Plaque Presentation To Den Leaders Highlights Recent Cub Scout Meeting

The presentation of plaques to retiring den mothers highlighted a recent meeting of Cub Pack 4, held at Mills School. Honored on the occasion were Alice Galloway, for five years' work; Dorothy Otterbein, two years, and Helen Ronningen, one year. The awards were presented by Cubmaster Lester Tinker and Jerry Thorne, field executive, with Webelos Mickey Ronningen and Doran Otterbein, and Scouts Charles Galloway and Kenneth Galloway participating.

The meeting had opened with a flag salute led by Den Chief Lemuel Potts. Cubmaster Tinker led a cub discussion on American folklore characters, which was followed by a songfest for cubs and parents.

Proposal Takes Sting Out Of Revolt

WASHINGTON (AP) — A counter proposal by Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH) took some of the fire out of a growing revolt by the Senate's Republican liberals today.

With the liberals demanding a greater voice in Republican affairs, Bridges proposed to expand the GOP leadership jobs to three and include a liberal in one of the posts.

The New Hampshire senator said in a telephone interview he will support his proposal with President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon next month.

Bridges, who heads the GOP Policy Committee, announced also he will support a move to give Republican newcomers—as well as holdover liberals—at least one important committee assignment each.

In the past, new GOP senators have been relegated to membership on minor committees, with assignments made on a basis of strict seniority. Under the leadership of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Democrats have modified the seniority custom to put each new member on at least one top flight committee.

If it is adopted, the Bridges proposal would give such new senators as Kenneth B. Keating of New York and Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania important posts at the beginning of their Senate careers.

It also would move up to more important committee jobs members like Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York and Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky, who were elected two years ago.

The possibility of harvesting choice committee assignments seemed likely to ease some of the liberals' other complaints against the solidly conservative GOP Senate leadership.

Apparently lacking the votes to keep Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois from succeeding Sen. William F. Knowland as GOP leader, the liberals had been working quietly to pick off second place in the lineup. Their goal was to place one of their number in the group that confers weekly with Eisenhower on legislative matters.

Sen. Frank Carlson of Kansas, one of the liberal group, said he thinks this is needed "to get broader programs that will appeal to a wider range of people."

In proposing an expansion of the leadership, Bridges said he will suggest that an assistant leader be placed ahead of the party whip.

Yuletide Club Mails Checks

McCLOUD—An active Christmas shopping season in McCloud was indicated today as Bank of America branch manager, W. L. Wheeler, announced that 153 Christmas Club checks totaling $25,509.23 are being mailed to local residents.

This will be part of a statewide distribution of a record $65,500,000 in Christmas Club checks to 517,000 Californians, Wheeler reported. Distribution of the checks is made in November to enable members to begin their holiday shopping early. These funds are also used as a source of ready cash for winter vacations, tax payments and end of the year expenses, the local banker said.
