

Colts Win Division Crown

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE EASTERN CONFERENCE

W.L.T. Pct. Pts. OP
Cleveland 8 2 0 .300 271 190
New York 7 3 0 .700 214 156
Pittsburgh 6 4 0 .600 209 195
Washington 3 7 0 .300 190 254
Chi. Cards 2 7 1 .222 226 238
Philadelphia 2 7 1 .222 221 265

WESTERN CONFERENCE

W.L.T. Pct. Pts. OP
Baltimore 9 1 0 .900 341 152
Chi. Bears 6 4 0 .600 247 200
Los Angeles 6 4 0 .600 239 230
Detroit 4 5 1 .444 228 236
San Francisco 4 6 0 .400 188 291
Green Bay 1 8 1 .111 152 300

Sunday Results

Baltimore 35, San Francisco 27
Cleveland 21, Washington 14

Los Angeles 29, Chicago Cards 14
Pittsburgh 24, Chicago Bears 10
New York 24, Philadelphia 10

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lenny Moore's choreographer and Johnny Unitas' script writer fashioned a brilliant last act as the Baltimore Colts won their first Western Conference championship in the National Football League.

The come-from-behind Colts did it the hard way Sunday, striking for 21 points in the final quarter and defeating San Francisco 35-27. At the same time, the runner-up Chicago Bears were eliminated as they lost their first game ever to Pittsburgh, bowing 24-10.

Moore and Unitas turned in first-rate performances as Baltimore (9-1) captured its first crown since entering the league in 1950.

With little more than 11 minutes remaining, the Colts trailed 27-21 after scoring at the outset of the final period. Moore stepped front and center. He danced down the sidelines, cut back to the center of the field, then forged straight ahead to complete a 73-yard maneuver that tied it. Steve Myrha's conversion put Baltimore ahead.

A fitting climax saw Unitas—still sheathed in an aluminum harness to protect his injured ribs—pass seven yards to Ray Berry for an insurance tally. It was the 23rd consecutive game in which Unitas has thrown for a TD, tying Cecil Isbell's NFL record.

The battle for the eastern division title remained tight as first place Cleveland defeated Washington 21-14 and maintained a one-game lead over runner-up New York. The Giants beat Philadelphia 24-10 and seem headed for a showdown with the Browns in New York Dec. 14—the last day of the regular season.

In the only other game, Los Angeles defeated Chicago's Cardinals 20-14. Detroit and Green Bay played Thanksgiving Day.

Pitt 24, Bears 10

Bobby Layne, Pitt quarter, beat the Bears and carried the Steelers to the fifth consecutive triumph. Tom Tracy scored twice for the winners as he gained 156 yards in 17 tries.

Pittsburgh's Tom Miner kicked his 13th field goal, high in the league.

Chicago Bears 0 0 0 10-10
Pittsburgh 7 3 0 14-24

Chicago: TD, Jewett (13 pass from Brown). PAT, Blanda. FG, Blanda (34).

Pittsburgh: TD, Tracy 2 (30, 18 runs). Orr (48 pass from Layne). PAT, Miner 3. FG, Miner (22).

Chas. J. Cizek TAILOR

Suits & Slacks Made to Order
Perfect Fit Guaranteed
119 SOUTH 7th

Colts 35, 49ers 27

The 49ers took a 27-7 lead in

Browns 21, Skins 14

Cleveland's two fourth quarter touchdowns nipped the Redskins. With Jimmy Brown bottled up by the Redskin line—he gained only 12 yards in 11 attempts—Lew Carpenter became the main running threat. He scored once and amassed 95 yards in 14 rushes, including 54 yards on the final scoring drive.

Washington 7 0 7 0-14
Cleveland 7 0 0 14-21

Washington: TD, Bosseler (14 runs). Watson (7 pass from LeBaron). PAT, Baker 2.

Cleveland: TD, Renfro (29 pass from Plum). L. Carpenter (3 run). Plum (plunge). PAT, Groza 3.

Giants 24, Eagles 10

Don Heinrich, subbing for the injured Charley Conerly, pitched two scoring heaves and set up the other Giant six-pinter with a toss against Washington.

Philadelphia 7 3 0 0-10
New York 3 14 0 7-24

Philadelphia: TD, Walston (14 pass from Van Brocklin). PAT, Walston. FG, Walston (33).

New York: TD, Gilford (6 run). Schnelker (15 pass from Heinrich). Role (5 pass from Heinrich). PAT, Summerall 3. FG, Summerall (37).

HERMITAGE

Give Nature's Finest Bourbon!

AGED SIX YEARS

$2.80 PL. $4.35 4/5 QL.

GIFT WRAPPED NO EXTRA COST

THE OLD HERMITAGE CO., LOUISVILLE, KY. DISTRIBUTED BY NATIONAL DISTILLERS PRODUCTS COMPANY, 85 PROOF

Shop the pages of the Classified

vacations & sick leave. Apply Tues. & Thursdays 9-11, Raven Avenue

ANSWER WANTED!

