

Claassen Looks For LSU Win; Picks Washington Over Bears

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP) — Armistice Day? The firing at this veteran football forecaster apparently will never cease just because Pittsburgh last Saturday spoiled his blueplate specialty by winning in the final 12 seconds.

It was one of 12 incorrect picks among the 49 decisions.

Naming the coming weekend's winners while digging the foxhole a full foot deeper:

LSU over Mississippi State: How you gonna beat a team that has a cannon for its major weapon? That's Billy Cannon, of course.

Iowa over Ohio State: The Buckeyes are enraged, the Hawkeyes are engaged—to play in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1. The Iowans to stop celebrating just long enough to win in a squeaker.

Army over Villanova: Even if the Cadet varsity is back in good health the subs will get a good workout here.

Auburn over Georgia: The Plainsmen finally have an offense to go with their vaunted defense.

Wisconsin over Illinois: The Badgers walloped Purdue 31-6 and Purdue in turn walloped Illinois 31-8.

Oklahoma over Missouri: The Sooners make certain of another trip to Miami's Orange Bowl. Too many sophomores in the Missouri backfield.

Mississippi over Tennessee: The Volunteers have no answer for Bobby Franklin's passing.

Northwestern over Purdue: Burton, Thornton & Co., put on a show for the home folks.

Texas Christian over Texas: The Frogs have given up only 40 points in seven games and have sent only to Iowa en route to Cotton Bowl consideration.

Air Force over Wyoming: That Falcon luck carries on.

Notre Dame over North Carolina: The Tarheel's six-game winning streak is broken by George Izo's passes.

Syracuse over Colgate: The Orange will pile up a score in hopes of rating a bowl bid.

Pittsburgh over Nebraska: Those Cornhuskers get shocked again.

Washington over California: The Bears' Rose Bowl ambitions suffer a slight derailment.

Once over lightly:

FRIDAY
Maryland over Miami (N)
SATURDAY
East: Boston College over Boston University, Cornell over Dartmouth, Delaware over Bucknell, Amherst over Williams, Harvard over Brown, Penn State over Holy Cross, Penn over Columbia, Princeton over Yale, Rutgers over Quantic.

SOUTH: Virginia Military over The Citadel, Davidson over Richmond, Florida over Arkansas State, Navy over George Washington, Georgia Tech over Alabama, Kentucky over Xavier, Mississippi Southern over Virginia Tech, Clemson over North Carolina State, South Carolina over Virginia, Tulane over Vanderbilt, Duke over Wake Forest, West Virginia over William & Mary.

MIDWEST: Wichita over Drake, Iowa State over Kansas State, Cincinnati over Marquette, Michigan over Indiana, Michigan State over Minnesota, Oklahoma State over Kansas, Tulsa over Texas Tech.

SOUTHWEST: Southern Methodist over Arkansas, Houston over North Texas State, Rice over Texas A & M, Texas Western over Arizona.

FAR WEST: Brigham Young over Denver, Idaho over Utah State, Montana State over Montana, Washington State over College of Pacific, Oregon State over Stanford, Oregon over UCLA, Colorado over Utah.

Mud Worries Cal's Elliott; Ukes After First Home Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
As time runs out on the Pacific Coast Conference, activity around the deathbed increases. It's the football coaches, hoping to nurse out another victory or two before the end.

While Pete Elliott worried that a muddy field in Seattle Saturday might make his California Bears stumble off the Rose Bowl path, UCLA's Bill Barnes was trying to figure a way to cut through Oregon's defense so his team could win its first home game of the season in the Coliseum.

Elliott was frankly concerned about Washington despite the fact his team is top dog in the PCC at the moment with a 4-1 record while the Huskies have just the reverse, an unimpressive 1-4.

He re-emphasized Tuesday that he considers the Washington game Cal's toughest, especially since it's been raining in Seattle all week. The Bears have yet to play in the rain. Washington, Elliott noted, not only plays in the rain but practices in downpours.

Coach Jim Owens, meantime, shuffled the Husky backs around again and came up with a fresh combination to throw at the Bears. Bob Hivner will open at quarterback, with Dick Nicholl and Carver Gayton at halfback spots and Don McKeta at full.

Regular first string backs Luther Carr and Mike McCluskey were relegated to the third team.

"There's nothing wrong with the squad's attitude," Owens said. "If we can get the backfield to light up for us like the line then I think we'll have a good thing going these last two weeks of the season."

Sailor's Guide Wins DC International Run

By GEORGE BOWEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
LAUREL, Md. (AP) — Queen Mother Elizabeth of England once waited nervously to find out if Sailor's Guide had won a horse race. The whole world was wondering Tuesday who had triumphed in the $100,000 Washington, D.C., International.

Both times there was a foul. And both times Sailor's Guide was on the right side of protests.

Earlier this year, at Melbourne's Flemington track, a foul was claimed against the first place finisher of the Queen Elizabeth Stakes. The Queen Mother reportedly had a $40 bet on the Sailor.

She cashed it when the foul was disallowed.

In the International, the circumstances were reversed. Tudor Era had a 3 1/2-length margin over Sailor's Guide at the end of the mile and half grass race.

But the Sailor's jockey, Howard Grant, protested he had been bumped by Tudor Era, an English bred owned by Mrs. Herbert Herff of Memphis, Tenn.

