PLAYERS CLUB

Black cats and pumpkins gaily decorated the table at the Player's Club meeting October 15, when 10 tables of cards were in play.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. June Wallwork, Mrs. Joyce Baldwin, and Mrs. Bess Frasier.

Following dessert and a short business meeting, cards were played. Prizes were won by Ethel Dibble and Sue Leedy in bridge. Julia Williams and Mrs. H. Kranenburg in pinochle. Special prize was won by Ruth Stanley.

Guests introduced were Anne Munson, Mrs. J. I. Beard, Vivian Sanders, Elaine Lloyd, Eleanor Ambers, Bess Hunt, and Ruth Kunzman. Mrs. N. S. Hepburn announced that the Women of the Moose will serve the dinner for the Player's Club Wednesday evening, November 5, at the Moose Hall, 1010 Pine Street. All members of the club are urged to attend, and to bring guests. Reservations may be made by calling TU 4-3331 or TU 2-4185 or TU 2-2666.

Yreka Amaranth

YREKA—Highlight of the recent meeting of Siskiyou Court No. 100, Order of the Amaranth, was the official visit of the Grand Royal Matron Marjorie A. Coburn of Rockbridge Court, Oakland.

A turkey dinner was served in the dining room of the Masonic temple preceding the meeting.

Official guests present were: Wilson O. Wade, grand royal patron, and Mrs. Wade of Redondo Beach; Nina Cheney, grand associate matron of Maywood; Ella Chase, grand conductress of Fresno; Marvel Cannon, grand marshal of Centinela Valley, Los Angeles; Julie Canfield, grand representative from Oregon to New York, and Jack Kennedy, deputy supreme royal patron, both of Medford; May McCormick, deputy supreme royal matron and organizer of the Yreka court from Los Angeles, and Carl Gilbert, assistant grand lecturer, from Susanville.

Other distant visitors included Margaret and Bessie McTaggart of Hollywood, May and W. R. Meager, San Rafael, Malcolm and Irene Stillwell of San Mateo, and Ozzie and Gertrude Steinbrenner of Sacramento.

TRADES WAGES UP WASHINGTON (UPI) — Average wages of union building trades workers rose one and one-half cents to $3.35 an hour in the third quarter of the year, the Labor Department has said.

The wage level Oct. 1 was 4.6 per cent higher than the previous October, the department said, and 63 per cent above the 1947-49 average.

THE CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA, Court No. 1295, observed the 20-year anniversary of its organization in Klamath Falls with a meeting and initiation October 27 in the parish hall. Seventy five guests attended the dinner preceding the initiation, which was witnessed by over 175 people. In the above picture, left to right,

MOSCOW APPROVES

LONDON (UPI) — Radio Moscow apparently liked the recent peace appeal made by Pope John XXIII. A broadcast beamed to Italy said "the new pontificate is the hope of the world." Soviet commentator Pavel Ivanov spoke of the dangers of a nuclear war and said: "These are the problems of our time which demand prompt solution. It is cause for hope to have heard them echoed in the words of the new pontiff."

Merrymans To Sail On Caribbean Cruise

Dr. and Mrs. John D. Merryman are also former residents of this city. They will return home about December 1.

While in New York they will meet Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rothenberger, former Klamath Falls residents now living in Wilmington, Delaware. Mr. Rothenberger is director of the plant research department in the home office of Hercules Powder Company.

On November 11 the Merrymans will sail aboard the MS Stockholm from Wilmington, North Carolina, on a medical seminar cruise under the direction of Ohio State University College of Medicine. Among the interesting places they will visit will be Havana, San Juan, Puerto Rico, Caracas, Panama, St. Thomas and Curacao.

On their return trip they will stop in Washington, D.C. and New Orleans.

In Baton Rouge they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Joseph who

ROCKY MOTORING

DENVER (AP) — There is a possibility that American motorists soon may run their cars on gasoline obtained from rock. The Denver Research Institute at the University of Denver says a process has been developed which can produce oil from the vast oil shale deposits in the Rocky Mountains at a price competitive with petroleum.

Crater Auxiliary

Lady Neta Stoutenburg of Carlton, president of the Association of Ladies Auxiliaries, Patriarch Militant of the Department of Oregon paid an official visit to the ladies auxiliary of Canton Crater No. 7 of Klamath Falls on Thursday evening, October 23, in the 100F hall.

Accompanying the president were Charlotte Easton of Redmond, a past president and the reviewing officer of Crater No. 7 for the evening; Lela Holmes of North Bend, the vice president of the association; Harriett Estes of Klamath Falls, officer of the day; Rebecca Newell of Myrtle Point, the standard bearer and Mae Anderson of Klamath Falls, a past president and right aide to the junior past president of the association. Also introduced was Frances Munsell of Klamath Falls, the grand outside guardian of the Ladies Grand Encampment Auxiliary.

A fraternal greeting and welcome was extended by the auxiliary president, Vera Fritsch.

During the evening the mustering ceremony was conferred on Irene Rickman.

The association president, Neta Stoutenburg, spoke on the history of the auxiliary.

The first nomination of officers for the new year were Helen McCormack, president; Zelma Howard, vice president; Harriett Estes, secretary and Mae Anderson, treasurer. Nominations will remain open for next meeting when they will be closed and officers elected.

The meeting was preceded by a turkey dinner cooked by Helen McCormack and Isabelle Foster.

Refreshments were served after the meeting at tables beautifully decorated with fall flowers by Helen Blanas and Kathleen Hepburn.

The next meeting will be Thursday, November 13.
