

Jaycees, Merchants Group Planning Christmas Parade

The Klamath Junior Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Klamath Falls Merchant Association, is organizing a Christmas parade to be held December 6 in conjunction with the opening of the Christmas shopping season.

Theme of the parade will be "The Spirit of Christmas," and entries are solicited from individuals, groups and businesses throughout the Klamath Basin. The parade will form at Second Street and Klamath Avenue, and move off at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Awards for entries adhering to the theme include a $150 grand prize for the best all-around entry, a first prize of $100 for the best float, a second prize of $75 for a float or group, and a third prize of $25, also to be awarded to a float or group. In the judging, the theme will count 50 per cent, originality 20 per cent, and artistic composition, workmanship and public response, 10 per cent each.

Anyone interested in entering a float, a musical or marching group, or another type of entry, should fill in the entry blank below and mail to the Klamath Jaycees' Parade Chairman, P.O. Box 407, not later than December 3.

H. M. S. RICHARDS

Participation In Drive Told

The Seventh Day Adventist Church of Klamath Falls participated in the world-wide offering of all Adventist churches on October 2 which is used to sponsor the Voice of Prophecy, an international radio program and free Bible correspondence course, conducted by H. M. S. Richards. The total offering amounted to $150,000, according to Elder Kegley of the local church.

The program is heard on more than 500 stations in America and over 200 stations overseas. It is the second largest religious broadcast and is heard over KFLW on Sunday mornings at 10 o'clock.

Saturday, November 8, the missionary program will be given over to Mrs. Don Inman, Chiloquin, and Mrs. Alice Bridges, Klamath Falls, who will tell their experiences in studying the Voice of Prophecy lessons.

C Of C Chief Gives Talk

"Industrial Growth and Development of Klamath County" was the subject of a talk given by R. Frank Tucker, to the Inter-Agency Council at the regular monthly meeting, November 5, at the YMCA. Tucker, manager of the chamber of commerce, brought out the relationships of past and future population, growth of the school, housing, road, hospital, and industrial facilities of the area.

President Jerry Thorne presided at the business session of the meeting and told of plans for the Christmas Clearing Bureau.

New members and guests introduced were G. S. Vergeer, city manager, Beverly Eels and Millie Phillipi from the Klamath County Health Department.

Representatives of public agencies are invited to attend the Inter-Agency Council luncheon meetings which are held at the YMCA the first Wednesday of each month. Reservations may be made by calling Secretary Lillian Hoffman, at TU 4-8151.

ADDING ROOMS?

HOW WILL IT AFFECT YOUR HEAT?

Very few central heating systems can take care of home additions without impairing efficiency. The sensible approach is to install Cavalier Electric Baseboard! Each room entirely independent with individual temperature control. Wonderful for split levels. Clean. Compact... takes no floor or wall space.

Easy to install. No ducts or venting... no cutting into walls. Completely automatic. Puts heat where it's needed most... at floor level, along weatherside walls. Improved air-flow design rolls heat out into room; arrangement of furniture cannot interfere. Maintains constant comfort at every level. Special 115V electrical outlet sections build into lineup, so does thermostat... all giving an effective streamline design.

Ideal for complete home heating or for any number of rooms... new or existing construction. Call today for details.
