

Voices Implore Handyman To Kill Young Divorcee

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A young mother is dead—her throat slit open in an apparently senseless killing. All authorities can say is that a 23-year-old handyman told them he heard voices compelling him to make a human sacrifice.

Sheriff's Sgt. Bob Griffin said Jack Rainsberger told the story after the body of Erlene Folker, 23, was found in the desert Wednesday.

Griffin said Rainsberger told him the voices compelled him to come to Las Vegas last week from Los Angeles to make the sacrifice.

Last Monday, Griffin said, Rainsberger roamed the streets here looking for a victim, and spotted Mrs. Folker working in a stationery store.

"I decided that she would be my victim," Rainsberger was quoted as saying.

When she got off work Griffin said, Rainsberger followed her to her car, forced her at knife point to drive to the desert.

"Then," he told officers, "I sacrificed her. It was all part of a regular ritual but I can't tell you how I go through it."

For some unexplained reason, Griffin said, Rainsberger came to the police station the night of the slaying and made a phony robbery report. Rainsberger could not explain why he came to the station, the officer said.

After the body was found, Rainsberger told his story, Griffin said. He was booked on suspicion of murder.

Young Hussein Of Jordan Planning Vacation Abroad

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Young King Hussein, who has weathered the summer's threat of a pro-Nasser revolt, plans to start a vacation abroad next week.

Officials said he will fly to Switzerland Monday or Tuesday for a rest and medical checkup, leaving the kingdom's affairs temporarily in the hands of his ministers.

Premier Samir Rifai has expressed confidence in the ability of the government to maintain order.

The officials denied rumors that Hussein did not intend to return. They said he would be back in less than a month.

The 23-year-old monarch will have a reunion in Switzerland with his mother Zeine, his 2-year-old daughter Alia and his brother Prince Mohammed, 16.

The king is winding up a series of visits to various sectors of this small, impoverished country and to units of the tough, 30,000-man army whose continued support is vital to his reign.

A Cairo newspaper, Al Akhbar, asserted yesterday Israel may attack Jordan when Hussein leaves. It said Arab armies had taken up positions to guard against that. Support was reported pledged by Iraq and Lebanon.

Official sources here said there were no signs of an Israeli mobilization on Jordan's western frontier, as charged in Cairo and Moscow radio broadcasts recently.

Prime minister David Ben-Gurion denied the charges in Israel's parliament Monday, calling them "conscienceless and irresponsible slanders."

Singer Denies Wed Intent

NEW YORK (AP)—Anna Maria Alberghetti, Italian actress and singer, says she is not marrying songwriter Buddy Bregman and that she is not quarreling with her mother about it.

The 22-year-old brown-eyed blonde announced on the West Coast Monday that she was marrying Bregman, 28, divorced from actress Gloria Haley. Miss Alberghetti has never been married.

Her mother Mrs. Vittoria Alberghetti, commenting on the West Coast announcement, had said in Hollywood: "I am not happy. I don't like a divorced man for my daughter."

Here to open a night club act, Miss Alberghetti told newsmen "I never was engaged to Buddy. Yes, I'm very fond of him. Yes, even in love with him."

However, she added: "But I'm not getting married. I took this engagement to be away from Buddy. My mother and I are not quarreling. We are a very close family. We discussed the whole question of religion."

Miss Alberghetti is a Catholic and Bregman a Jew.

Firing Squad Shoots Airman

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—A former South Korean air force captain, Choi Jung Il, died before a firing squad today for trying to hijack a C-46 transport to Communist North Korea last April.

The 32-year-old captain killed a crewman and wounded the pilot before he was overpowered by the crew in a struggle aboard the air force transport en route from Taegu to Seoul April 10.

Accent Placed On Youth In Rejuvenation Of GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon is taking charge of efforts to rejuvenate the disorganized Republican party. He is likely to put the accent on youth in doing so.

Although Nixon won't bear any such official designation as party commander, President Eisenhower obviously is stepping out of the way to let his second man direct the drive. Its aim is to lift the party back into contention in the 1960 presidential contest, after its shattering defeat in Tuesday's election.

