

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT C. STRIEBY, 4665 Peck Drive, observed 25 years of marriage on November 8. They were honored at a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Siegner, 4518 Crosby. —Photo by Ellis

Couple Honored At Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Siegner, 4518 Crosby, entertained at their home November 8 in honor of the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Strieby of 4665 Peck Drive.

A green damask cloth covered the refreshment table which was covered with a cake decorated with white roses and silver leaves. Silver candelabra held green candles. The silver service used has belonged in the family of Mrs. Siegner for 130 years. On the buffet evergreens sprayed with silver surrounded a silver dollar tree which was a gift to the honored couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Larson and family from The Dalles, former residents of Klamath Falls, were surprise guests at the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Strieby were married in Klamath Falls on November 4, 1933. He is associated with Pacific Fruit and Produce Company. The couple has one daughter, Mrs. Martin (Sharon) Graham who lives in Santa Rosa, and a son, Rodney Strieby, attending Southern Oregon College.

Guests who enjoyed the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Cy McColgin, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Klem, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boyington and Rodney Strieby.

PARTIES HONOR YOUNG PEOPLE

MALIN — The younger set in Malin were entertained on Halloween night at several parties. Karen Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Gentry, entertained her seventh grade classmates at a party at the Gentry home.

Spooks and goblins decorated the rooms which had soft orange lighting to give the appropriate eerie feeling of Halloween. The young people enjoyed games and dancing. Assisting Mrs. Gentry was Mrs. Loretta Van Meter.

A party of members of the fifth grade and of the fifth-sixth grade was held at the community hall with Kristi Ottoman, Cathy Fisk and Linda Schmidli as hostesses. Black and orange decorations were about the room and all the guests were in costume.

The young girls mothers, Mrs. James Ottoman, Mrs. Wayne Fisk and Mrs. T. M. Schmidli assisted with the games and served refreshments to about 50 guests.

The high school crowd enjoyed a spaghetti dinner at the William Rajnus home with their daughter, Vlasta Rajnus, as hostess for the evening.

Best face forward!

... in frames fashioned to highlight your own personality... accent the smartness of summer fashions. Dr. Noles Optometrists offer you a fabulous collection for summer from the style centers of the world

We Give 20% Green Stamps

Dr. Noles
optometrist

COLUMBIAN OPTICAL CO.
over 53 years

730 Main St. TU 4-7121
Open Friday Night 'til 9 and all day Saturday
*Drs. Omar J. Noles and Don R. Haylar, Sr.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES GILPATRICK are shown cutting their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage in the McCloud Presbyterian Church November 8. — Photo by Ray Kite, McCloud

Alleta Julien, Bride Of James Gilpatrick

Chrysanthemums decorated the McCloud Presbyterian Church for the wedding of Alleta Julien and James Gilpatrick on November 8. The Rev. Ronald C. Smith officiated at the 9 o'clock evening rites. Mrs. Margaret Heidrich was organist and accompanied the Rev. Smith who sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a part of the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mendenhall of McCloud. Mr. and Mrs. Odell Gilpatrick of Waterford are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace and net over tulle fashioned with long tapered sleeves and scalloped neckline. The full skirt featured a pleated front panel and bow at the back waistline. A fingertip length veil was held in place by a pearl tiara. She carried a corsage of red roses centered with an orchid.

Charlene Julien, aunt of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a dress of mint green all over lace.

Love Magnuson and Ella Wheeler were bridesmaids.

Best man was James Julien of San Francisco. Ushers were Raoul and Carl Julien.

Janice Mendenhall, sister of the bride, wore a frock of blue nylon for her role of flower girl.

A reception was held in the social room of the church following the ceremony. A decorated three-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom was served to 50 guests. Carolyn Prinz, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The newlyweds will make their home in Anderson on their return from a wedding trip to Mexico.

Wedding Plans Told By Couple

A December 21 wedding at the Saint Pius Church in Redwood City is planned by Sharon Darlene Emerson and Willis M. Welch.

The bride-to-be, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis G. Emerson of Dunsmuir, is a graduate of Shasta College and is now attending San Francisco State College.

Her fiancé from North Carolina, is the son of Col. W. W. Welch, retired, and the late Mrs. Natalie Welch. He attended school in Vienna and the Military Academy of Sewanee in Tennessee, and is now an instrumentation engineer in Redwood City.

PYTHIAN SISTERS HOLD MEETING

YREKA — In celebration of the Pythians return to their own hall, the Aurora Temple No. 53, Pythian Sisters, made plans for a potluck "back home" dinner party, as well as a Christmas party, at the meeting held last week, with Mrs. Helena Schluter, Most Excellent Chief, in charge.

Last week's meeting was the first one held in two years by the Pythian Sisters, in their own hall, which had been leased by the Yreka Elks Lodge No. 1990. During the past two year period the Knights and Sisters have been meeting in the Odd Fellows Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Davis of Little Shasta were named chairmen for the potluck party, to be assisted by a committee which includes Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ager, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Morford, the party being set for December 10.

The Christmas party is scheduled for December 17 at the Pythian Hall, and has been planned as a family event for the Pythian Sisters, Knights of Pythias and their families. Nomination of officers for the coming year was held.

Mrs. Marie Johnson reported on a reception given in October by the Acorn Pythian Temple in Sacramento in honor of Mrs. Edith Harris, grand guard of the Grand Temple of California. Mrs. Johnson was accompanied by her husband Ernest Johnson to the event. Mrs. Harris is a former resident of Yreka and member of the Aurora Temple, and now lives in Sacramento.

Talks were given by Mrs. Mertie Lewis and Mrs. Arlene Asher as a part of the evening's program.

A Thanksgiving motif decorated the tables in the dining room, where refreshments were served by a volunteer committee.

DECORATIVE ITEMS

Trips to the country during autumn and early winter pay off in decorative items for year-round use. Collect dry pine cones, oak leaves and other natural items. Then shellac them and store for holiday decorating.

Whatever Style Home...

Your Holiday Entertaining is More Festive with...

TOWLE STERLING

The "beauty secret" of any lovely table setting is its sterling. Wherever you live, whatever your style of entertaining, your tasteful Towle Sterling will add elegance and enjoyment to those special occasions — and to your daily living, too! Holidays are coming... come in and let us show you how really easy it is to own Towle Sterling!

A PENNY A MEAL!

Ask us about this modern, easy plan to own Towle Sterling.

700 Main St.

Prickys

Ph. TU 4-3151

for down-to-earth FASHION come snow or cold...

ALASKANS®

by Kickerinos

The Tyrol - in black or smoke glove leather.

Keep snug and toasty warm, no matter what the weather in Alaskans... America's favorite cold-weather footwear.

Fully lined in fur soft Nylon pile with bouncy crepe soles. See our complete selection of Alaskans. There is a color and style sure to suit your taste. Style illustrated at only...

$13.95

Boqatay's SHOES

617 Main

The "Buskin" Boot — $8.95
Smooth Elk, in Black or Grey

Shoes for Men, Women, and Children

THE NINE HOLE GROUP players at Reames are, left to right, Katherine Stonecypher, Bea Mead, Eve Ashley, Leona Robertson, Jerry Farley, Exene Humble and Claire Ellis. — Photo by Ellis

Van Raalte's shorter slips for new short hemlines. Put away your needle and thread... these new slips are the right length for the new shorter fashions. Exquisite nylon tricots tailored in the impeccable Van Raalte manner available in pastels, white and black. Get yours today in the new, becoming short lengths that never show below the most daring hemline.