

40-8 Given Permission To Cannonade Klamath

Residents of Klamath Falls who have moved into the city this year were reminded Monday night at the regular session of the city council that there will be cannon firing on the morning of November 11, Veterans Day. For the uninitiated, this event sometimes comes as a shock.

YOUTH ADMITS KILLING CHUM

JOLIET, Ill. (AP) - A 13-year-old boy has admitted, police said, the fatal shooting of his 12-year-old school playmate last Friday because he heckled him.

Investigators present at a lie detector test Monday night said the boy related that after shooting David Benson once in the body he took 56 from him and as the victim pleaded for his life, shot him in the head and watched as the body rolled into a ravine.

Sheriff Roy Doerfler said the boy, Raleigh Robinette, admitted after three hours of questioning that he killed the Benson boy. Doerfler quoted the boy as saying he was mad because Benson was heckling him.

The body of Benson, a Boy Scout and only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benson, was found Saturday morning in a ravine near Joliet.

Robinette was questioned after it was learned the Benson boy had gone to the Robinette home with Raleigh after leaving school where they were seventh grade classmates. A neighbor girl told deputies she saw David and Raleigh enter the woods Friday afternoon.

DEADLOCKED

GENEVA (AP) - Still deadlocked over an agenda, American, British and Soviet delegates met today for the third session on ways of policing a ban on nuclear weapons tests. Before going into the meeting behind guarded doors the American and British delegations met privately this morning.

State Senate Of Oregon Under Democratic Control

PORTLAND (AP) - Democrats will control the Oregon State Senate next January for the first time in 80 years.

But control of the House was in doubt today.

With 12 holdover Senate members, the Democrats had elected seven others today. That would give them 19 members in the 30-member upper House.

In 1957, party control was split 15-15.

Sen. Leander Quiring (R-Hermiston) was the only incumbent senator to be defeated. The winner was Loyd M. Key, Milton-Freewater farmer and businessman.

In Multnomah County, Rep. W. A. Grenfell and Mrs. Alice Corbett were elected to the Senate, taking away one Republican seat.

The Republicans lost another Senate seat in Clackamas County when Sen. Monroe Sweetland was reelected, and Rep. Richard E. Groener was elected. Both are Milwaukie Democrats.

The third seat taken from the Republicans was in Lane County, where Robert Straub, Springfield lumberman and county commissioner, was elected on the Democratic ticket. Sen. Donald R. Hubbard, Eugene Republican, was reelected.

Newcomers elected to the Senate include Rep. Eddie Ahrens, Turner Republican; Mayor Robert F. White, Salem Republican; Melvin Goode, Albany Republican; and Dr. Edwin R. Burns, Medford Republican.

Sen. Walter Leth, Salem Republican, was reelected easily.

The new Senate will have two women members. Sen. Jean Lewis is a holdover, and Mrs. Corbett was elected. Both are Portland Democrats.

Surprisingly, the Republicans gained two House seats in Portland. This fact made it appear that the new House would be split almost evenly. Democrats controlled the 1957 House, 36 to 24.

The Multnomah House delegation will be split 8 to 8, compared with a Democratic edge of 10 to 6 two years ago.

House members going down to defeat include Reps. Jess W. Savage (R-Albany); Joseph S. Crepeau (D-Cottage Grove) and Ole W. Grubb (D-Bend).

Rep. Edwin E. Cone (R-Eugene) was defeated in his try for the Senate.

Several former Republican members of the House defeated in the Democratic sweep two years ago, were successful in their comeback attempts.

Among these old timers who were elected are former Reps. Earl H. Hill, Cushman, veteran of 11 sessions; Pat Lonergan and Gust Anderson, both of Portland, 6 sessions each; and W. W. Chadwick, Salem, 5 sessions.

Tom Monaghan, Milwaukie Democrat, who had to give up his seat before the 1957 special session because he's a school teacher, was elected to the House again.

He won't have to resign again, because the people voted to permit school teachers to serve in the Legislature. This measure was inspired by Monaghan.

Another Republican seat went over to the Democrats in Kern County where Walter W. Stern, Bakersfield veterinarian was acclaimed the winner in a race against a dead man, Sen. Jess Dorsey (R-Bakersfield), a veteran legislator, died last September, too late to have his name removed from the ballot.

