

CHRISTMAS at the cosmetic counter is always fun. Here, Mary Chesebrough has assembled a half dozen items to make your Christmas shopping easy.

GIFT ITEMS

Mary Chesebrough's gift offerings this year are numerous and delightful. Here are the items shown:

1. Lazy Mary holds five assorted Mary Chesebrough perfumes in gold-colored Chesebrough perfume bottles, each fitted into its own groove on a miniature turn-table. The plastic table turns on its wooden base to let you make the selection of the perfume you wish. It is an ideal way to become better acquainted with the Mary Chesebrough fragrances: White Lilac, Tapestry, Strategy, Yram and Carnation.

2. Brocade Evening Purse with perfume: A gold and ivory non-tarnishable brocade evening purse holds a crystal chalice bottle of perfume on a removable satin tray. The tray may hold a three-quarter ounce Bishop; one-half ounce Knight or a one-quarter ounce Castle bottle of perfume in any one of Mary Chesebrough's popular fragrances: White Lilac, Tapestry, Strategy, Yram, Gardenia or Carnation. Just lift out the tray and the ivory satin lined evening purse is complete with side pockets.

3. Golden tube-like package with golden rosettes at either end holds five surprises. Just pull off the end marked "Surprise" and five surprises appear one by one. First a three-quarter dram bottle of perfume, next a tuck-in sachet followed by a one ounce bottle of toilet water. Then a two ounce squeeze bottle of Cream Body Massage, and fifth and last: a cake of Hand Soap. This assortment may be had in White Lilac or Tapestry fragrance.

4. Go-Round: A round plastic box contains five wonderful Mary Chesebrough bath preparations. Turn it 'round and 'round to see a squeeze bottle of Cream Body Massage, Toilet Water, Soap, Dusting Powder and Bubble Bath Essence, each fitted into its own compartment. This may be had in six different fragrances: White Lilac, Tapestry, Strategy, Yram, Gardenia or Carnation.

5. Keepsake Box is one of Mary Chesebrough's bath sets, containing in the upper compartment Toilet Water, Perfume and Bath Essence. In the lower drawer are two cakes of soap on either side of a shaker of Dusting Powder.

When the products are removed the partitions also may be lifted, leaving a shallow and a deep compartment for jewelry or other items.

CLEARING SOUP

Despite the wonderful assortment of canned soups on the market, many homemakers like to make their own from scratch. If you wonder how the experts make perfectly clear consommé, for example, take this hint from a gourmet chef: A slightly beaten egg white and a crushed egg shell may be used to clear a quart of stock for soups or sauces. The albumin in the egg coagulates as it is heated with the stock and any meat residue combines with the coagulated albumin. The clear stock should be allowed to settle and then strain it through a couple of thicknesses of cheesecloth placed over a fine sieve.

WYANDOTTE RIPE OLIVES

LILT

The 'jewelled head' ushers in one of the most glittering and fashion-conscious holiday seasons this year as all manner of earrings, pins and pendants are adapted for 'round the clock' hair glamour.

For the tailored daytime look, the popular 'bow-band' hats start an inch back from the hairline and might sport twin pins, one at each bow end.

Jewels are worn in the hair itself as though 'suspended' among the soft pouts by some subtle magic. Actually, the hair ornaments are attached to a narrow plastic band. When the hair is arranged over it, the band vanishes from view. A lovely jewelled pin is left suspended in the coiffure as an attention-getting touch.

For special cocktail dates, designers have come forth with tiny jewelled, flowered and fur hats that complement Milady's hair-do. These little 'shells' are cut away to highlight tendrils bangs and bouffant pouts in a most flattering fashion.

The ever-elegant tiara is seen on more and more women on very formal occasions. In glittering rhinestones, it perches forward at the hairline in front of a soft, bouffant pout that seems to be gathered together in its circle. Matching earrings complete the sparkling 'jewelled' picture.

According to the Fashion Coordinating Institute, the sweeping 'Empire' fashion trend sparked the 'jewelled look' and produced soft, bouffant hair styles that emphasize femininity.

The new coiffures have an aura of delicacy. Just below the ear lobes in length, the hair-do's give a longer, more slender appearance to the neck, a softer frame to the face—and the jewels add a sparkling, fabulous 'frosting' that tops off the simple fashion silhouettes to be worn this holiday season.