How many classified ads do U.S. newspapers publish every year? One million? Ten million? One hundred million? Three hundred million?

Refrig & Air Cond Supvr, $125

ANSWER: AN ESTIMATED THREE HUNDRED MILLION!

That's roughly two classified ads for every man, woman and child in the nation. Could there be a more striking testimonial to the effectiveness of newspaper advertising? The daily newspaper is worth so much more than the few cents it costs that it could probably be sold for a great deal more—yet its price is purposely kept down so that practically everyone can benefit from it.

Herald and News

Briefs

GOLF

HAVANA—Billy Casper of Uplie Valley, Calif., shot a four under-par 68 for a 278 total and won prize of $2,400 in the 72-hole Havana Invitational Tournament.

BASEBALL

WASHINGTON—The American Assn. voted to expand to 10 teams and made a concrete offer to the Texas League for three of its sites, Houston, Dallas and Fort Worth.

FOOTBALL

The Baltimore Colts defeated the San Francisco 49ers 35-27 and clinched their first Western Conference title in the National Football League.

TENNIS

SYDNEY—Australian Ashley Cooper, Wimbledon and U. S. champion, defeated Earl Buchholz, the young U. S. Davis Cup team member from St. Louis, 6-0, 6-1, 7-9, 6-2 for the New South Wales title.

ST. LOUIS—Chuck McKinley, Pattonville, Mo., beat Francisco Castillo, Hamtramck, Mich., 6-2, 6-0, 6-2 for his second successive National Indoor Junior Championship. Cliff Buchholz, younger brother of the U. S. Davis Cup team member, defeated Jim Parker 6-2, 6-1 in the All-St. Louis Final for the boys crown.

Perfect List Has 14 Teams

NEW YORK (UPI)—Only 14 college football teams, headed by Louisiana State and Arizona State College, ended their regular seasons unbeaten and untied.

Louisiana State, the only major college team on the list, finished its season with 10 victories and a Sugar Bowl berth. Arizona State College, the only other team to sweep 10 games, is one of four "little giants" selected to compete in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics playoffs which will produce the teams for the Holiday Bowl game at St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 20.

Rams 20, Cards 14

Rams' Quarterback Billy Wade slipped twice to Leon Clarke in the second half for touchdowns as the Cardinals lost their fourth in a row. Lamar McHan tried to snap the Cards' losing streak as he literally filled the air with passes. He completed 28 of 51, one going for a TD.

Rams 3 3 7 7-20
Cardinals 0 7 7 0-14

Rams: TD, Clarke 2 (17 pass from Wade). 7 pass from Wade). PAT, Cothren 2. FG, Cothren 2 (14, 12).

Cardinals: TD, Crow (30 pass from McHan). Matson (5 pass from McHan). PAT, Conrad 2.

State's Bates Picked By News

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Tackle Ted Bates of Oregon State Sunday was named to the All-America football team selected by the Sporting News, a weekly sports newspaper.

Hockey

National Hockey League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sunday Results

Montreal 7, Detroit 0
Toronto 2, Boston 1
New York 2, Chicago 2 (tie)

Saturday Results

Montreal 6, Detroit 2
Chicago 2, Toronto 1
Boston 3, New York 1

First recorded U.S. patent granted to a woman was to Mary Kies in 1809 for a method of weaving straw with silk or thread.

ENLISTS BASEBALL AID

NEW YORK (UPI)—Prince Steno Borghese, an Italian baseball official, arrived in New York by plane Sunday to enlist American aid in organizing baseball in Italy. Borghese said Europe's biggest baseball problems were "lack of equipment and good coaching."

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hollywood, Calif.—Manuel Quijano, 129½, Mexico, outpointed Willie Parker, 127, Pittsburgh, 10. Buenos Aires—Isaac Logart, 145½, Cuba, knocked out Jorge Fernandez, 145½, Argentina. Bismarck, N. D.—Del Planagan, 149½, St. Paul, Minn., outpointed Al Andrews, 154, Superior, Wis., 10.

New Milford, Conn.—Chico Vejar, 160, Stamford, Conn., knocked out Henry Jones, 162, Washington, D. C., 4.

Fort Wayne, Ind.—Bobby Boyd, 162½, Chicago, outpointed Neal Rivers, 160, Las Vegas, 10.

Juarez, Mexico—Alfredo Zuany, 198, El Paso, Tex., outpointed Bob Baker, 217, Pittsburgh, 10.

Army Lonesome End Seen For More Play

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Earl (Red) Blaik, savoring "one of the finest hours in Army football," had bad news for future opponents today. The Cadets have just begun to exploit his revolutionary lonesome end offense.

Army defeated Navy 22-6 Saturday for its first unbeaten season since 1949 and capped Blaik's 25th year as a head coach.

