

Bodyguards Protect Elvis

BAD NAUHEIM, Germany (UPI)—Pvt. Elvis Presley, the only GI in Germany with personal bodyguards, roughed it in the exposed wilds of the Taunus Mountains today. His two burly "good friends" had to be content with cracking their knuckles in a luxury hotel here.

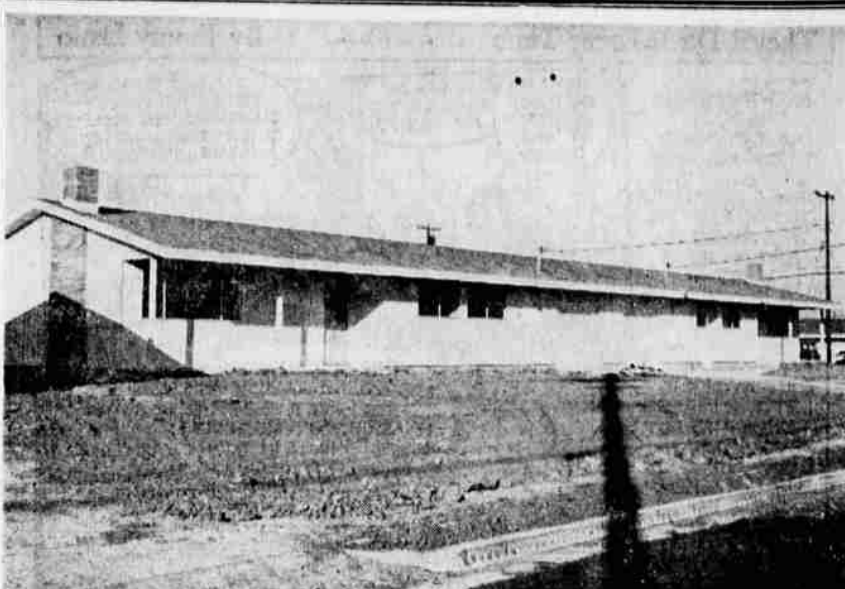

Army sources indicated that the rock-n-roll GI was doing fine, even without being guarded by his husky pals, as a reconnaissance jeep driver.

But the bodyguards from Memphis and the singer's father and grandmother, with whom they are staying here, may soon journey en masse to the 3rd Armored Division's maneuver area to check on how he's making out.

Presley's imported but shy protectors are Lamar Fike, 23, who stands 6 feet and weighs 230 pounds, and Bobby West, 22, also 6 feet but a mere 185 pounds. The singer's father called them "nice young fellas" and insisted they are "just good friends."

"They form a sort of fence around Elvis," he said.

The Army was non-committal about one of its enlisted men having two bodyguards. Spokesmen said that whatever Presley does on his own time is his own affair so long as it does not interfere with his Army duties.

Republican Chiefs See Win In 1960

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican state chairmen say unanimously their party will revive from the shattering impact of last week's election losses and make a strong comeback in 1960.

But their ideas vary widely on how to rebuild the GOP ranks decimated by severe setbacks in Senate and House contests.

An Associated Press canvass of 38 GOP state chairmen disclosed that some of them, mostly in the South, want their party to turn back to the conservative policies of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Others want to revitalize the Republican organization, and its candidates, to modernize the party's appeal to the average voter.

Still others are confident that the Democrats, with their oversized congressional margins, will trip over their own feet and more or less let the Republicans back in by default.

Vice President Nixon, who is expected to command efforts to re-furnish the party, was picked by 20 chairmen in varying degrees of firmness as the leading candidate now for the 1960 GOP presidential nomination. The chairmen will have a large voice in the selection of delegates to the national convention two years away.

The canvass showed Nixon with a strong backlog of strength in the South and Middle West.

However, 10 chairmen representing all sections of the country said they regard as almost a toss-up what they see as a prospective contest for the nomination between Nixon and Nelson Rockefeller, elected governor of New York last Tuesday. Two chairmen in the East viewed Rockefeller as a front runner. Several were undecided on any candidate.

Suggestions for modernizing the party's setup came from two chairmen in states where the Republicans were able to turn the Democratic tide and elect GOP governors.

Rhode Island Chairman William T. Broomhead said the Republicans have got to "strengthen everyday relations with people." In his state Christopher Del Sesto ousted Democratic Gov. Dennis J. Roberts as an aftermath of a 1956 ballot count controversy.

