

MAKE YOUR holidays brighter with a versatile dessert sauce is the advice of the American Dairy Association which presents this recipe for Holiday Toffee Sauce.

TOFFEE SAUCE

Holidays are always busy days it is true. There's nary a minute for those little extras you would like to do, when you've children to care for, home to clean, gifts to wrap and meals to cook. But don't you often wish you could have something special for those unexpected callers? Try this versatile Holiday Toffee Sauce and you'll see you've a treasure in a jar. And why the jar? This is one of the many bright points about Holiday Toffee Sauce. It can be kept for two to three weeks in your refrigerator and taste just as delicious as the day you made it.

Holiday Toffee Sauce takes only minutes from your busy schedule to make too. It's the type of sauce that you can cook up right after breakfast. And the flavor is superb. It's a harmonious blending of butter and toasted almond slivers, brown sugar, corn syrup, salt and evaporated milk. It's silky smoothness is due to the wonderful binding action of evaporated milk.

This sauce is versatile too, in its many uses. Try it either warm or cold over ice cream, for a frosty treat. For an "extra special," slightly soften some vanilla ice cream and place it in a round salad mold. Then put it in your freezer to harden. Unmold by placing the mold, round side down, in hot water for a few seconds turning it upside down on a plate, and shaking it vigorously. Garnish your ice cream wreath with bright red maraschino cherry flowers with silver shot centers and frame the wreath with gay green maraschino cherry slices. Place it in your freezer to keep firm or serve immediately. Pour the Holiday Toffee Sauce over it at the last moment. Holiday Toffee Sauce is delicious on plum pudding too. Custard and fruit cake assume new and delicious heights when Holiday Toffee Sauce is swirled generously over them. And if you like variety in your sauce, try adding an ounce of chocolate candy bar to the sauce. It makes a mighty delectable chocolate toffee treat.

oughly dissolved. Slowly blend in evaporated milk. Remove from heat. Serve warm or cold over ice cream, plum pudding, fruit cake or custard. Keeps 2-3 weeks.

Interesting Variation: One ounce chocolate candy bar may be added to the warm sauce. Stir over low heat until completely melted and blended thoroughly.
