

CHRISTMAS

"Christmas comes but once a year—thank goodness!" is the woe-filled tune of many an exhausted present giver. For unfortunately, along with the joy of giving and the fun of receiving, there's often the time-consuming business of wrapping presents. But once again we can tip our hats to Coty for finding a way to eliminate this tedious job.

By adding a sparkling assortment of wrappings, bangles and bows to their year 'round favorites (some even come with gift cards), Coty has transformed them into smart holiday presents—at no extra cost. In line with the glittering Christmas spirit, each fragrance item in the "famous four" scents is boxed and trimmed in its own distinguishing color . . .

There's always a loud clamor before the holidays for gifts that are reasonably priced but impressive as well—and Coty's "Originale" fits the bill perfectly. This handsome presentation offers a graceful flacon of perfume set in a satin-lined box that's not only durable but pretty enough to enhance the occasion.

Another superlative gift, combining beauty with fragrance and ideal for holiday givers whose Christmas lists seem endless, is spray "Mist." The long-necked tinted bottle with its press-button top releases a fine film of scent over skin, hair and clothes that remain for hours.

FIG ROUNDS

This is a versatile recipe which makes a rich holiday cookie-cake. Serve in bars, squares or rounds for dessert, topped with whipped cream, a cherry and bits of ginger, if you like. Youngsters enjoy helping cut the rounds—and eating the "trimmings."

Turn "Ginger Fig Rounds" into a delicious cookie by cutting the cake into bars; serve them plain or rolled in powdered sugar. These cookies are splendid "keepers," staying moist and mellow-flavored to the last.

Change the shape again and make another dessert by cutting squares of the fig cake. Serve them topped with soft vanilla ice cream or a creamy hard sauce. No matter how you serve "Ginger Fig Rounds," this is sure to become one of your favorite recipes.

GINGER FIG ROUNDS
 1 cup pecans or other nuts
 1 cup soft dried figs
 2 tablespoons thinly sliced preserved or candied ginger

1/2 cup flaked coconut
 2 EGGS
 3/4 cup brown sugar (packed)
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 2 tablespoons soft butter or margarine
 1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt

Sweetened whipped cream
 Chop nuts; clip off stems and cut figs in thin slices. Combine nuts, figs, ginger and coconut. Beat eggs until thick and foamy. Add sugar, vanilla and soft butter, beating until creamy and well blended. Sift flour, baking powder and salt into egg mixture; mix to smooth batter. Stir in fig mixture. Turn into well greased and floured 9-inch square pan. Bake in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees) for 30 to 35 minutes. Remove from pan and cool on wire rack. Cut into rounds with large biscuit cutter. Serve topped with sweetened whipped cream; garnish with pieces of figs and a maraschino cherry, if desired. Cake may also be cut into bars about 1 1/2 x 3 inches and served as a cookie; roll in powdered sugar, if desired. Cake may also be cut into squares and topped with soft vanilla ice cream or creamy hard sauce and served as dessert.

Makes six to nine rounds, or 1 1/2 dozen bars.

CHOPPED FRUIT
 When you are chopping raisins or other fruit for holiday puddings, rub your knife with a little soft butter or oil. It keeps the fruit from sticking to it.

REVLON

From the fashion street of the world, New York's Fifth Avenue, comes Revlon's new color excitement, Fifth Avenue Red, a true bright red for lips and fingertips. This is the perfect red to set off your most brilliant new fashions to perfection.

When is Fifth Avenue not a place?

When it is a mood translated into color.

When is a red a dazzling, true, real red?

When the Revlon color experts capture the essence of fashion and name it Fifth Avenue Red.

Fifth Avenue Red is the kind of red most wanted by women and the kind of red intended to ignite this season's fashions.

It is not a blue red and not a yellow red. It is a true, full red. Wear it on lips and fingertips with this season's most elegant clothes.

Try its blazing brilliance with golden laces and brocades, sleek blacks, brilliant blues and mauves.

Take a tip from the Revlon color experts and wear your colors wisely. Watch the effect of color on your skin. Golden hues can add too much yellow to your complexion. Blues and lavenders can tend to make you look much too rosy. Counteract a yellow cast to your complexion with a rose-based foundation. A beige-tone foundation will subdue any too rosy skin.

Achieve the perfect background for Fifth Avenue Red with a porcelain-like complexion accented with eye makeup. Fifth Avenue Red at lips and fingertips can be your personal fashion signature.

BEAUTY TIP

If your nose is large, says Hollywood make-up expert, Max Factor, camouflage its prominence. Cheek rouge extended close to the nose points up its size. Never pass the mid-cheek line with rouge and extend its color out to the hairline. Pluck and pencil brows at least one eye's length apart. Brows which are close together add length to the nose.

Shorten a nose by applying foundation make-up one shade darker than usual under tip and blend.

Likewise use this foundation to diminish the size of a wide nose by shading it along the sides and blend.

Wear lifted bangs, puffs or curls to balance a large nose. Hair pulled off the face and forehead sets the large nose in stark relief.

CARNATION INSTANT

There's nothing like a well balanced breakfast to get you and your whole family off to a good start these crisp late fall and early winter days.

Have them sit down to a morning meal which includes fruit or fruit juice, a hot cereal, milk and hot muffins or toast. Breakfast should supply a quarter to a third of your family's daily food needs.

A good breakfast will enable them to get going quickly, feel better, do better work and avoid that "mid-morning fatigue."

For the hot cereal in tomorrow's breakfast menu, serve delicious quick cooking Carnation Instant Wheat. It provides all the values of wheat, iron and phosphorus, iron and wheat germ which make whole wheat so beneficial as a food.

Carnation Instant Wheat is famous Idaho Baart Wheat rolled into tiny, instantly cooking flakes by a special process that preserves the precious protein and B vitamins of whole wheat and provides a richer delicious flavor.

Good news for low-salt dieters, too, because Carnation Instant

Wheat contains not more than five milligrams of sodium per 100 grams. An average breakfast serving (1 ounce dry) contains not more than 1.4 mg. of sodium.

Another good note: Carnation Instant Wheat makes wonderful cookies for the lunch-toting crowd and for the after-school snacks with a big glass of Instant Carnation Milk.

CAKES

Wire racks for cooling cakes and cookies should have short but substantial legs.

SCRAMBLED EGGS

Ever serve Denver scrambled eggs? Add sauteed onion, green pepper and diced ham to the eggs before scrambling. Serve with toast points and a slice of fresh tomato for a hearty lunch.