There was a tense 20-minute delay while officials studied films of the first foul lodged in seven runnings of the International. They ruled in favor of Sailor's Guide.

The disqualification was the climatic turn in a series of twists in the race which holds a unique position in the turf sport.

The third place finish of Ballymoss was one of them. John McShain of Philadelphia had brought him over for one last race so fellow Americans could see the most highly prized horse out of Ireland in years.

Ballymoss had won his last four races in England and France and was valued at more than a million dollars. But he never was in contention in the International.

Jockey Arthur Bressley claimed he also suffered some interference and from unfamiliarity with Laurel's sharp turns.

Russia's first two thoroughbred runs, but not enough. In their first appearance outside the Iron Curtain, Zaryad was left behind after six false starts and never caught up with the other nine entries from seven countries. Garnier, the Moscow Derby winner, couldn't get closer than sixth.

Dr. Leon Levoyoff Philadelphia and two others contracted to buy Sailor's Guide after the International. A. C. Dobb and his son, Keith, gave him up for a reported $50,000.

It was part of $305,000 the Dibbs cleaned from a $1,750 investment. That was all they paid for Sailor's Guide six years ago in auction sales at Sydney. He brought them $184,923 while racing in Australia and the International first prize was $70,000.

Mrs. Herff had to settle for $15,000 second prize. Ballymoss picked up $10,000, and his Irish countrymate, Tharp, owned by Carlton Palmer of New York, won $5,000 for fourth.

Temporarily unconcerned is USC, which draws a bye Saturday. The Trojans begin practice Wednesday for their game Nov. 23 with crosstown rivals, UCLA.

Going into the final Oregon Tech football game of the 1958 season, fullback Earl Green continues to pace his teammates in rushing, while Otis Foster, the "Rambling Wreck from Oregon Tech" rides atop the team's individual scoring column—thanks to his great 33-point afternoon against Oregon College two weeks ago.

The Owls, winners six times out of seven tries, invade Whittier College territory Saturday night. In this season-ending fracas, Green hopes to surpass the 500-yard mark for a season's rushing total. The Sacramento dandy has rolled up 455 yards so far, and needs 45 more to hit the 500 mark.

Green's average up to the eighth and final contest on the Owls' schedule stands at 65 yards per game. If he continues to maintain the same pace, he'll surpass the 500 point sometime in the second half of the OTI-Whittier game.

While Green "runs" away with the rushing lead, Foster stands atop the team and Oregon College's Conference scoring battle with 58 points. Foster added one touchdown and an extra point to his record last Saturday in the Moffett game, bringing his total of touchdowns to nine and extra points to four.

Green is second in scoring with 50 points. Trailing Green in rushing is Al "Tiger" Everson, the Owls old reliable. Al has carried for 309 yards. The leading ball carrier on the basis of yards-per-carry is Foster with 201 yards in 37 tries, an average of 5.4.

Quarterback Charlie Gantner, the junior quarterback who has come into his own this fall, has completed 29 of 72 passes for 636 yards and six touchdowns. Leading the pass receivers is Ardell Hamilton with 11 receptions for 293 yards and three touchdowns.

Jimmy Brown Going For Record Sunday

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — There is an old saying in football that the last few yards are the toughest. Cleveland's Jimmy Brown is finding that out.

Ripping along toward a new seasonal National Football League ground gaining record through the first five games of the season, Brown is finding the going much rougher. Last Sunday as Cleveland suffered its second straight defeat, he was held to 83 yards by the Detroit Lions, a far cry from his 144 yard per game norm.

Things may get even rougher for the former Syracuse ace as he and the Cleveland club head into the home stretch of the NFL season. The Browns are tied with the New York Giants for first place. Opposing clubs certainly will be shorting their defenses for the hard running back.

With five games to go, Brown has gained 1,011 yards on 152 carries for a 6.7 yard average. He's within 135 yards of the 1949 record set by the Philadelphia Eagles' Steve Van Buren. Brown failed to score Sunday, but his 15 touchdowns still are in range of Van Buren's mark of 18 in one season.

Second in ground gaining is Brown's Cleveland teammate, Bob Mitchell who has 518 yards in 75 attempts for a 6.9 average. Jon Arnett, Los Angeles rookie, ranks third with 448 yards on 76 carries, followed by Joe Perry, San Francisco, 443 on 74 attempts.

Eddie Lebaron of Washington still rules the passing roost with a 9.93 average. The tiny Redskin has completed 52 of 94 passes for 933 yards for 9 TDs. The Chicago Cardinals' Lamar McHan, 10th last week, leaped into second place after his Sunday duel with Lebaron, with 43 for 89, 763 yards gained, 9 TDs and an average of 8.57 yards per pass. McHan's teammate, Mack Reynolds, ranks third, 57 for 103, 879 yards, 7 TDs and an 8.53 average.

Boston has won 7 and tied 3 in 15 starts for 17 points. Montreal also has 7 victories and has 2 ties in only 13 games for 16 points. Chicago remains third with 14 points.

What has made Boston's surge to the top all the more remarkable is that for most of the season the Bruins have been playing without high-scoring Bronco Horvath and star defenseman Doug Mohns. Both have broken jaws.

Johnny Bucyk and Don McKenney were Boston's top marksman. Bucyk caged three goals for the hat trick and McKenney scored twice. Jerry Toppazzini, the league's leading scorer with 10 goals, Earl Reibel and Guy Gendron also tallied for the Bruins.
