Lakeview Couple Wed In Presbyterian Church

LAKEVIEW—White chrysanthemums tied with royal blue ribbon, and candelabra of white tapers formed the altar background for the wedding of Jeanette Gay Mulkey and Loy Owen Welch at the First Presbyterian Church in Lakeview, Friday evening, November 14, at 9 o'clock. The Rev. C. Wayne Julier performed the double ring ceremony. Soloist was Robert Shotwell and organist, Mrs. Molly Sullivan.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Mulkey, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Welch, all of Lakeview.

The bride's gown was of lace over white taffeta in princess style ballerina length. The scoop neck bodice had three-quarter sleeves trimmed in white satin. A crown of seed pearls held the shoulder length veil of illusion. Her bouquet was of white roses tied with white satin streamers.

Darlene Sylvia Mulkey was her sister's only attendant. Her ballerina length, princess style frock was of royal blue taffeta with scoop neck and cap sleeves. The short veil headress was in matching color.

Edmon B. Welch of Lakeview was best man for his brother, and another brother, Elton M. Welch, with Dawaine Morrell were ushers.

A gray dressmaker suit with red accessories and red rose corsage was worn by Mrs. Welch for her son's wedding. Mrs. Mulkey chose a brown and black wool suit, with a chartreuse spider chrysanthemum for her corsage.

The bride's going-away costume was a black and white tweed mixture with black accessories.

Arrangements for the reception were made by the women's group of the church. Pouring coffee and punch were Naoma Faber and Betty Swango. Pat Shannon passed the guest book. Sandra Mulkey and Joan Sims were at the gift table. Mrs. Roy Mulkey cut the cake and was assisted by Mrs. Larry Bacon, an aunt of the bride from Orland, California.

BPW Initiation Held At Willard

The Business and Professional Women's Club held an initiation program conducted by President Alice Gallup Monday evening, November 17, at the Willard Hotel.

Blanche Petroff, membership chairman, was in charge of the initiation ceremony. Her theme was "Advancement Through Action."

New members initiated included Dorothy Sack, Irma Quick, Dorothea Nolan, Alma Dunlap, Leota Schortgen, Jackie Hannon and Betty Thrasher.

Songs for the initiation were sung by Leola Thompson accompanied at the piano by Beulah Elliott. The emblem ceremony was beautifully exemplified by Rose O'Leary, Kathleen Ward, Gertrude Tolley, Dollie Cox, Lela Thurman, Belle Ross, Idella Edgar, Maribel Kidwell, Pauline Shaw and Olive Kinmark.

Past presidents led by Lillie White took part in a discussion panel. Doris Abernathy spoke about BPW on its various levels, world, national, state and local. Beulah Elliott told what BPW meant to her as an individual member. Dena Backes drew attention to the wonderful returns received from the investment of time, talent and money in the BPW Club.

Following was the regular business meeting which ended with all members and guests repeating the club collect.

Anniversary Celebrated

MOUNT SHASTA — Mr. and Mrs. George L. Thornton, 207 Ream Avenue, observed their 60th wedding anniversary Friday, November 7. They have lived in Mount Shasta since they were married November 7, 1898.

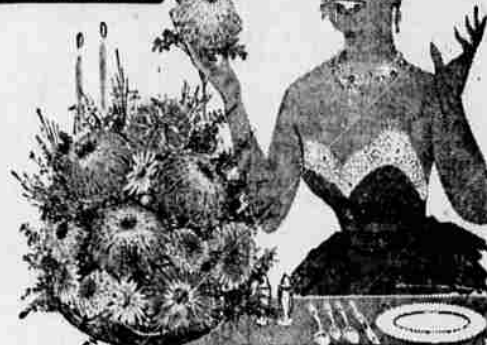

Mrs. Thornton, the former Emma Sullaway, is a native of Mount Shasta and a member of a pioneer family. She has been a member of Sissos Chapter No. 175 OES for more than 50 years, and is also a charter member of Siskiyou County Historical Society.

Her husband, a pioneer bridge builder for Southern Pacific Company, retired in 1936.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornton are parents of two sons, George E. Thornton of Dunsmuir and Temple J. Thornton of Concord.

A MATTER OF DISCIPLINE LONDON (UPI)—Four British soldiers who volunteered to serve in a "place abroad where you will not be expected to wear service uniform and where there will be no service discipline" left for the Antarctic on Friday.