In Sacramento County where a special election was held to fill the two-year unexpired term of the late Sen. Earl Desmond (D-Sacramento), the winner was Democrat Albert S. Rodda, professor of economics and history.

Still another Republican seat which fell to the Democrats was in Alameda County where Sen. Arthur H. Breed Jr., retired after 24 years in the Legislature.

The Democratic candidate for Breed's seat, John W. Holmdahl, Oakland city councilman, defeated Republican Kent D. Pursell, Alameda County supervisor.

Sen. F. Presley Ashburn (R-Geyserville) was another casualty of the Democratic trend. Complete returns showed Ashburn lost by the slim margin of 1,450 votes to Joseph A. Rattigan, Santa Rosa attorney.

There are 4,128 voters registered in the county with Democrats totaling 2,449 and Republicans, 1,578. Non-partisan registrants total 98, independent progressive, 4, and Socialist, 1.

Their natural and proper resentment may have affected the result of the Oregon gubernatorial election.

One more question: What can the Republican party do to rehabilitate its fortunes?

It might take a tip from Arizona. In Arizona, Senator Goldwater has been a conservative. He has known where he is going. In his campaign for re-election to the senate, he STAYED a conservative Republican. He left no doubt of where he stands. He dramatized himself for what he is.

As a conservative Republican, making no bones about it, offering no apologies for his beliefs, standing pat on his convictions, hewing to the line and letting the chips fall where they may, he was decisively re-elected to the U.S. senate in a state that has been overwhelmingly Democratic since its admission to the Union.

California Goes

This appeared to be a reference to the fact that Knowland went through the hectic campaign without the endorsement of his running mate, Knight, or most of the other GOP candidates for statewide office.

Knight originally announced he was running for another term as governor but withdrew when Knowland entered the race. The two men were at odds throughout the campaign and were in opposite corners on right-to-work-a measure which was the keystone of Knowland's campaign for "union democracy" and a "workers' bill of rights."

Brown conceded that his campaign with Knowland, one which dragged on for a full year, was the toughest one during a 15-year career as a district attorney and state attorney general.

"He is a strong and able man," Brown said. "He fought a hard campaign, certainly the most vigorous that has ever confronted me."

Two other controversial measures went down to defeat in an election which attracted the greatest turnout for a non-presidential year in the state's history. A measure to repeal the property tax exemption for parochial and private schools was soundly beaten as was a labor-backed proposition to cut the sales tax but boost high-bracket income taxes.

Congressman Patrick J. Hillings (R), close personal friend and political ally of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, lost his bid to become the state's attorney general when he was defeated by Superior Judge Stanley Mosk of Los Angeles.

A former well known pioneer resident, Mrs. Gladys Terhune, died November 4 in Los Angeles. She was the daughter of W. T. and Mary S. Nelson, born in Yakima, Washington. During her young womanhood, spent in and near Klamath Falls, she was considered an outstanding horsewoman.

Survivors include the widower, Raymond Terhune, Los Angeles; sisters, Mrs. Lola Kirkpatrick, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Ora Dahl, Los Angeles; also two nephews and a niece, Mrs. Virginia Tillotson, Chicago, Don Kirkpatrick, this city, and Floyd Sparks of Hayward, California.

Final rites and interment will be in the family plot in the Roosevelt Memorial Cemetery, Los Angeles.

YREKA ELECTION

YREKA—Returns from the local election in Yreka were slow coming in and the 10 precincts reporting show George Tyler receiving 1,159 votes to incumbent Judge Harry Hammond's 964 for judge of the Yreka Justice Court. There were no reports on the Siskiyou County supervisor's race at this time.

INCUMBENT RETURNED

MERRILL—Merrill voters turned out in force Tuesday to return Louis Stewart, incumbent to the office of mayor with 147 votes. He was unopposed in the city election that coincided with the general election.

Also without contest, Oti Thompson, incumbent, was returned as city recorder. A new municipal judge, Forrest Winter, was named and Orville Elfert was elected to serve the unexpired two-year term of councilman, succeeding Paul Lewis, resigned.

Four year council seats went to Lawrence Geraghty, and Robert Woods running in a four-way round with Melvin Rodgers and Donald Ratliff.

The city's tax base measure won with a 73 Yes to a 39 No vote.