But long after the game itself is forgotten, 1958 will be remembered as the season Blaik introduced a different idea to the gridiron.

"I was positive this was something new and different but it didn't come to me overnight."

WINS GRAND PRIX

LIMA, Peru (UPI)—Sergio Nedeo, a 25-year-old Chilean driver, finished first in the Pacific Grand Prix auto race Sunday. Nedeo established a new record for the race by covering the 3,456 kilometers between Santiago and Lima in 30 hours, 41 minutes and 31 seconds.

Seventy-two per cent of the world's molybdenum is produced at Climax, Colorado, near Leadville.

Blaik said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Jeff Standout Uses Both Hands In Sports

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—When Terry Baker is on the mound he pitches right-handed and when he fields back to pass he throws left-handed, which are a couple of reasons why the 17-year-old high school star has fans all over here in a dither.

Baker, who has quarterbacked Jefferson High School to the state football title for the past two years, sports a passing record of more than 1,000 yards in 11 games. He also is a good basketball player—with both hands—and has become one of the most sought-after prep prizes in state history.

Akins, Jordan To Clash

NEW YORK (UPI)—Virgil Akins' first defense of the welterweight title will feature this week in boxing.

Akins of St. Louis risks his 147-pound crown against Don Jordan of Los Angeles at the Los Angeles Olympic Auditorium Friday night in a TV-radio (NBC) 15-rounder. There'll be a TV blackout in the Los Angeles area.

Akins, 30, is favored at 2-1 to keep the title he won by flooring Vince Martinez nine times for a fourth-round knockout in an elimination final at St. Louis, June 6.

Akins 49-18-1 record includes 29 knockouts. Jordan's 42-11-0 list has 14 kayos.

Wednesday night's TV (ABC) fight brings together Howard King of Reno, Nev., and Harold Johnson of Philadelphia for a heavyweight 10-rounder at the Chicago stadium.

Johnson, ranked second among light heavyweight contenders but fighting as a heavyweight this time, is favored at 12-5 although serving as a substitute. Sonny Liston of Philadelphia was originally slated to fight King, but Sonny withdrew because of a severe cold.

Roland Lasterza of New York, former heavyweight challenger, attempts a comeback tonight in a bout with Larry Zernitz at New York's St. Nicholas arena.

Another ex-heavyweight challenger—Roy Harris of Cut-And-Shoot, Tex.—makes his first start tonight since his 12th-round kayo by champion Floyd Patterson, Aug. 18. Harris faces Don Fleeman at Dallas, Tex.

The week's boxing schedule also includes:

Monday—Las Vegas, Nev.—Eddie Andrews vs. Sonny Heit, Richmond, Calif.—Billy Hester vs. Sixto Rodriguez, Philadelphia—Don Warner vs. Lee Jones, Providence, R.I.—Julio Neves vs. Artillo Tonto.

Tuesday—Fresno, Calif.—Art Aragon vs. Frank Bienna, Miami Beach—Robinson Garcia vs. Andy Arel, Holyoke, Mass.—Jim Beau vs. Milton Ebbs.

Thursday—New York (Sunset)—Jose Torres vs. Ike Jenkins, Seattle, Wash.—Bobby Hicks vs. Teddy Hall and Terry Lewis vs. Tony Emanuel.

Saturday—Kansas City—Willie Norton vs. Arthur Persley, Newark, N.J.—Vince Martinez vs. Stefan Redl, Johannesburg, South Africa—Jerry Luedee vs. Mike Holt.

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 89 yards in 29 tries.

"We had no special advance plans for giving Anderson heavy work," Blaik explained. "We did figure to let Anderson keep them honest while we passed to Dawkins. But we didn't hit Dawkins as much as planned. Anderson was doing too well on his own."

Blak said in reviewing the creation of the lonesome end last winter in Florida.

"I came to the conclusion we weren't going to do anything the other teams were doing if I could help it. I wanted to chase all the teams out of their compact defenses. It did that."

The attack is based on one end split wide of the other linemen. He rarely returns to the huddle. Most of the time plays are run from an unbalanced line.

"We haven't begun to use our stuff," Blaik said. "The possibilities are unlimited. The job is to exploit them."

Against Navy, Army had to overcome early bad luck, fumbles and a new Navy attack built on the double-wing and multiple flankers.

"The team's reaction to these factors ranks with the finest hours in Army football," Blaik said. "It's so easy to go to pieces in such a situation."

"Our defense was set for their regular stuff and it took a while to adjust. But when Navy only had to go 35 yards to score by recovering our opening kickoff fumble. We stopped them on our 13 when they were on the march later. After that they didn't get beyond midfield."

"If the boys had had more seasoning, the game could have been broken wide open. Navy showed me a lot of offense, but it was an admission the Middies couldn't win with what they had been using."

While Captain Pete Dawkins went into the game as Army's top ball carrier, fellow halfback Bob Anderson was the outstanding back on the field. He scored twice and pounded out 8