

PELICAN PETE, the Klamath County Museum's stuffed incarnation of the county mascot, was a center of attraction for members of Cub Den 5, Pack 73, when they paid the institution a call in fulfillment of this week's cub project to visit a public building. With their den mother, Mrs. Alexander Luft, they are, left to right, standing and to the rear, Rudolph Gorsch, Gary Molatore, Brian Ritchey and Ben Burgess, and, toward the front in various degrees of genuflection, Kenneth Luft, David Anson, Douglas Young and Ralph Eccles.

Dip Reported In Production

PORTLAND (AP) — The Western Pine Assn. said Thursday in its weekly report orders, shipments and production of Western pine were down last week from the week before, but increased over the same week of 1957. Prices Boosted By Oil Company

PORTLAND (AP)—One major oil company raised regular gasoline prices to 33.9 cents a gallon Thursday and other Portland area service stations were reported ready to follow suit, ending a gasoline price competition. The gas war, which started nearly one month ago, dropped regular gasoline prices as low as 26.9 cents a gallon. Oil industry spokesmen said they were forced to reduce prices in the face of competition from imported cut rate gasoline from Venezuela.

IRE PLAYS GOLF
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower took advantage of Indian summer weather Thursday to play a round of golf at Burning Tree Club. He also played the day before.

Auto Accident Escapes Memory

LOS ANGELES (AP) — English actress Patricia Cutts has a court date Dec. 11 regarding an auto accident she says she can't remember. The tall blonde 28, was arraigned in municipal court on a hit-run driving charge and freed on $300 bond pending the preliminary hearing. Miss Cutts was arrested last Saturday after an accident in Hollywood. Police said she left the scene without reporting to them.

Her attorneys said the actress had been hospitalized.

Pupils To Vie For Trophy

Students from at least three county high schools will compete Friday night for a trophy, a $50 savings bond and the right to enter a state oratorical contest.

The occasion is a speech contest on the subject "Forest Conservation" sponsored by the Langel Valley, Poe Valley and Klamath soil conservation districts.

Tonight's winner will represent the Klamath-Lake region in a state contest at Baker November 20 in competition with winners from six other districts in the state.

The Klamath-Lake district finals will begin at 7:30 tonight in the Shasta School Auditorium. Competitors represent winners from local contests held in most of the county's high schools.

Entered in the county finals are students from Bonanza, Henley and Merrill high schools, and possibly others.

The first prize, in addition to the privilege of entering the state finals, will be a trophy and a $50 savings bond provided by the J. R. Simplot Company's fertilizer and mining division. The second prize will be a plaque and a $25 savings bond, and third prize will be $10 cash. Both second and third prizes will be provided by the three sponsoring soil conservation districts.
