pels closed their preparations for the Comet clash with short, light workouts Thursday evening.

Giants, Dodgers Have Big Year At Gate, So Does NL

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) — The shift of the Giants and Dodgers to the West Coast was chiefly responsible for boosting National League attendance a healthy 15.2 per cent during the 1958 season, official league figures showed today.
 The 1958 attendance total of 10,164,396 paid admissions was the second highest in the league's 83-year history, topped only by the record 10,388,470 of the 1947 season, according to Dave Grote of the National League Service Bureau.
 Considering the fact that 1947 was a post-war "boom" year, the past season's total turnout was an all-time high for a "normal" operating season, Grote pointed out. This was the only other season (aside from 1947) that attendance besides the San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers, only two other clubs enjoyed a boost in attendance during 1958. These were the Pittsburgh Pirates, surprise second-place finishers, and the Chicago Cubs, who were in the first division during the first half of the season.

Overall, the 1958 attendance total was 1,344,995 more than the 8,819,601 of the previous season. The Dodgers accounted for 817,298 of this boost and the Giants drew 618,702 more fans than they did during the 1957 season at the Polo Grounds.

Pittsburgh attracted 461,256 more than 1957 and the Cubs had an increase of 309,275 fans.
 The pennant-winning Milwaukee Braves retained their overall attendance championship with a total of 1,971,101, but that figure was off 244,303 from 1957. This was the first season since the Braves shifted to Milwaukee from Boston that attendance fell below the two million mark.
 Biggest drop at the gate was suffered by the Cincinnati Redlegs. Their turnout slumped 282,268 from the 1,070,850 of the previous season. In all, five clubs went over the million-mark in attendance. The St. Louis Cardinals, with 1,063,730, also did it, along with Milwaukee, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Pittsburgh.

The Dodgers set two league attendance records at the Coliseum. They drew the largest National League crowd ever when 78,872 paid their way to the season-opener against the Giants, April 18, and also the biggest night game turnout when 68,485 attended the July 2 two-inning double-header against the Cardinals.
 The comparative figures:

|               | 1958       | 1957      |
|---------------|------------|-----------|
| Chicago       | 979,904    | 670,629   |
| Cincinnati    | 788,582    | 1,070,850 |
| Los Angeles   | 1,845,556  | 1,070,258 |
| Milwaukee     | 1,971,101  | 2,215,404 |
| Philadelphia  | 931,110    | 1,146,230 |
| Pittsburgh    | 1,311,988  | 850,732   |
| St. Louis     | 1,063,730  | 1,183,575 |
| San Francisco | 10,164,396 | 8,819,601 |
| San Francisco | 1,272,625  | 653,923   |
| Totals        | 10,164,396 | 8,819,601 |
