

The Pelicans have pulled the shades on another football season—it's all over. So what is yours truly planning for tonight? A busman's holiday — I'm going to a football game. Just like John Q. Spectator . . . no clipboard, no statistics pad, no typewriter, no pocketful of pencils . . . nothing but the usual equipment carried by a sports addict who goes to enjoy a game.

The game? Marshfield and Medford, of course, in the first round of the State A-1 football playoffs. I'm the guy who said, way back at the start of the season, that the team to beat Marshfield would become the state champion. I may have to eat my words . . . this won't be new, however, I made another mistake back in '06.

Of course there remains the barest possibility that I just might high school football. . . . This hasn't been my best season. What I should do I guess, is write my choices on a slip in disappearing ink, then stick it in the farthest corner of my desk drawer . . . and keep my mouth shut. Then when the week's play was over I could pull out the slip and . . . well, how would you prove it? Factually, Medford holds the edge. They have already beaten the Pirates once. However Marshfield coach Pete Susick has a distinct aversion to being beaten twice in the same season by the same team. The clubs are playing at Medford; the "experts" say that is good for seven points for the home team. Susick says "We are two touchdowns better than Medford." Medford coach Fred Speilberg says "phooey" or words to that effect.

Some more facts: Medford tied Grants Pass, Grants Pass tied Marshfield, Marshfield scored six points on Grants Pass while Medford got blanked . . . and then we are back to the thought that Medford beat Marshfield. Confusing isn't it? There are some that say that Grants Pass got robbed against Medford; they say that Jack Dean was into the end zone for a Caveman TD. The officials say he wasn't.

So . . . you pays your money and you takes your choice. . . . All we need now is for the two clubs to battle to a scoreless tie. It could happen.

Tomorrow afternoon the Merrill Huskies take to the gridiron to do their best to start a victory skin that will lead to a State B football crown. The first step is Maupin . . . then comes Umatilla or Joseph. A win over Umatilla or Joseph will boost the Huskies into the State B finals.

The Huskies have come close a couple of times over the last two years . . . this time they figure to go all the way.

If Merrill downs Maupin, and it appears that they should, the semifinal game will be played here . . . and that every sports fan in the county should plan to see.

Believe me it is a pleasure to watch Huskies, Maupin and Co. at work.

Pelican coach Andy Knudsen is planning to use a single-wing attack next year. From where he sits it appears that he will have the "horses" to do it up nicely.

The frosh and this year's Jayvees are showing all the signs. This doesn't necessarily mean, however, that the Pelicans are going to be a district champion next year. Medford, Grants Pass and the surprising Grants Comets are keeping most of their best men around for another season and each one of the three schools has designs on the title. It does mean, though, that the Pels will put a much better scrap, all along the route. Our turn is coming.

Traffic in the sports area will be getting thick again in the not too distant future . . . a month, say. The Pelican cagers will play twice a week, as will the OTI Owls; all the county schools get in two a week, and then of course, I don't know how many city, commercial and church basketball leagues will be under way. All this not counting the Southern Oregon Conference wrestling program.

Speaking of the wrestlers, KU coach DeLance Duncan has issued gear to 80 matmen and would-be matmen already. Duncan heads for Ashland Saturday and a meeting with other conference coaches to set forth the scheduling for competition through the coming season.

Later in the month Duncan plans to attend a series of wrestling clinics being held at the University of Oregon by Duck mat coach Mike Reuter.

If the rumor was true that the Henley-Phoenix game was attended by college scouts interested in two or three Hornet griders, all that can be said is that the timing was poor. Both for the Hornets and the scouts. The Hornet loss stemmed from a way below average performance . . . and of course it had to come in their last appearance.

One has to seriously doubt, however, that any scout would form a really conclusive opinion as to a player's abilities off just one showing. It's a good possibility that said scouts may have just gotten another look before the last game.

Beavers, Indians Set For Teevee

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — It will be Stanford's T against the Oregon State single-wing on NBC's regional television game of the week Saturday. The telecast will start at 1:45 p.m. p.s.t.

NBC said Thursday that the Beaver-Card contest had been selected for West Coast fans. The game will be a crucial one for the Beavers since a loss will knock them out of the Rose Bowl race.

Davis Cuppers Off To Sydney

TOKYO (AP) — American Davis Cuppers Hamilton Richardson and Alex Onizco left by air for Sydney, Australia, today.

They will join other American players there for interzone matches against the winner of the semifinals between Italy and the Philippines.