Judge Hears Guilty Pleas From Three

Three persons indicted by the Klamath County Grand Jury last week pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg Wednesday.

Two others were instructed to get attorneys and reappear for arraignment Wednesday afternoon, and a sixth case revealed the grand jury's second secret indictment.

Those who pleaded guilty are to be sentenced at 10 a.m. Friday. They were:

Roy Raymond Compton, 18, Eugene, indicted for burglary in a dwelling at Crescent last September 22.

Bill Edward Carson, 28, indicted for burglary not in a dwelling growing out of a theft of cigarettes, gum and pennies from a Klamath Falls gas station October 25.

Lee Arnold Craig, 52, Merrill, indicted for forgery involving a $52 check to which he signed the name of his employer, John Giacomini October 25.

Two persons who were instructed to obtain attorneys and come before the judge again in the afternoon. They were Wesley Cole, 20, Chillicothe, jointly indicted with Virgil M. Wilson Jr. for larceny of batteries, cables and other equipment from a construction firm last July, and Earl A. Brown, 37, Klamath Falls, indicted for obtaining money by false pretenses through cashing a $10 check without a bank account.

Eddie Lee Dailey, 35, Klamath Falls, indicted for buying and possessing stolen property, asked for additional time to enter a plea and was instructed to appear November 10.

Dailey was named in one of two secret indictments returned by the grand jury.

Fire Razes New Building

ZAVENTEM, Belgium (AP) - The main building of Brussels' new International Airport was wrecked Tuesday night by a fire due, at least indirectly, to premature opening of the airport.

A helicopter rescued two persons trapped in the control tower. Officials said the fire was started by explosion of a small oil stove installed on the ground floor to supplement a still erratic heating system.

The airport was opened to traffic before completion to handle the crowds attending the World's Fair last summer.

Traffic resumed with operations centered in a building on the other side of the field.

Club's Pin-Up Picked By Irish

DEBRY, England (AP) - Irishman James McCormack today became the pin-up boy of Derby's 415 pubs, clubs, hotels and liquor stores.

Police sent each a photograph of the 51-year-old laborer with the order: "Don't serve him."

McCormack appeared in court Tuesday charged with being drunk. It was the second time in 24 hours, the 13th time this year and the 40th time in his 35-year drinking career.

He was fined 2 pounds ($3.60) and banned from buying liquor for three years.

Democrats Smash

nd the election winds that uprooted Republicans in all sections of the country blew a crazy-quiet pattern that left room for spectacular GOP victories in such places as New York and Arizona.

In New York, Nelson Rockefeller, the GOP's freshest face in a decade, won a smashing victory over Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman. The velocity of the Rockefeller victory carried along GOP Rep. Kenneth B. Keating to a Senate seat.

In Arizona, Barry Goldwater, the voice of Republican conservatism, rode roughshod over his Democratic opponents in his bid for reelection to the Senate.

In Ohio, another Republican conservative lost out to Sen. John W. Bricker, who was defeated by Democrat Stephen M. Young.

Republicans already had lost Senate seats in Connecticut, Indiana, Maine (in September), Michigan, Nevada, New Jersey, Ohio, Utah and two in West Virginia.

There were topsy-turvy results all over the nation.

Sectionally, the Republicans showed more strength in the East than in any other area. With New York leading the way, the GOP preserved Senate seats in Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Vermont. They lost seats in Connecticut, New Jersey and two in West Virginia.

Republicans overturned Democratic governors in New York and Rhode Island. They lost the governor's office in Maryland.

The Democratic tide rose highest in the Midwest farm belt. In that area only Nebraska and North Dakota remained as islands of Republicanism.

Farther west, Republicans held out in Arizona, Idaho, Oregon and Wyoming against a Democratic slide that tumbled to the Pacific Coast.

The expected happened in California. There, Sen. William F. Knowland slid down to disastrous defeat and the probable end of a 25-year political career.

Knowland, who retired as the Senate's Republican leader and showed Gov. Goodwin J. Knight out of the race for reelection, lost the governorship to Democratic Atty. Gen. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, Knight, who fought with Knowland to the last, was trailing Democratic Rep. Clair Engle in the senatorial race.

The results gave no solace to Vice President Nixon. His expected bid for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination now would have to be pitched from a Democratic stage against a new Yankee slinger, Rockefeller. And Rockefeller would have a deep political bench
