

Bend Rites Unite Couple

SILVER LAKE—Beverly Iverson became the bride of Virgil Little in a double ring ceremony October 19 at the Church of Christ in Bend, with the Rev. Roy Holland officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bannister of Paisley, uncle and aunt of the bride were the attendants.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Iverson of Silver Lake, wore a brown suit complemented by white accessories and a corsage of rosebuds.

Following the 2 o'clock ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Iverson. Mrs. Iverson served the wedding cake and Mrs. Maurice Iverson was in charge of gifts.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Iverson and Helen Iverson, parents and sister of the bride from Silver Lake; I. J. Iverson, grandfather of the bride, and Mrs. Ray Harlan of Lakewood; Mrs. Bob Carlon, Paisley; Harold Edwin Iverson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Iverson and Mrs. Roy Holland, Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Karn of Portland.

Following a wedding trip to Salinas the newlyweds are at home in Silver Lake where he is employed by Lawrence Iverson.

ZULEIMA NILE

Klamath Zuleima Nile Club held its regular luncheon meeting November 5 in the Willard Hotel. Emogene Jones was chairman for the day with Phyllis May in charge of decorations and Jean Aldrich in charge of the calling. Others on the committee were Aetha Howell, Blanche Marks, Bess Frazer, Veva Anderson, Charlotte Osborne, Ruth Holcomb, Rosalie Jones, Isabel Dehlinger, Marilyn Massey, Lynn Martin, Thelma Colvin, Ruth Marks, Madeline Hensley, Irene Byrnes and Maude Wright.

The Pine Grove Room was beautifully decorated in the Thanksgiving theme and the door and birthday prizes were the wicker horn of plenty filled with gourds and fall fruit which decorated the tables. Those winning the prizes were Helen Rainus, Alma Getz, Lydia Snyder, Mary Bothwell, Gladys Tennant, Grace McMullen, Mary Sayer and Lynn Martin.

Gladys Halousek introduced Marie Hale of Malin who was initiated into Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile, at the ceremonial in September.

Harriet Johnson, program chairman, presented Linda and Sally Hanville, talented daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, who entertained the club members. Linda gave two piano selections, "Spanish Gypsy Dance" by Dent Mowrey and Beethoven's "Scherzando." Sally's violin number was the "Fifth Pupil Concerto" by Frederick Seitz. She was accompanied by Linda at the piano.

December 3 is the date of the club Christmas meeting with Lorene McCollum in charge. The freshman chorus of Klamath Union High School with some 60 voices under the direction of Steve Stone will entertain.

Karen Young is in charge of the club Christmas box which will be sent to the children in the Portland Shriners Hospital. She asks that each gift brought to the Christmas meeting be gift wrapped and marked to indicate whether for a boy or girl and the age group it is intended for and also the approximate value.

Dancing Club Starts Season

WEED—Autumn was the theme for the opening event of the 1958-59 season of the Weed Dancing Club held recently at St. Michaels Hall.

An arrangement of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums flanked by candelabras with yellow and bronze candles centered the tables for the buffet supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Layton were chairman of the party and were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans, Mr. and Mrs. James Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. George Mattos and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nicholas.

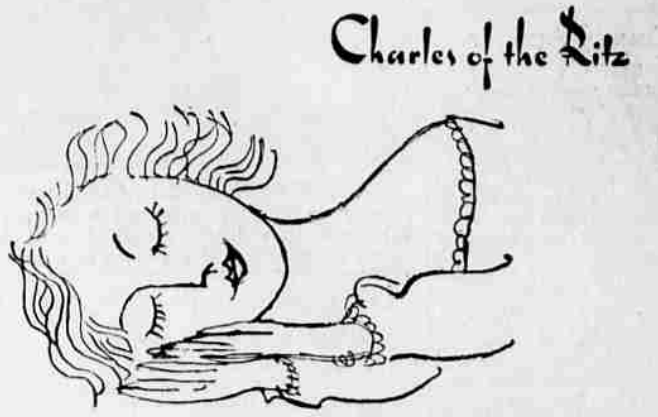

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Pellegrino, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garcia, San Jose and Mr. and Mrs. George Ruth, Longview, Washington. In addition to the committee, 22 member couples attended.

Music was by the Hottentots Quartet.

The November dance will be held Saturday night, November 22, at the St. Michaels Hall. The Harold Perry Orchestra of Yreka will provide the music.