At his news conference Wednesday, Eisenhower endorsed Nixon's call on party members to start now to campaign for 1960. The action apparently gave a hardly needed go-ahead to the vice president to take over the GOP political throttle. As a top GOP presidential prospect, Nixon has a personal interest there.

Returns from the balloting showed the Republicans lost 13 Senate seats while gaining none, and were ousted from 48 House seats while overturning only one Democrat. One Illinois post was still undecided. The GOP suffered a net loss of five state governorships, counting a still tentative upset in normally Republican Nebraska.

The Democrats increased their margin of Senate control from 49-47 to 62-34 and that in the House from 235-200 to 283-151. One side or the other will gain still another seat after an official canvass starting today determines whether Rep. Charles W. Vursell (R-Ill) or Democrat George E. Shipley won a nip-and-tuck contest. Unofficial returns show Shipley leading.

The undecided Nebraska governor race hinges on a count of mail ballots, which could upset the lead Democrat Ralph G. Brooks now holds over Republican Gov. Victor E. Anderson. A Brooks victory would give the Democrats 34 state governorships to 14 for Republicans.

Looking toward 1960, Nixon is expected to bear down in attempts to get attractive, youthful aspirants into races for congressional and state offices as a means of helping the national ticket. He was privately less than enthusiastic about the caliber of some of the candidates for whom he campaigned this year.

Nixon knows well that the GOP candidate who won the most spectacular of the few GOP victories had youth and a pleasing personality going for him. That was Nelson A. Rockefeller, who won the governorship of New York and thus moved into ranking as Nixon's top potential opponent for the 1960 presidential nomination.

Nixon also may bring some influence to bear toward reshaping of some of the administration's policies which seem to have helped bowl over Republican candidates. Staggering Republican losses in the Midwestern farm belt could contribute to some change in farm policies, despite Eisenhower's prediction that Secretary of Agriculture Benson's program of tapering off government aid to farmers will go along unchanged.

Nixon is well aware of labor's share in the defeat of GOP candidates like Sen. William F. Knowland, who lost his try for the governorship in California, and Sen. John W. Bricker, who lost his bid for reelection in Ohio.

If Nixon has his way, the administration will try to woo back part of the labor vote the Democrats seemed to have corralled almost exclusively in Tuesday's balloting.

As presiding officer of the Senate, Nixon plans to give the Republicans an early sendoff in the civil rights field. He is expected to rule, as he did informally two years ago, that the Senate's filibuster rule can be changed by a majority vote at the start of the session. Beyond that he may take an active part in attempts to compromise the fight expected to ensue, with the idea of getting a rule more effective in ending debate.

Asia Airlines Woes Mulled

SEATTLE (AP)—Jet air travel across the Pacific by the spring of 1960 may bring the end to a number of Asian national airlines which cannot afford the luxurious aircraft — nor meet its competition.

This was the opinion today of a number of Colombo Plan officials from Ceylon and Indonesia who took time off from committee meetings to wind up at the nearby Boeing Airplane Co.'s vast Renton, Wash., assembly plant for jet transports.

It is here that several hundred million dollars worth of 707 jet transports are on assembly line production schedules.

A Ceylon delegate said: "Already we are discussing the coming of jet planes to Asia. I think it will lead some of our national carriers to abandon international flights."

"The underdeveloped countries cannot afford to buy the jet airliners but we can afford to build first-class airports to accommodate them."

This official whose opinion was shared by others, said that as the big jets become a fixture on the Pacific run, passengers will shun travel on the slower, conventional propeller aircraft of the smaller national airlines.

Labor Happy With Outcome

PORTLAND (AP)—James T. Marr, executive secretary of the Oregon AFL-CIO, said Wednesday most labor leaders were pleased with the elections nationally, especially the defeat of right-to-work measures in neighboring Washington, California and Idaho.

Marr said that if the measure had won in any of the three states "we would have had it on the Oregon ballot in 1960."

Marr said there was disappointment at the victory of Republican Secretary of State Mark Hatfield over Gov. Robert Holmes, a Democrat. But, he said, the Waterhouse poll, purchased by labor, showed the 11th hour attack on Hatfield by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) did not affect the outcome.

M. E. (Mike) Steel, Oregon Council of Teamsters president, said his group did not contribute to any campaign this year and did not endorse any candidates.

"We probably won't sit out the next election," he said.
