

Social Worker Charged For Hiring Wife Killer

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — A 22-year-old social worker is charged with hiring a man to kill the wife of a state highway patrolman she loved. The man she allegedly hired for $500 turned out to be a police detective. The intended murder was not committed. The highway patrolman was not implicated. Barbara Ann Massey, was released under $1,000 bond after her arrest Saturday. She goes on trial Friday in Mecklenburg County Recorder's Court at Charlotte. The warrant for her arrest charged that she solicited Charlotte Detective Richard Ruth "to murder one Frances Smith," mother of two children, for $500. Police gave this account: Miss Massey asked a man in Charlotte about two weeks ago to suggest someone for the job of killing Mrs. Smith. The man she asked was a police informer who notified Detective Ruth. Ruth met Miss Massey Nov. 15. He carried a hidden tape recorder. She gave him a $500 check. Police said Miss Massey was not arrested until Sunday, since officials had not decided on the charge to be placed against her. Charlotte Solicitor (prosecutor) W. H. Scarborough said the charge is a misdemeanor, carrying a maximum sentence of two years.

Debbie Dates Film Actor

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Just charming company is Debbie Reynolds' description of actor Jacques Bergerac, with whom she sat, gaily chatted and danced at a gala ball. When she left, Bergerac left with her — and the couple with whom Debbie, estranged wife of Eddie Fisher, attended the Saturday night event. Debbie hasn't had a date since she and Fisher separated in September. But a close friend said Bergerac, handsome ex-mate of Ginger Rogers, wasn't Debbie's date — and that it was "purely by accident" that he sat next to her at a ball honoring Queen Frederika of Greece. SERVICES SLATED PORTLAND (AP) — Funeral services were scheduled here today for Mrs. Malvina Taylor, who came to Oregon in a covered wagon 100 years ago.

Nixon To Pay Britain Visit; People Know Little Of Him

LONDON (AP) — Vice President Richard Nixon comes calling Tuesday on Britain — America's No. 1 ally, whose people know little of him. "Many Britons first became aware of Mr. Nixon when he had the trouble during the 1952 campaign about the money," one Englishman said. "The last time they were aware of Mr. Nixon was last spring, when rocks and spittle were being fired at him in South America." The vice president, who will be accompanied by his wife has a tight schedule. It calls for a major speeches, a dozen meetings, and conferences with political and business leaders, lunch with Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, host to the royal couple over a Thanksgiving bird, and a visit to Oxford University. He leaves Friday. Nixon is coming to represent President Eisenhower at the dedication Wednesday of the American Chapel at St. Paul's Cathedral. The chapel commemorates the 25,000 Americans who were killed during World War II either in Britain or during operations launched from British bases. This being Nixon's first visit to Britain, several British newspapers have been trying to explain who and what he is. His record of voting for foreign aid while a senator and his pro-European stand while vice president have been heavily featured. Most articles have been favorable, but some have said Nixon is controversial to many Britons and to many more Americans. One article said one of the aims of the visit to Britain was to give Nixon more of an aura of world statesman. Another article said the visit was the opening gun of Nixon's bid for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination. The Communists are urging party stalwarts to boo and placard Nixon. But no violence is expected during the visit.

Appropriations Chairman Sees No Room For Slash

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman George Mahon (D-Tex.) of the House Defense Appropriations subcommittee says he sees no room for a cut in defense spending under the Eisenhower administration's new economy drive. He said a minimum defense budget of approximately $42 billion dollars will be needed next year. That compares with an estimated current year spending rate of $40,800,000,000 for defense — or about half of the total federal budget for fiscal 1959, which ends next June 30.

