PUZZLE

By Hans Kreis

Find the ax, the spade, the chicken, and the goose in this picture of a Pilgrim family in the early days of Massachusetts.

Wizard—a Magic Trick Nat Bradford

The Wizard is the player who is IT. He goes out of the room while the other players select an object for him to guess. The Wizard's Servant has a secret from all the others—except the Wizard. He points out the object with a long stick.

"Is it this, O Wizard?" he asks.

Just before he gets to the right object he points to something like a table, chair, sofa, or bed that has four legs. The next object, he and the Wizard know, is the right one.

(Another way to play this game is for the Servant to point to something red just before he gets to the object chosen.)

Answers to Thanksgiving Quiz: 1. (b) 1621; 2. (a) William Bradford; 3. (b) Friendly Indians; 4. turkey, corn, pumpkin, cranberries.

Let's Draw a Pilgrim Father

Ana Davidow

'Round a clearing
In the wood
Where our Pilgrim
Fathers stood,

Where the angry
Indians pounded—
There our fatherland
Was founded.

There the Pilgrims
Said their prayers,
Thanking God
For what was theirs.

Our Thanksgiving
Should remind us
Of their thanks
In days behind us.