"I have found this to be true," Broomhead said, "that the Republican party talks about grass roots but on the whole doesn't even know what grass looks like."

James F. Short of Oregon said the Republicans "have some adjustments to make." In his state Republican Mark Hatfield won the governorship while shunning the party label and publicly opposing the Eisenhower administration on its power policies.

"Our principles are basic and sound and essential to the welfare of the nation," Short said. "I am sure our leaders realize that and will revitalize the party."

Maryland's Chairman Eldred Rhinehart also urged intensive work at the grass roots level.

There was a feeling among some chairmen that the Republicans need to turn back to more conservative policies. Some of them called for a strong fight against labor leaders, such as that which Sen. Barry Goldwater conducted in winning reelection in Arizona.

Arizona Chairman Richard Kleindienst predicted a strong Republican comeback "if the party will stand up for basic Republican principles and leave New Deal and Fair Dealism to the Democrats."

N. Bryant James, Louisiana chairman, suggested that the Republicans go back to what he called "the Taft school of thought." South Carolina's Greg Shorey said the GOP can win "if the conservatives roll up their sleeves and go to work."

Colorado's D. H. Shaw said Tuesday's results showed "big labor has taken over the Democratic party" and the Republicans ought to reorganize on that basis.

In Indiana, where the Republicans took one of their worst beatings, State Chairman Robert W. Matthews said the GOP can count on the Democrats making trouble for themselves.

All Regular 1959 Models To Be On Mart This Week

DETROIT (AP)—The auto industry will have all its regular 1959 line cars on the market this week. Studebaker-Packard presents its smaller Lark series on Friday.

Still to come is an addition to the Ford line—the Galaxie. It is scheduled for dealer introduction early next month.

Public reaction to the Lark series will get industrywide attention.

Studebaker-Packard's hopes of remaining in the automobile business will ride in the Lark, in a significant degree. The Lark, in several body styles and with six or eight cylinder engines, will disclose how great is the demand for smaller, more economical automobiles.

So far the growing demand for smaller, lower priced cars has been met by imported vehicles and American Motors. With its Rambler series American Motors has been the only car maker to build and sell more cars this year than it did in 1957.

This is the view taken by Harold E. Churchill, Studebaker-Packard president. Those who share his view say the demand for the smaller cars is broad enough for both American Motors and Studebaker-Packard. They are not equally certain it is big enough for those two companies plus General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

At Least 2 Voters Unhappy With Slate

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—At least two Tulsa voters weren't happy with candidates in the Nov. 4 general election.

Election officials, recounting ballots, found Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus had received one write-in vote for governor of Oklahoma, and former presidential assistant Sherman Adams got a vote for Tulsa district judge.

Also found in a ballot box: a stale ham sandwich.

Police Need Money To Nab Bootleggers

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP)—The police department wants some whisky money, but Chief Murrell Waddle explains it's not for groggings.

He wants the city to provide the money so officers can make buys in efforts to catch local bootleggers. Waddle said the officers have been getting the money out of their own personal funds.

Crosby's Mom Under Knife

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Bing Crosby's mother had a cataract removed from one eye Tuesday.

The surgeon who performed the operation said Mrs. Kate Crosby is doing fine and should leave Beverly Hills Doctor's Hospital in 10 days.

The singer's wife, actress Kathryn Grant, who recently completed a nurse's aid course, "is doing a fine job assisting in the nursing," he added.

PRESENTING... EXCELLENCE WITHOUT EQUAL...

THE IMPERIAL OF 1959

Today, America has a new measurement for excellence in motoring.

IMPERIAL FOR 1959 . . . a car whose great dignity is matched by an eagerness of spirit.

A car whose new Royal Coach Body gives passengers more space . . . a car which makes available new front seats which swivel downward to make entry and exit easy and graceful.

IMPERIAL FOR 1959 . . . a car which combines spectacular handling ease with a firm sense of absolute control . . . whose newly designed engine develops enormous power with fewer engine revolutions . . . so it need never race or raise its voice.

A car which can be equipped with Auto-Pilot to remind you of speed limits, and to maintain a steady turnpike pace, up hill and down, without so much as a touch of the accelerator.

A car that comes to you in all its carefully crafted excellence from America's newest automotive plant.

IMPERIAL FOR 1959 . . . excellence without equal. A boastful statement? See it. Drive it. And then decide.