Deceptively simple in appearance, the tamed tousled hair-do needs undercurrent to give it body. — body to make the hair easy to work with and help retain the setting. Speed-Bath Lilt is an ingenious and unique innovation in home permanents that permits the application of its lotion—speedily, easily, and with no mess. Hands never touch lotion, yet every curl gets the saturation needed for strong, vital body because of the 'Speed-Bath Set.' Here's how it works:

The cleverly shaped saturator tray fits neatly under the curl, while you hold the lotion - filled squeeze - comb applicator above the curl. Then you squeeze. Lilt's body-giving lotion surges through each hair strand, instantly saturates from above and below, then returns to the bottle without touching your skin. As a result, every curl you unwind is extra strong and springy with vital body to hold a set longer—better body, in fact, than any other wave you can use.

Yes, fashion will go to Milady's head in the most literal sense this holiday season as jewels and bouffant pouts combine to form an eye-catching hair beauty formula that is flattering to all women.

FENCH TOAST

Fry French toast in bacon drippings, then serve with crisp bacon and maple syrup or honey.

SPEED-BATH LILT home permanent has an ingenious innovation that permits lotion application, speedily, easily and with no mess. The 'tamed tousled' coiffure worn this holiday season emphasizes femininity. Deceptively simple in appearance, it needs body, such as given by Speed-Bath Lilt, to help retain its tousled but shaped setting.

U.S. PIES

One of the best ways of becoming acquainted with your neighbors from other parts of the country is to learn about their favorite dishes. We may not all get the chance to travel as often or as far as we like—but we can capture the flavor of far-off places by borrowing a recipe of one of our neighbors and highlighting it on our own table.

The first recipe is from the Hoosier state and it's a delicious blend of white and brown sugar, cooked to a luscious butterscotch color.

The second pie filling hails from the Mississippi Valley and Kentucky. It's a rich, sweet-tasting concoction consisting of a tart jelly and a butter-sugar-egg mixture.

The last recipe from New England is a sour cream raisin pie. The refreshing tanginess of this pie filling is a wonderful complement to the juicy raisins.

INDIANA CREAM PIE

2 cups cream, thin
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
Pinch of allspice
One 8-inch baked pie shell

Scald cream; stir in combined sugars and flour.
Cook in double boiler until thick; add spices; cool to room temperature.
Pour into baked pie shell. Serve with Marshmallow Whip Topping or spread meringue sprinkled with finely chopped nuts and bake in 325 degree oven for about 15 to 20 minutes.

KENTUCKY TRANSPARENT PIE

One 8-inch pastry shell (not baked)
1 cup grape jelly
1/2 cup butter
3 eggs, well beaten
1 cup sugar
Spread jelly on bottom of pastry shell.
Cream butter and gradually add

Moisture Petals

Cold winds are drying to the skin.

Heated rooms are also drying and dry skin is a bugaboo that plagues young complexions as well as more mature ones. So-called 'dry' skin can be lacking in the essential moisture that is so vital to skin beauty, too.

All of which makes the news from DuBarry so welcome.

DuBarry's new Moisture Petals is a greaseless, deep moisturizer for all skin types, formulated with Placentine, a new scientific discovery made from the source of life itself.

Moisture Petals enables the skin to retain moisture, too, so it is long-lasting.

DuBarry suggests applying Moisture Petals every morning before make-up. Apply a few drops to face and throat. Count to five, then apply your make-up as usual. Use your favored tinted foundation over Moisture Petals if you wish.

At night, especially if your skin is weather-dry and tending to flaking, use Moisture Petals for an invisible, yet potent, beauty-and-moisture treatment.

BEAUTIFYING deep moisture for the complexion comes from DuBarry's new Moisture Petals, formulated with Placentine. Moisture Petals is effective as a day-long foundation lotion making makeup wear better, look better and last longer.

CONVENIENCE

Make double batches of spaghetti sauce and store one in the freezing compartment for later use. When using frozen spaghetti sauce, thaw it by sauteing a chopped onion in a little oil and then adding the thawed sauce for reheating.

MILD FLAVORS

It's overcooking cabbage and turnips that produces a strong, unpleasant flavor.

SPINACH
Pep up spinach by serving it with a garnish of hard-cooked egg, lemon wedges or crisp bacon and serve it hot.