Pilot Plans Class Return

ALBANY, Ore. (AP) — George Elwood planned to go back to classes today — after a brush with death when his light airplane crash landed in a farm field. The 33-year-old Albany man landed in the field near Sweet Home late Saturday. It wasn't until Sunday morning that Elwood, chilled and hungry, made his way to a farm house and safety. The Oregon State College student was en route from Corvallis to Albany after a football game when his plane went out of control. "I was just looking the country over when I made a sharp bank at low altitude. The plane stalled," he said. "I lost complete control of the plane and it was nosing toward the ground. But I regained partial control just before it hit." Elwood said he was bumped on the head when the craft settled roughly onto the field. A wingtip was snapped off. The student said he moved slowly as he sought aid after the crash. "I just took my time," he said. "I didn't want to get hurt walking in the dark. When it got too cold, I moved on." Elwood is a junior in education at Oregon State. He came here a year ago from Pendleton.

Hagerly added that Secretary of Defense McElroy and Budget Director Maurice Stans probably will confer with Eisenhower in August this week on the new budget to be submitted to Congress in January. In another weekend statement Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) said an estimated $145,700,000,000 in spending authority is available to federal agencies during this fiscal year. This is double the $72,900,000,000 in new funds appropriated last session and includes unspent funds from previous years. Byrd, reporting as chairman of the Senate-House Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Federal Expenditures, listed 85 departments and agencies as sharing this spending authority. The Defense Department tops the list with more than 73 billion dollars. This includes about 41 billion in new funds and 32 billion unspent from past years. Byrd and some others contend the big backlog of unspent funds seriously cripples congressional control over federal pursestrings.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Singer Helen O'Connell has filed a separate maintenance suit against Thomas Chamales, whom she accuses of threatening her with a knife. Chamales, 45-year-old novelist, was arrested last week for assault with a deadly weapon when police were called to the singer's fashionable Brentwood district home. The suit was filed Friday. Chamales, who has denied making any knife threats, will be arraigned in Superior Court Tuesday. He and Miss O'Connell were married in May 1957. It was the second marriage for each.

Band Leader, Singer To Wed

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Singer Julie London and jazz pianist-composer Bobby Troup, who have been dating for four years, plan to marry about Dec. 15, their manager reports. "They suddenly discovered there's no reason not to be married," said Robert H. Ginter, who manages both. Miss London, 31, has two children by Jack Webb, from whom she was divorced. Troup also has two children by a previous marriage.

Creswell Man Drown Victim

COTTAGE GROVE (AP) — Earl R. Smith, 29, Creswell, drowned Sunday as he waded into the Willamette River to retrieve a duck. A hunting partner, Eugene Emery of Cottage Grove, said he saw Smith go under the water. But he said that by the time he reached the spot, Smith had vanished.

Communists Lift Barrage After Isles Take Pounding

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Communist shore batteries lifted their fire today after pounding the Quemoy Islands with the heaviest barrage in nearly three weeks. The Red guns fell silent on this even-numbered, no-shelling day. The Quemoy garrison reported hundreds of Communist soldiers went back to work on coastal fortifications facing the offshore islands. Nationalist defense headquarters said the Reds unloaded 1,973 shells on Quemoy and the smaller islands Sunday. This was the heaviest fire since Nov. 5, when the Communists laid down 5,594 rounds. Return fire by the Nationalist garrison was described as heavy. The Nationalist gunners claimed destruction of seven gun emplacements and one observation post, and probable destruction of five guns. For the first time in recent weeks, the Nationalists reported Red air activity over the offshore islands. Communist aircraft were spotted Sunday on radar screens on the Matsu Islands, 150 miles north of the Quemoy. Meanwhile, Dr. Hu Shih, Nationalist China's leading scholar, warned of possible new Communist aggression in the Far East while the Western powers are busy with the Berlin crisis. He said in an interview with a Taipei newspaper that the target of a new Red move could be South Korea, Formosa or South Viet Nam. Hu, Nationalist China's ambassador to the United States during World War II, recalled that the Communists overran the China mainland in 1948 and 1949 while the West was preoccupied with the Berlin blockade. The Nationalist Central News Agency reported that Chinese air force personnel rebelled recently in Kwangtung and Fukien provinces, on the eastern seaboard in the area of the Nationalist offshore islands. The government news agency said in a dispatch from Hong Kong that the revolt was nipped in the bud. It gave no details and the report was not confirmed elsewhere.
